Distinctive New Fall Books

RIM O' THE WORLD

character development in 'Rim o' the World' than the reader finds By B. M. Bower most stories of ranches and round-ups. The action is the sort that never lags, and the characters are real persons." Boston Herald. $1.60 net

THE GREATER GLORY

"This povel of a New England Town stands in the front rank of By William Dudley Pelley the books of the year, Boston Herald, Decisiedly worth reading, t has a robustness and a genial warmth that are too seldom discovered in he fiction of our age." Boston Post

THE OWNER OF THE LAZY D

By William Patterson White

"Mr. White has produced the most stirring story of the Wild West that has been published for many a year," - Philadelphia Ledger $1.60 net

BURNED BRIDGES By Bertrand W. Sinclair

A splendid story of the Canadian Northwest, with its scenes ter- at minating on the Pacific Coast. It is a story of strong men, hardy deeds, with a fascinating love thread throughout."- Boston Globe,

GUN FODDER: The Diary of Four Years of War

By Major A. Hamilton Gibbs, R.A.

This record of four years' service in the English fighting forces by the younger brother of Cosmo Hamilton and Philip Gibbs, is one of the most fluminating of the personal narratives of the war.

UNHAPPY FAR-OFF THINGS "Pen pictures of the war's

By Lord Dunsany

these viguettes, written in expressive sensitive prose, deal with war-devastated country." New York Times." $1.25 net $1.25 net

For Sale at all Bookseiters

LITTLE, BROWN & CO., Publishers, Boston

"Thornton W. Burgess' Masterpiece"

THE BURGESS BIRD BOOK FOR CHILDREN

THORNTON W. BURGESS

Author of "The Bedtime Story-Books" "Mother West Wind Series" etc.

"Nothing that will come out in the way of books for children will be any more worth-while than 'The Burgess Bird Book for Children.' Mr. Burgess has many books to his credit, but this is the most ambitious of them all. Bird lovers will say that it is the best of anything he has done, and it will undoubtedly receive the warmest kind of a welcome."-The New York Times. .

"More important is the good thing Mr. Burgess has done toward making the nursery acquainted with the bird-life outside its windows. The color-plates not only defy criticism as portraiture, but pictorially they have gained by the scientistartist's small concessions to illustration."-The New York Sun.

With illustrations of 58 birds in full colors By Louis Agassiz Fuertes $2.50 net. At all Booksellers.

LITTLE, BROWN & COMPANY, Publishers, Boston

SANCTUS SPIRITUS AND COMPANY

Edward A. Steiner-

Author of ON THE TRAIL OF THE IMMIGRANT, THE IMMIGRANT TIDE, AGAINST THE CURRENT, Etc., Etc.,

With a realism that recalls Zola; with a passion for human freedom and righteousness; with a background of intimate knowledge of European and American conditions, Dr. Steiner here presents in highly dramatic form the epic of the immigrant. The Sanctus, Spiritus and Company travel. Eight distinct routes are folof the title are three old men of the little town in what is now Czecho-Slovakia,-a Roman Catholic priest, a Calvinistic landowner and a Jew distiller of plum brandy-three friends who have ever combated the religious, racial and national prejudices which kept the Slovaks oppressed. This story is born of its author's own strangely romantic and eventful life. Living close to the heart of the world, Doctor Steiner has written a novel of extraordinary power and

GEORGE H. DORAN COMPANY Publishers New York

ALBERT PAYSON TERHUNE

An ideal book to send at Christmas time to a young boy or an old boy; to anybody who loves a dog-and a good story. $2.00.

osinge extru. Order E. P. DUTTON & CO. GRI Fifth Are.

