Nancy Wynne Talks of the McFadden Tea This Afternoon for Miss Thomson—Oriental Bazaar Opens Tomorrow—Of Social Interest

THIS afternoon there will be the John H. McFadden tea for Rebecca Thomson at the Wallington. Mr. George McFadden gave a ball for Rebecca on Friday night, you know, and it was a perfectly wonderful affair. Scarcely any one came before 5:15 Chestnut ballroom at the Bellevue-Stratford was one of the most beautiful sights I have seen for many a day. Why, you'd never think there'd been a war, except for the fact that some, like Joe Du Barry for instance, are not dancing as in the old days. Otherwise the gowns are just as gorgeous and the jewels, well, well.

MRS. THOMSON will receive with Miss Thomson and Rebecca. Rebecca is a very smart-looking girl, don't you think? She holds herself so well and has such an aristocratic air. She is the granddaughter of the late Doctor Thomson, who lived for many years on Walnut street, next to the first Emergency Aid headquarters.

ARE you prepared and ready to go to the Bazaar d'Orient tomorrow with your pocketbook? I've heard anything like the arrangements for an affair of the kind. It's to be held in the old Bonney and Dilly school building, at 1815 Chestnut street, and the long rooms are to be converted into a sort of eastern street of open shops. The booths will have yellow silken canopies and the aides will be dressed in eastern garments.

ALL the booths and things for sale in them are marked with French names. The Bon Marche, under the care of Mrs. Sutherland Brown, has all sorts and kinds of dolls, and Mrs. George Green is to paint portraits, and Miss Anna Reeves will cut out silhouettes. "Les Choses d'enfants" will be sold by Mrs. Atwater Kent. "Fruits et fleurs" will be under the care of Mrs. George Pales Baker, and "joujoux" will be sold by Miss Eloise Dickey and Mrs. E. Burd Grubb.

BROWNIE WARBURTON has cigarettes and cigars for sale. In fact some of the most beautiful foot care and come in individual boxes. You know the kind I mean. They are very rare, and you have to smoke part of one one day and the other part the next and take another smoke, and probably finish on the third day. They are beautiful nevertheless.

Mrs. Charles V. McLean has the coffee loggia and tabourets for smoking in eastern fashion. You wear a turban and sit on the floor, you know. Rachel Price, Mary Knight, Helen Sifton, Corinne Freeman, Dorothy Ely, Filiz, Betty Grubel, Idella Grubel, Louise Aaburst and several others will be aides, and serve coffee and cigarettes in the loggia.

"Petite Boutis" will be sold by Mrs. Robert V. McLean, and Miss Colahan and Mrs. Fred Perry Powers will have "Les Antiques." Florence Hopkinson and Mrs. Arlington Gilpin will have "Les Boutis." "Les Antiques" will be sold by Mrs. Robert V. McLean, and Miss Colahan and Mrs. Fred Perry Powers will have "Les Antiques." Florence Hopkinson and Mrs. Arlington Gilpin will have "Les Boutis."

THERE will be an oriental beggar and there will be oriental sweetmeats and oriental music. And there'll be a real Armenian booth under the care of Mrs. Behlman. Indeed, I can't begin to tell you all the things there will be and all the people who are working for it.

Some of those I have not mentioned already are Mrs. Robert Dowds, Mrs. A. O. Lawrence, Mrs. Fred English, Mrs. Barclay Warburton, Mrs. Willard Rodgers, Mrs. Wilbur Klapp, Mrs. George H. Streuting, Mrs. Alice Lawrence, Mrs. William Gardner, Mrs. Otis Skinner, Mrs. Alexander MacColl, Mrs. Ashton Little, Mrs. Lewis Ziegler, Mrs. Maxwell Bullock, Mrs. George Chandler, Esther Boehman, Mary Deane, Judith Jennings, Anna Walthour, Caroline Nixon, Carolyn Valentine, Irene Hubbard, Elaine English, Mrs. Dobson Altemus, Mrs. E. D. Dice, Mrs. George Lamb, Miss Genevieve Gibbs, Mrs. John Lawrence, Mrs. James Starr, Jr., Mrs. Hampton Carson, Mrs. M. H. Harrington, Mrs. Richard Bishop, Mrs. William Phillips, Mrs. Walter Crane, Mrs. I. T. Crane, Mrs. Richard Newbold, Mrs. Sam Woodward, and Mrs. Fred English will have tents. Mrs. George H. Lorimer chairs tents of the whole affair, and it opens tomorrow and will last through Thursday.

Did you know that Horace Hare has been very sick? Had appendicitis and went down to the Johns Hopkins Hospital for an operation, and Willing Hare is down there, too, just recovering from an operation. Mrs. Hare and Miss Esther have been with them. The latest news is that both men are improving.

NANCY WYNNE. SOCIAL ACTIVITIES. Those who will attend the dinner to be given for Miss Margaret Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Ross, of Chestnut Hill, by Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Ross at the Bellevue-Stratford on December 23, before the Powell Evans ball, will be Miss Lucy Kinsolving, Miss Martha McAllister, Miss Anne Townsend, Miss Juliana Baker.
