And Now Jack Frost Warns Us How Close Christmas Is!

The Thanksgiving Sermon and Patriotic Oration stopped at a halfway station and the patriarchal Pastor shot off—

"Count your blessings! Sing it!"
And the people stood and sang until the rafters rang—

Yes! Count your blessings and Re-count them, but do NOT DISCOUNT THEM

The war is over and do not forget it! Give us the Senate plan of new bridges between the nations and all the world will unite together, coming and going.

Give honor to the noble President who conscientiously and laboriously did his best, within an inch of sacrificing his life.

Let US quickly strike General Grant's chimes and "let us have peace."

With the early and final adjustment of the Senate's duties under the Constitution of the United States, the waves of unrest and fear will settle down, business, labor, the railroad situation will be righted, and instead of the H. C. L. will begin to slowly restore the good times with L. C. L. (lowering cost of living), which will surely come along when everybody goes to work again and stops talking and lecturing and holding meetings.

[Signed] John Wanamaker

Dec. 3, 1919.

Here's a Story of Young Women's Reduced Coats Told in Three Chapters

Chapter 1—Coats at $16.50
These are of wool velour in dark blue, in two good styles, one with a soft wide fur collar, the other with a cloth collar. Both are belted all the way round and finished with large pockets at the side.

Chapter 2—Coats at $22.50
Choose from navy blue, tan, brown or taupe Melton cloth of excellent Winter weight in an attractive Winter style with collar to button high if you wish, pleats in the back, pockets at the sides and belt all the way round.

Chapter 3—Coats at $29.50
Sports and cold weather coats of a heavy wool mixture with a plaid back. These are well-made, good style Winter coats, with the collar, cuffs and belt of the plaid material and are excellent coats for service.

All These Coats Are Much Reduced— having been marked at much higher prices earlier in the season. They are all in sizes 14 to 20 years—and if you wear these sizes you will find it well worth your while to come in to see these good coats.
(Second Floor, Chestnut)

Young Women's Winter Suits $28.50—Reduced, of Course
Sports models of warm wool burella cloth—suits that have been considerably higher priced.
Well tailored, in youthful, good styles, they are in dark colors and mixtures.
They'll be useful suits for school or business, or for any time when a young woman wants a simple, practical suit for general use.
14 to 20 year sizes.

Certain Fur Wraps of Much Distinction and Unusual Beauty

ANY one of these would make a handsome Christmas gift—
A wrap of the lovely natural gray squirrel with a huge collar and a soft silvery gray lining, $950.
In much the same style is a Kolinsky dyed squirrel wrap, which has the same large collar and fastens with large buttons. This has a beautiful maize colored lining of a fine novelty silk, $950.
Perfectly stunning is a broadtail wrap with a great collar and deep cuffs of glossy black lynx. There is a strip of ermine just inside the lynx collar, and the lining is of gorgeous black and silver brocade, $1475.
For the woman who admires the pretty taupe nutria there is a smart coat with a cape collar, large sleeves and pockets at $575.
And if she likes something out of the ordinary, there is a leopard coat with belt, collar and cuffs of Hudson seal (dyed muskrat) by way of contrast. It is $385.
Another novelty is the coat of civet cat, which has a huge collar of the same fur, and is cut with a generous flare. It is $375.

Noteworthy Arrivals in French Beaded Handbags

In this newest shipment there are imported bags for as little as $15.75, and from there they go to $75. Those at the middle prices, say $25 to $50, are more beautiful than any we have ever known at these prices.
There are draw-string styles and there are bags with covered or shell finish frames. Many different shapes and wonderful colorings. Also, there are some all-black bags.
One thing that makes these handbags especially welcome as gifts is the fact that there are only one or two of a kind, which means few duplicates.
(Main Floor, Chestnut)

Women's Tailored Suits $35 to $50

Practical suits, usually belted, of the sort for everyday all-Winter wear with furs, or even with top-coats. They include chevots, jerseys in heather colors, velours, broadcloths and silvertones in browns, greens, paprikas, navys and dark grays, besides a few other tones.
Prices $35, $38.50, $47.50 and $50.