NOVELS OF THE SEASON—BOOKS FOR CHILDREN

Grandmothers

MRS. HUMPHRY WARD

STANLEY WEYMAN'S MRS. WARD ON THE FINE NEW ROMANCE

emergence of Popular Novelist

Some sensons have chapsed since that reh-remaneer. Stanley J. Weyman, as put forth one of his capital thies I high during and hold enterprise. It's many a year new since flowing focked outh that now rucfully sees hald spots on mobile age s mirrored pute read rap-turemely "I nder the Red Rebe." "A Gentleman of France" and the other works that blend listory and melo-leama, mad advectors and thrilling in-trigues into a best seller reputation for tanicy Weyman

How deserved that reputation was a proved by the many merits of "The reat House," with which he re-enres the ranks of the producing novelets frer a long silence. He has not forrs the ranks of the producing noveless ther a long silence. He has not forsition his old skill in shaning a story administration with and proportional am adreitly conserved plot. He has bet forgotten how to recreate an itsive historical background and atcosphere. He has not forgotten how individualize his characters so that may seem real in the swift movement ad strange phases of their facilities tional environment. For after all at is what Mr. Weyman's romances a made up tales that strate phases of rome the blood; this 'ct practical within.' They do not primarily at to observe life or essentially inter-

The Great House "The Great House" does not fun-fur back in time as others of the thor's works. The time is the see-ing display the function of the last century, the ner is the English countryside, the period" is that of the corn laws agi-tion. Against the background of the ruggle between the rising democratic over of the manufacturing towns and a traditional autocracy of the landed estiogram—fory then as now and ocracy—fory then as now and hardly less active in war work to assert their right to live their lives in their own way by. The plot of this has to do with without the guidance of elder and more on to an extensive and optimuch parleying and jockeying for post-tion in the consequent intrigues, which cut across and almost wreck an in-teresting love story. The heroine of the rounnee, who is also the contestant liegatee for the estate, finally settles the difficulty by burning the documents that

The Law of the Gun

Ridgwell Cullum

An ingenuous youth from the East has been victimized by some cattle rustlers in Montana and goes to prison. Eight years later he escapes, and tragic events begin to happen in the gold and copper mining camps of Sunrise. 'As in his earlier books Cullum's word-pictures of the rude frontier are consistently vivid and realistic,"—Philadel-phia North American.

3 Illustrations in full color By Anton Fischer. $1.60. Every Bookseller has it.

tions most convincingly.

BOOKS RECEIVED

Fiction

STRATEGY OF THE GREAT WAR.

BOOK OF WONDER VOYAGES, Edit by Joseph Jacobs, New York: G. F.

Juvenile

THE REFUGEE FAMILY. By Flavia Can

field. New York: Harcourt, Brace & Howe 51.50. ZECHO-SLOVAK FAIRY TALES, Edited by Parker Fillmore. New York: Har-court, Brace & Howe. $2. HE WISHING RING. By Cousin Eleanor, New York: Harcourt, Brace & Howe,

E MORGAN IN THE LUMBER PS By James B. Hendrya, New G. P. Putnam's Sons, $1.50. ZEB AND HIS FRIENDS, By E. Frents. Boston, Atlantic Monthly

Press. BOYD SMITH MOTHER GOOSE. Illustrated in color and black and white by key'd Kinth. Text collated by Lawrence Cincenter. New York: G. P. Eniusee's Sonk, 18.

George W. Jacobs & Co. Publishers - Philadelphia

SEEING PENNSYLVANIA

By JOHN T. FARIS

This is the special gift that will There are 113 beautiful illustra-ions, frontispiece in color, and two maps in this fascinating guide to the scenic wonders of our State, in which are off the beaten track of lowed and every page opens up delightful places and scenes which may be visited in a day's outing or longer trips if desired. Each spot has interesting bit of history, remance or humarous story which, with much other information, makes this volume particularly entertaining to the arm chair traveller. $5.00 net.

AT ALL BOOKSTORES J. B. LIPPINCOTT CO.

