Nancy Wynne Talks of Several Debutante Parties-She Discusses Various Relationships-Colonial Dance Tonight for Miss Logan

THERE will be two important tess marking as she came in to show them to this afternoon. Evelyn and Mary Mother and Daddy. "I feels all new!" Page, the two attractive fair-haired daughters of the Howard Wurts Pages. will be introduced by their parents at a ten given at their home, 1013 Clinton street, from 4 until half after 6 o'clock. And Susan Groome, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Groome, and niece and Mrs. Harry C. Groome, and niece of Mrs. John C. Groome, of this city, will be introduced at the Wellington, where she and her parents are spending the winter. The Groomes live in Wartenbury will give a joint luncheon for Madame Jacquemaire and Lord and Lady Swaythling tomorrow, and at 4 o'clock will give a tea for Madame Jacquemaire.

Mrs. Charles M. Lea, of Devon, will be the control of the city of o ter; Juliana and Patty Baker and several others.

Then the number of cousins is remarkable. Caroline Barclay is a cousin of the Wisters; Polly Goodman and Mary Ernestine Appleton are first cousins. Florence Kane and Florence Griffiths are cousins; the Pages, Wurts, Rhoda Brooke, Wisters, Caroline Barclay and Celestine Warder are all mixed up in some kinds of cousinship, and Margaret Thayer Graham is a relative of Peggy and Polly Thayer.

TALKING of relatiouships made me think of Elizabeth Bartow and Mrs. Heatley Dulles, who is her aunt or cousin, I don't remember which; but I do want to tell you this. I have heard several people say they wondered why they were not asked to the party at the Lilacs last week for Elizabeth. It was Lilacs last week for Elizabeth. It was not a big party, only fuelce men and girls, and not the dinner dance which was spoken of in the beginning of the cards of Miss Catherine Coffin and Mr. Beason. No large affairs have been given nor will be for Elizabeth until after the first of the year.

Mrs. G. Winthrop Coffin has issued invitations for a dance at the Merion Cricket Club on Friday, December 26, from 9:30 p. m. until 4 a. m. The cards of Miss Catherine Coffin and Mr. G. Winthrop Coffin, Jr., are inclosed.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Madame Clemenceau Jacquemaire, aughter of Monsieur Georges Clemencrau, premier of France, arrived in this country today and will come to this city tomorrow. Mrs. Edward T. Stoteswill be introduced at the Wellington, where she and her parents are spending the winter. The Groomes live in Warrenton, Va., you know, but came up here to introduce Susan. Their tea will be from 4 until 7 o'clock.

Susan Groome's own mother is dead, you know; she was Miss Anna Wright, who married Miss Carris McMurtrie, and of Mr. William Townsend Wright, whose wife was Miss Coxe. So Daisy Wright Forbes, William Coxe Wright and Hele Wright Dick are Susan's first cousins.

Mrs. Groome died when Susan was a very little girl and a few years later Mr. Groome died when Susan was a very little girl and a few years later Mr. Groome married Miss Mary Upton, of Chestnut Hill, the present Mrs. Groome. Of course on the Groome side of the family Susan's first cousins are Agnes Dixon, Martha Thompson, of New York, and Jack Groome, who married Gladys Teague, of Augusta.

The Groomes have visited here a'good deal, so Susan knew a number of the debutantes before she came up to go out. Indeed she and Mary Ernestine Appleton, who is also from Warrenton, are among the buds having the best times.

Miss Peggy Rosengarten, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell G. Rosengarten, of 2047 Locust street, will be the guest of honor at a dinner to

DON'T you think the two Pages are sweet? They are so dainty and bright and full of fun. Evelyn would have come out last year had there been any comings out, so it is nice for the two sisters to be going about together this year.

There's a lot of that this season, isn't there? The two Wurts girls, Eleanor and Rosamond; the two Glendinnings, Mary and Ellen; really the two Thayers, though Peggy is not supposed to be making her debut; Marina and Fanny Wister, daughters of Owen Wister; Juliana and Patty Baker and several others.

Then the number of cousins is remarkable. Caroline Barclay is a cousin of the Wisters; Polly Goodman and Mary Ernestine Appleton are first cousins. Florence Kane and Florence Griffiths are cousins; the Pages, Wurts.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Barklic, of

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Barklie, of Inver House, Wayne, are attending the horse show in New York. Mr. William Townsend Wright, of St. Davids, is on a gunning trip in North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Muan, Jr., of Radnor, are hunting with Mr. W. P. Stewart on his farm in Unionville.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Churchman and their family have returned from Cuba and have taken a house in Villanova for the winter.

BESIDES the two teas there will be the Lafayette Jahler and the Lafayet

DESIDES the two teas there will be the Colonial costume dance at the Samuel Price Wetherills's house given by the Yorke Stevensons for Debornh Logan this evening. All the lads and the Lafayette Lehigh game on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Simerman, of Woodbury, N. J., announce the mariage of their daughter, Miss Anna Miss Green and they will dance a Sir Roger de Coverley and there'll, be wonderful decorations in everything, and it will be very pretty, I think.

The Pages will give a dinner for Evelyn and Mary after the tea and the guests will go to the Stevenson dance and Mrs. Ralph Derr. of 1900 Spruce and Mrs. Ralph Derr. of 1900 Spruce and Mrs. Wan, Stinson, Mr. and Mrs. Isana Lauber, Mr. and Mrs. Harp Prock, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Wessels, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Wessels, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Wessels, Mr. and Mrs. Son, Mrs. B. Fox, Mr. Philip Renninger, Mr. Roder Mills, Dr. L. N. Cooper and Miss Sydwell. The home of Kelmsett, England, spoke on "The Position of Women in Agricultural and Horticultural Development." The women of the Garden Club and the Society of Little Gardens took an active interest. Mrs. Charles Davis Clark was pouring tea. I saw Mrs. Howard Mrs. Howard Willier, Dr. and Mrs. Howard Willier, Dr. and Mrs. Martin H. Walrath, Mr. and Mrs. Martin H.
