"Nan" isn't a usual name for a goose, but then this is a goose of unusual attainments. "Nan" is short for "nanny-goat." and the name was bestowed in honor of the goose's terrible appetite.

"She's a regular gormandizer," says her proud owner. "Why, she cats anything from newspapers to the table cloths off the line. I've seen that bird gobble a piece of string a yard long, and then squawk for more. She had a whole newspaper for lunch once. No. I don't remember which paper it was.

"And affectionate! "Nan" follows me around like a pup. She'd fly up on my shoulder if I would let her. I sure did hate to have her fixed up for Thanksgiving dinner. And now I'm going to ent turkey instead."

Irvin Smith lives out in Falls of Schuylkill. Last evening a farmer from eighteen miles up the road stopped at an old tavern on the East Brive on his way to market. He had some fine turkeys, home grown and just butchered.