THE YOUNG VISITERS

Daisy Ashford (Age 9) Preface by J. M. BARRIE

"-richly dear and funny on every

GEORGE H. DORAN COMPANY

RED-BLOODED BOOKS MOTHER GOOSE WAS WAR-WORK GIRL THAT BOYS WILL LIKE

The Great House" Marks Re- She Has Written a Romance Indians, Mines, Boy Scouts, So Says Dr. Elmendorf in a Which Will Please British Football and Nature Yarns by Favorite Authors

> "Marty Lends a Hand" is by Harold Latham, whose "Under Orders" won success. The mining country provides the locale and much interesting informa-tion about mining is incorporated. But but rather one full of vin and vigor.
>
> Marty, the sixteen year old lad, takes over an abandoned copper mine and from this premise follows a whole lot of adventures, novel and perplexing experi-ences, mysteries and thrills. Mr. Latham has written a book with plenty of action, but free from sensationalism, and he has drawn his hero and other nature study in just the right propor-tions. He even provides a velly per-plexing mystery which is, of course, eventually solved after it has led the The inclination of young British women of the upper classes who were active in war work to assert their right to live their lives in their own way without the guidance of elder and more experienced persons has moved Mrs. Humphry Ward to write a novel about From Propers and the lais of the valley. From "gangs" always bestile and some-

Humphry Ward to write a novel about From "gangs" always hostile and some-it. She takes for her heroine Helena, times at actual battle they become real riends, each side learning to appreciate the good points of the others. A rattling yarn!

the rounner, who is also the contestant long for a new left in the care of a distingtive for the estate, finally settles the difficulty by burning the documents that support her chains.

The President's Speeches

"President Wilson's Great Speeches

"President Wilson's Great Speeches

"President Wilson's Great Speeches

"In addition to other great speeches of the President are his speeches in France, in Haly and in England; the armistice terms and the fundamentals for the lengue of natious. There are also important international historieal documents. These are necessary to mintellight understanding of many of the President's speeches as important international historieal documents. These are necessary to mintellight understanding of many of the President's speeches as they reveal advantage of the Heristian and the sure that are hist speeches as important international historieal documents. These are necessary to mintellight understanding of many of the President's speeches as they reveal at the content of the sure of the su in the way that elderly persons think such affairs should end. The wife dies and the husband marries the sweetheart of his youth, and Helena becomes engaged to the young man who had been chosen for her by her guardian.

The British grandmothers who read it will call it a most moral and improving tale. It is doubtful if it will appeal to the romantic tastes of the young women for whom it is written. They would have married Helena, who was in love with him for a while. He had the manners of a gradiently fascinating gentleman. The combination is one that sentimental girls find it difficult to resist. They will not forgive Mrs. Ward for having him surrender to the prespect of peace with a woman of thirty-eight, rather than renew his youth as the husband of a young woman with all the charces of Lady Thamilton. Helena is a real creation, however, Mrs. Ward says she is a young woman of unusual at tractions of person and character, and she makes her exhibit those fascinations most convincingly.

HELENAL BY Mrs. Humphey Ward. New

IFLENA, By Mrs. Humphry Ward. New York, Dodd, Mond & Co., $1.75. The smaller girls will welcome new Dorothy Dainty book. They kno the charming little miss and that sl Woodberry Society Publications dwells in the Stone House and the her devoted friend, Nancy Ferris, liv with her. Dorothy tries to make George Edward Woodberry is probably the only living American poet who is the patron saint of a "society" all to himself. Harcourt, Brace & Howe have taken over the publications of the Woodherry Society including "Wendell Phillips." "A Day at Castrogiovanni," "The Kingdom of All Souls" "Two Planses of Criticism." "Shakespeare." "An Ideal Passion," and "An Easter Ode," None of these volumes has been offered to the general public before. pleasant for those about her. To scene is laid at the little heroine home in Merrivale, things happe a way on account of circumstances of side her control. Jinny Randolol, real mate, helps her out and fina she manages to enter the hearts of she manages to enter the hearts of a the girls whom she has always like though they were not always receptive. Lippincott Co., $1.50, by R. G. Anderson, otherwise Some, St. R. G. Anderson, whole whole the structure of the struc young readers' attention and she blends wholesome fun with her descriptions of