Never Were Seen More Beautiful Pile Fabric Coats

Pile fabric being another name for a clever imitation of black carnel fur.
So closely have these coats followed in the fashion of fur coats that they have even borrowed the prettiest of their new fashions (the loose cape back, for example), and the majority have large collars of maison wolf or cape collars of ringtail opossum.
Also the linings are of handsome figured or striped silks, and there is a warm interlining. Such coats are in place wherever a woman cares to wear them. There are five new styles at $135, $145, $165, $195 and $275.

New and Smart Umbrellas for Women

They have pure silk covers, of excellent quality, in black, blue, purple or green, and are finished with wide satin borders.
The handles are extremely good looking, being of plaited leather, with leather loops, $10 each, and they'd be fine for gifts!
(Main Floor, Market)

Semi-Made Corset Covers, French Hand Embroidered

They make the most dainty gifts and there is little left to be done to them.
The material is fine French batiste and the hand embroidery is beautiful. $2.25 to $4.25 are the prices.
(First Floor, Chestnut)

Hand-Wrought Iron Lamps

They are painted in polychrome effects and their designs are many. Their sizes run from candlesticks with one light to davenport lamps with one, two or three lights; and their prices are $11.50 to $250.
One especially good type is a reading lamp, one light and adjustable, for $25.

A Christmas Box of Good Linen Towels

Towels are probably the most practical of gift-linens. Pure flax towels have a gift quality that no imitation towel can possess.
One is sure of finding the best grades of pure flax towels in this linen store.
It is a principle and a practice with us to hold to that kind.
Guest towels are favored for gifts.
We have good ones of plain huckaback, with hemstitched ends, in size 15x22, at 75c each.
Guest towels of huckaback and damask combined, all neatly hemstitched and in size 15x22 inches, are 85c each, and a better kind, hemstitched and with huckaback centers and neat space for monogram, are here in size 14x24 at $1.50 each.
Other very attractive gift groups comprise damask towels in floral and striped designs, excellent weaves, all neatly hemstitched, size 23x43, at $3 each.
Among the larger towels are some of high-grade huckaback hemstitched with damask borders and fancy ends, ranging from 22x40 inches at $1.75 to 26x46 inches at $4.75 each, with many desirable sizes at various prices in between and many very attractive designs to select from.
All purchases will be neatly boxed for presentation.

The Anso Vest Pocket Camera No. 0

It is so small, so flat that it can be slipped into the vest pocket ready for instant use. Literally it is the successor to the pocket diary.
For pictures: 1 1/2x2 1/2, $10.10 to $28.25.
(Main Floor, Chestnut)

Delicious Assorted Chocolates, 60c a Pound

or a two-pound package $1.20, or a generous five-pound box $3. They are delicious, fresh, of fine flavor, and there is a most delectable assortment—creams, nuts, fruits and jellies.
You'll agree that they are very good indeed!

A Group of Oriental Rugs That Are Gifts of Distinction

There is something essentially gift-like about an Oriental rug; something reminiscent of old and half-forgotten days when chiefs and potentates presented their friends with precious things and fabrics of great price.
No wonder that Oriental rugs have become so popular as Christmas gifts of late years. To seekers after such gifts of distinction we commend a particular group of pieces comprising Saruks, Kerman-shahs, Sennas, Irans and Serapis in sizes ranging from 4x4.6 feet to 4x7 feet and priced at $110 to $325, according to weave and fineness.

Hundreds of New Pieces Sparkle in the Christmas Sale of Cut Glass

Every day since the sale began has brought in brilliant reinforcements, so that the selection is still as rich and adequate as one could wish for.
Practically every article into which cut glass is made will be found in the assortment; of some of these we have as many as a hundred, and of all we have a good supply.
One of the best features of the sale is the wonderful choice of low and medium priced pieces so much in demand for popular gifts. Of these the selection is truly fine, but, for that matter, there is a fine variety all the way through from the least expensive to the most elaborate piece in the collection.
Please remember that this is our own cut glass, identical in grade and quality with the kind we have in our regular stock, the only difference being that the cut glass in the Sale is absolutely new in the Store and the prices 20 to 33-1/3 less than our own regular rates.

