

Pocket Testaments for Shipworkers: Home-Run Leader: Boots in Vogue: Parkway Pastoral

A NOONDAY meeting of the Pocket Testament League at the William Cramp & Sons' Ship and Engine Company plant, Richmond and Norris streets, George T. B. Davis distributing Testaments to the workers of the shipyard.

SHIPWORKERS AT Cramps' yard examining the little Testaments received from the Pocket Testament League. Many thousands of copies of the Scripture were distributed to soldiers at the battle-front by the league during the war.

BOOTS ARE the London vogue. This winter costume has a coat of dark blue gabardine with a striped skirt of the same material and a white silk blouse.

LIKE A painting by Anton Mauve — a flock of sheep on the Parkway at the entrance to Fairmount Park

THE BEAUTY CORNER

THE SUBMERGED MOTORCAR in which Mrs. Robert McCurdy, of Jenkintown; Miss Helen McCurdy, her daughter, and Miss Mary Scott, her niece, were riding when it plunged over the embankment into Wissahickon creek at Maple Springs. Albert Conover, a war veteran, jumped into the water and dragged the women safely through the window of the car

MISS CARMEL NORMA DECIMO, 1532 McKean Street, Philadelphia. Photographs for this back-page feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.