k Co. $1.75 Key York: Dodd. A by Mrs. Humphry Ward. New Bodd. New Bodd. New Brown assembled in her two previous Dodd. Megd & Co. $1.75 General

| PROSE AND VERSE | Selected | Thomas and R. G. Paul. | Bestantle Monthly Press. | THE SUBLIF YEAR | By Raiph | The BUNLIF YEAR | By Raiph | The Subline | Bow York | Dold. Mead | this hero returns from oversens, ter 150. unating a torch dealer's roma-the story is lively and up to 0 Woven in is a thread of romance a spy plot. An insight is given New York: B. W. Huchsch, FOR INDUSTRY. By Rufus Steele. on: Houghless Minne Co. $1. GULLATT MISSION TO RUSSIA. By J. Buille. New York: B. W. Husbach. py plot. An insight is given preparatory processes of me CITORS' LUCK. By Alice Carrick.
on: Atlantic Monthly Press.
THERE. With the Yanks in France.
wings by C. LeRoy B. Baidridge. New WORKY By G. L. Walten, M. D.
adelphia: J. B. Lippincett Co., $1.25.
LANGISE VISION. By Annie Bryan
New York: Dodd, Mead & Co.,

warfare, the most taking feature of which is the landing of a war airplane near the girls' council fire. "Carita's New World" has lots of interest for girls in their teens. Lucy Blanchard takes her heroine, who in Binchard takes her heroine, who in another story learned to be an Ameri-can in her Mexican environment, fur-ther along the path of Americanism and maidenhood. For she returns back to the old homestead in New England. There is a great deal of charm in the author's characterization of her hero-ine and many incidents that are not lacking in excitement. lacking in excitement.

acking in excitement.

OROCHY DAINTY AT THE STONE
HOUSE. By Amy Brocks. Beston: Lothrop. Lee & Shepard Co. 31.

BETH ANNE GGES TO SCHOOL. By Mary
Femberton Cluther. Philadelphia; Fran
Fublishing Co. 41.50.

AMPTIRE CHRLS IN PEACE AND WAR.
By Isabel Rornbrock. Beston: Lothrop.
Lee & Shepard Co. 41.50.

ARITA'S NEW WORLD. By Liky M.
Blanchard. Beston: The Page Co. $1.50.

George Moore in Demand George Moore's "Evelyn Innes" has gone into the eighteenth edition. D. Appleton & Co. have noted an unusual interest in Moore's books this fall. NOT A BOSTONIAN

Definitive Edition of the Nursery Classic

What may be called the definitive edition of "Mother Goose" has at last and the text is carefully colated and verified by Lawrence Elmendorf, There are explanatory and illustrative notes. Doctor Elimendorf has written a history of the collection in a foreword, He reviews the tradition that the origina! Mother Goose lived in Beston and that her rhymes were first put into a book by her son-in-law in order to bring his voluble mother-in-law into ridicule, and of action, but free from sensationalism, and he has drawn his hero and other characters unosually well.

"Fullback Foster" is by a tested writer of boys books on athletic subjects. Ralph Henry Barbour. And it is safe to say that Mr. Barbour has a right nothing better in the line of an inspiring and vigorously manly story for his faithful clientele. The hero is certainly a sissy when he appears on the scene at school, but the school just as certainly kneeks off the frills and foolishness. Foster not only becomes one of "the boys," but one of their leaders and winds up to his own credit as a regular feller and to the credit of the school's biggest match.