There Was Never Such a Demand for Washing Machines

The scarcity of domestic help has made it incumbent upon thousands of housewives to have the washing done by members of the family.
The electric washing machines relieve all the distaste of the wash-tub.
No rubbing, no scrubbing, no running of the hands in the wash water.
No disagreeable work at all. No hard straining at the wringer.
The Easy Vacuum washing machine, price $150—or $160 on time—first payment of $15 and $12 monthly.
The A B C Super Electric is $135, or upon deferred payments, $145.
(Fourth Floor, Central)

White Waists

Cross-barred voiles with broad collars of eyelet and big buttons, $3.50. Other white voiles with tucks and lace, $4, $5 and $6.

What Every Man Needs Is a Really Good Watch

IT IS perfectly certain that there will never be a better time to give him one than this Christmas. The two makes of men's watches that have proved their worth over and over again are Waltham and Elgin. Both are here in a great many models.
The newest "thin" watches have Elgin movements and come in 14-kt. gold cases at $100. Or in gold filled cases, $50 and $75.
Elgin and Waltham watches with luminous dials, 14-kt. gold cases, are $63 and $80. In gold filled cases, $27.
An especially fine Waltham watch at $100 has a 14-kt. gold case and a silvered or gilt dial.
Railroad men are partial to a certain kind of Elgin and Waltham watch at $62 to $85 in 14-kt. gold case, or $27 to $66 in gold filled case.
Hunting case Elgin and Waltham watches may be had from $50 to $125 in 14-kt. gold cases, or from $20 to $42 in gold filled case.

Fur caps from $7, for black cone, to $60, for Alaska seal.
Fur gloves from $7.50 a pair, for blended hare, to $50, for beaver.
Fur collars, to be affixed to plain overcoats, are $12 for black cone to $125 for Alaska seal.
(Main Floor, Market)

Men's Fur-Collar Overcoats With Sheep's Wool Lining at $68.50

This is a remarkably low price for a coat of this kind, as any one familiar with clothing prices will know.
The overcoat was designed for a chauffeur's coat, and will be found among the chauffeurs' outfits, but it is quite good enough in style and workmanship for most men to wear on the street.
The shell is dark Oxford mixed kersey cloth, the collar of brown muskrat and the lining of beaver sheep. There are two sets of pockets and knitted wristlets in the sleeves.
Splendid for cold weather.
(The Gallery, Chestnut)

Men's Silk Mufflers in Amazing Variety

It is truly a wonder how the designers of these fine scarfs contrive so many color combinations.
This year's showing is more remarkable than any that have preceded it, with plain colors and stripes marvelously blended or contrasted.
Prices $4 to $20, with the Redleaf London reefers starting at $13.50.
(Main Floor, Market)

Many Men Are Given Raincoats

There is much to be said in favor of this and nothing to be said against it, especially as a gift from a member of one's own family.
Anything that will save a man from rain has the first quality of a good gift—acceptableness.
One is sure of finding a good raincoat in our Men's Clothing Store.
We have them in gabardine and rubberized chevots in tan, brown, green, gray and heather mixtures, and in all sizes, at $22 and $40, each a standard garment in value and style at the price.
(Third Floor, Market)

If He Smokes—

as is usually the case—there are some things here he will like:
Pipes, 50c to $12.

An American Gift for an American Woman The "Martha Washington" Sewing Table

Something to look at, something that helps to furnish a home and something that can be used—the thing of which this can be said is bound to be a genuine gift, and the "Martha Washington" sewing table answers the description to a nicety. No doubt there are various makes of these tables, but we have one at $25 and we believe it represents the maximum of excellence at that price. It is of solid mahogany with a top drawer fitted with sliding trays; another with rods for spools; also a deep drawer at the bottom, as well as end pockets of generous depth and capacity. The legs are reeded and the drawers have a double row of wood pulls. You will see this piece amongst a number of others in the novelty furniture section on the Fifth Floor, one of the most fascinating places in which any one ever looked for a Christmas gift of charm, usefulness, beauty and solid worth.
Among the thousand and one things here are a whole fleet of tea wagons, including one in mahogany finish with drop leaves, a removable glass tray on the lower shelf and rubber-tired wheels. Price $32.
Here also are sewing boxes, book racks, writing desks, smokers' stands, distinctive chairs, tilt-top and other tables and scores of other pieces practical, handsome and gift-like in the truest sense.
