

PRODUCTS DIVIDED BY CANNING CLUBS

2492 Jars Distributed Among Women of Four Nationalities at College Settlement

ANOTHER DIVISION TODAY

Satisfaction was expressed in three or four foreign languages yesterday afternoon at the College Settlement when members of the canning clubs received the fruits of their summer labors.

There were 2492 jars of fruits and vegetables canned by the 142 members of the club this season and the annual distribution yielded as many as forty jars to some.

"It comes in good," said one. "And just to think, we did this last summer when we could swim in sugar!"

The canning clubs are a three-year-old institution. Starting in 1917 with fifty-seven members and almost tripling the number this year, they have made canning one of the most popular of the College Settlement activities.

In Height of Season Vegetables and fruits come to the settlement from private farms or are purchased at the height of their season in wholesale quantities.

Not only has the product of the canning club increased 500 per cent in the three years, but the idea is spreading into the homes. The clubs were so crowded this last year that many of the women were not able to get to the club as frequently as in 1918, and so they have been canning some fruits and vegetables at home.

The distribution party was held at the Christian street house yesterday and will be held at 512 South Front street tonight, when Mrs. Elliott Smith, head of the Woman's Land Army, will talk on the work of the land army in Pennsylvania.

MUSICAL GIFT SOLVES MANY PROBLEMS OF CHRISTMAS

Latest Mechanical Devices Bring Finest Vocalists and Instrumentalists Into Homes and Provide Entertainment for the Young Folks

BECAUSE one is not sufficiently gifted to master a musical instrument if does not follow that the best of music cannot be enjoyed in one's own home.

Years ago persons were compelled to go to the theatre and concert to have their craving for music assuaged. But today it is different. There are player-pianos and phonographs. Both these instruments bring the best music of the world into one's own drawing room.

These instruments, with the piano, are being suggested this year as Christmas gifts. They are to be seen in the stores in great variety of woods, finishes and styles.

It is an old saying that "music hath charms to soothe the savage breast." There is nothing more pleasing or soothing than the music of the piano.

England he assured all of those from whom he parted that he felt that the little of America that had seen him had received him whole-heartedly and warmly, and that he always would cherish friendships made here.

ARMENIANS HECKLE ELLIS Questions on Turkey Annoy Lecturer—Men Are Ejected

Feeling that he was being heckled to the point of persecution, William T. Ellis, of Swarthmore, had two Armenians ejected during his lecture last night at the Central Y. M. C. A.

Then awarding his favors Captain Potter was asked to remove his topcoat and the cross was pinned to his tunic. Major General John Biddle, who commanded the American forces in England, to whose staff Captain Potter was attached at that time, also was awarded a cross.

Membership in the Victorian Order is one of the most sought honors in England. It is really a personal gift of the royal family, rather than the nation's award, and indicates its recipient has rendered the royal family personal service and has been personally attached to them.

PRINCE OF WALES GOOD AT 'SHIMMY'

Meyer Davis, Music Director, Declares Heir to British Throne Dances "Like a Streak"

CALLS HIM A WINNER

"All the stuff you've heard and read about the Prince of Wales being a great dancer, a regular fellow and a good mixer is true, according to Meyer Davis, director of music at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, the Copley Plaza in Boston and four hotels in Washington, who, at the express request of the Prince, led his own orchestra at most of the parties and balls arranged for the young prince by members of Washington and New York society.

"Yes, sir," Mr. Davis said, "that boy is a winner. He acts no more like a prince than I do. And he dances like a streak. When he first came over here he wasn't so good, but after a reasonable time he developed into a top-notch dancer. He is partial to fox-trots. Pieces that he particularly liked were 'Tulip Time,' 'The Vamp,' 'Ooh, la, la, la' and 'The Bull Frog Patrol.'"

"He learned how to shimmy, too. All the 'debs' got him aside and taught him a few new steps—then the prince practiced on them for the rest of the evening. He certainly made a big hit. All the girls went wild over his dancing."

"The prince likes jazz pieces. He never gets out of step, has a good sense of rhythm and just can't get enough."