"The Raisin Creek Exploring Club" is by another favorite nuthor for boys. Ernest Ingersoll, who is noted for his stories of mature and outdoor life. He interweaves thrilling adventures and nature study in just the right propertions. He even provides a very provided and of the first American edition. The french book was added to the first American edition. The foreign of the right propertions of the right propertions. He even provides a very provides a very provided and the rejects it as untendable. The date in the first American distribute to the first American edition. The french book was added to in England before it rended American which are not usually included in a Mother Goose book. Included among them are the Doctor Elmendorf has included in the volume a large number of rhymes popular with children which are not usually included in a Mother Goose book. Included among them are the stories of Jackie Horner and Tom Thumb. He has also reprinted the ancient Children tale of "A Kid, a Kid," which is the original of "The House That Jack Built," and explains billity is meaning in the notes. The book. its meaning in the notes. The bo-while entertaining the children, will interesting to their elders who like to recall the rhymes with which they were familiar during the years they were tied to their mothers' apron strings. What the Bostonians, who have regarded Mother Goose as one of their proud possessions, will say of Doctor Elmen-

BOYD SMITH MOTHER GOOSI

Marshall's Growing Fame

Dodd, Mead & Co. report that they have gone to press with new printings of all the Archibald Marshall novels, whose popularity in this country seems to be increasing by leaps and bounds.

Neptune's Son

Rupert S. Holland

A stirring story of the sea and of adventure along the coast of South America, by the popular author of "Lafayette, We Come" and other good books for young people.

The hero shows that American boys are as true sons of Nep-tune now as they were in the great days of whaters and East India merchantmen.

Illustrated, $1.50

Geo. W. Jacobs & Co. Publishers, Philadelphia

A Story that is Beauty

LINDA CONDON by Joseph Hergesheimer

(Linda Condon is the story of a lovely and appealing child who became a woman devoted only to beauty. This was her religion, while beauty was the profession of Pleydon, a sculptor. How their deepest emotions were turned into bronze, how love was made deathless, is told in a novel of modern times that holds the spirit of all longing for human perfection. $1.75.

ALFRED A. KNOPF 220 W. 42d St., New York

SIMONETTA

Edwin Lefevre

Author of "THE PLUNDERERS," "Wall Street Stories," etc.

This idyllic tale stands out from the mass of romances by reason of its rare beauty. Mr. Lefèvre has combined Ancient Italy and Modern America, White Magic and mystery into a memorable love story.

GEORGE H. DORAN COMPANY Publishers New York THE RESERVE OF THE PARTY OF THE

Engineering Books Philadelphia Book Company

17 South 9th Street

ACOBS 1628
CHESTNUT BOOKS STATIONERY AND ENGRAVING ALL CHEST WARRING CAR

New Novels by Master Craftsmen

All Roads Lead Sir Harry

to Calvary By JEROME K. JEROME

A BRILLIANT story, somewhat in the vein of the author's The Pans-ing of the Third Floor Back, woven round the experiences of a noble and talented girl who attempts to reshape the world to finer ends. She finds that the real drama of life is the eternal struggle between the Flesh and the Spirit. $1.75 novels.

Helena

By MRS, HUMPHRY WARD By MRS, HUMPHRY WARD

A nafter-the-war romance, Helena is an impetuous girl whose natural wilfulness has been developed by warlime activities. Placed under the guardianship of Lord Buntingford, her will clashes with his until she finds she has failen in love with him. In this atory we have Mrs. Ward at her best.

By LUCAS MALET

THE appearance of a novel from the pen of Lucas Malet, particularly after she has been silent for to clausify after she has been silent for beading and event of unusual interest. The breadth and sweep of Deadham Harf, its beautiful style, finds story we have Mrs. Ward at her luxurious length of the story. It likes the story we have Mrs. Ward at her luxurious length of the story.

