

Penn's 1919 Football Valedictory: Radnor Hunt Club Hounds: Roman Flight: Soccer Match

THE RED AND BLUE finishing the 1919 football season on Franklin Field—Hobey Light, of Pennsylvania, downed by Cornell on an end-running play. The victory over the Crimson and White was the twenty-first scored by the Quakers over their rivals from Ithaca in twenty-six games. One battle was a tie.

THE WANDERERS and Disston battling in the American Cup soccer match at Disston Park, State and Unruh streets, Tacony.

FLYING OVER St. Peter's Cathedral in Rome. To the left are shown part of the Vatican buildings.

THE PACK of the Radnor Hunt Club. The annual Thanksgiving Day reunion between the riders of the club and the farmers and their families, over whose fields the huntmen pursue the speedy reynard, was renewed at the hunt club.

LADY ASTOR campaigning among the Plymouth fishermen during her speech-making tour for the seat in the House of Commons. Announcement made today that she had been elected as a Unionist over her Liberal and Labor opponents in the election held on November 15.

MISS DOROTHY MATHER and W. M. Kerr judging events at the Radnor Hunt Club's Thanksgiving meet.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS ANNA HARRIS, 1835 South Ringgold Street, Philadelphia. Photographs for this back-page feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.