street.

Rebecca is one of the girls who would have come out the last year of the war, so she is a sort of double debutante in this, that some few informal parties were given for her during war-times, but the big ones are being given now. She will be introduced at a tea next Tuesday, to be given by the John H. McFaddens at their rooms at the Wellington.

NEVER heard anything like the

I NEVER heard anything like the number of dinners which are to be given tonight before the ball. "I'll warrant no one will go there hungry this night, and so will you after you hear all the parties there are to be.

Mrs. Jones Wister will entertain for her granddaughter, Marie Louise Faries. Florence Kane, the daughter of the John Kent Kanes, will be given a dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Isaac H. Clothier, Jr. The John Penn Brocks will give a dinner at the Ritz before the ball, and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Arnett will entertain in honor of Jane Yeatman, a debutante of the season.

The Samuel Bells will give a large dinner at the Ritz for Pauline, who is one of the most attractive buds of the season, and Lucile Carter will entertain for Betty Pierson. The James Smiths are giving a small dinner, and Mrs. and Mrs. Harry Berwind will entertain for Margaret. The Victor Mathers will give a dinner of thirty covers at the Ritz, and the Theodore Cramps will give a dinner for Catherine Coxe, while Mrs. Theophilus Story will entertain for Anna Lewis.

Another dinner will be given by the William Baker Whelens, and there will be still others. So, you see, the entertaining is going on fast and furious, be still others. So, you see, the enter-taining is going on fast and furious, and the social season, as I said on the opening of the opera, may be said to have begun with a capital B.

A FTER the Thanksgiving dinners which finished off the excitement of the Penn-Cornell game and the younger set's dancing class last night every one is resting for the McFadden ball this evening at the Bellevue-Stratford.

It will be the first ball of the season, and the first since 1917, and, from all I hear, is to be very handsome. It is given by Mr. George H. McFadden, of Eighteenth and Spruce streets, for Rebecca Thomson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Newhall, of New York tomorrow to attend the Army and Navy game. The Newhalls will be becca Thomson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. "Beau" Thomson, of 1722 Spruce street, and Mr. Shipman Block-Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Newhall, of the Old Place, Ithan, and Miss Margaretta Harrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Harrison, will leave for New York tomorrow to attend the Army and Navy game. The Newhalls will be joined by their sons, Mr. Campbell Newhall, a student at Taft School. Connecticut, and Mr. Shipman Blockwell Newhall, of Annapolis.

Miss I, Virginia Heckscher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ledyard Heckscher, of Bolingbrook, Radner, who is attending school in New York this winter, is at home for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Just one thing after another these days, isn't it?

MARY is two and a half years old. Miss Sylvia Livingston, of 1339
Rut you wouldn't ever imagine how much a small brain of two-and-a-half can work, now would you? The other day her grandmother was visiting at her home and she and mother were talking a great deal together all after-poon. And then Daddy came home, and they all talked and every one was having a fine time.

So was Mary, but every now and again she would stop a minute and look a little puzzled.

Mother found out all about it when they went upstairs to bed. After the prayers were said and Mary was tucked in and Mother was about to kiss her she suddenly remarked: "It's so funny; Gamma calls you "Ethel," and daddy calls you "Honey' and those aren't your names. Your name's mother, isn't it?"