Illustrated, $1.75

By ARCHIBALD MARSHALL THE many readers of Mr. Marhis new love story. In it he again introduces us to well-bred circles of English country life, and in his fa-

Deadham Hard

By LUCAS MALET

DODD, MEAD & COMPANY New York

HOLLAND OF TODAY

By George Wharton Edwards

Anthor of "Alsace-Lorraine," "Vanished Towers and Chimes of Flanders," "Vanished Halls and Cathedrals of France"

The sturdy little kingdom of The Netherlands is delightfully described by Mr. Edwards, who has lived and studied in its picturesque cities, and who knows its vigorous, progressive people. The book covers the country from "The Hook" to the Zuyderzee, and will be highly prized by those who have been there, and the many thousands who will be soon traveling in Europe. One of its interesting features is a discussion of "The Johanniters," a secret order which is responsible for the refuge to William Hohenzollern. Illustrations in color and monotone. Handsomely bound and boxed. Price, $7.50 net.

At All Booksellers

THE PENN PUBLISHING CO., 925 Filbert St., Philadelphia

THE TRUE THE SEARCH HIS CHARACTER AND CAREER

By GEORGE MORGAN

The most comprehensive and complete life of La Fayette published. 24 illustrations, handsome binding A splendid gift for any one. Price $2.50, net.

This new life of the great liberator is the one you must have if you wish the entire story of La Fay-ette's romantic career. His was a wonderful life. Your heart will quicken as you read of his chivalric aid to us in patriot days; his part in bringing about the Franco-Amer-ican Alliance, his leadership in the early years of the French revolution: his escape from the guillotine; his independent stand against Napoleon and the many other splendid and stirring episodes during his lifelong devotion to the cause of freedom It is a book that will inspire the younger generation to high ideals.

AT ALL BOOKSTORES

J. B. LIPPINCOTT CO.

AT ALL BOOK STORES

J. B. LIPPINCOTT COMPANY

CHANCE

THEY were lined up at the frontier waiting for the barrier to drop that they might rush in and choose their homes. Americans—everyone of them - crowding in that anxious army realized that the only un-peopled stretch of habitable country in all the nation lay ahead of them. With a wild rush they cross the Oklahoma border into "the promised land" only to combat with "sooners," intrigue and politics. Price $1.50.

By G. W. OGDEN

ALL BOOKSTORES A. C. McCLURG & CO., Publishers

Temple Bailey Says: of The Undefeated, by J. C. Snaith: "I read the book with a growing sense of its greatness. I laid it down with a conviction of the author's genius."

At all Booksellers $1,60 net.
This is an Appleton Book

Grace Livingston Hill Author of "The Enchanted Barn," The Best Man," etc.

"The Search" which carries

ohn Cameron through the tests both of physical peril, unsuc-cessful love and the hatred of a superior wins for him in the end all that he has desired. It is a story of a great faith, a great love, and their transforming power. Expectancy and interest keep the reader on mental tiptoe until the exciting climax. There is a conviction and fervor in the writing which lift it far above rdinary fiction. Just the kind of story one would have no hesitancy in giving to any one, old or young. Frontispiece.

$1.50 net

HEALTH THROUGH - WILL POWER

IIIS VOLUME is meant to help in HIS VOLUME is meant to help in the restoration of the well to its place as the superme faculty of life. The author shows in prevenive and curstive power upon such universal ailments as coughts and colds, intestinal disorders, theumatism, mental climurbances, etc., and the value of its application to the bad habits of self-piry, irregular and insufficient exercise, yielding to pain and senti-The book is not sechnical, but clearly and canentity expressed for the benefit of the layman un-versed in scientific, medical or psychological matters. It should win a wide and apprecia-

> By JAMES J. WALSH, M.D. Medical Director of Furthern University School of Sociology Professor of Physiological Psychology at Cathodred Callege

$1.50 net. At all Booksellers LITTLE, BROWN & COMPANY BOSTON, MASS

The 20th Plane

Amazing, but convincing. Chal-lenging, but authenticated. Re-markable as the Book of Revela-

Every Bookseller has it. $2.00 George W. Jacobs & Company

ROAD

Sara Ware Bassett

A story of homely folk on Cape Cod—with humor and pathos and a dramatic love story. At All Booksellers, $1.50 act.

The Penn Publishing Company