

CHINESE IN SHARP DEMAND ON JAPAN

Apology and Indemnity Called for as Result of Fu-chow Clash

PEKIN SPIRIT A SURPRISE

By the Associated Press
 Pekin, Dec. 1 (delayed).—The foreign ministry has presented a note to the Japanese legation dealing with the recent disturbances at Fu-chow and making the following demands:
 First, The removal of the Japanese consul at Fu-chow.
 Second, The payment of an indemnity for the loss of Chinese lives at Fu-chow as a result of Japanese attacks, and also the payment of medical expenses incurred by the Chinese wounded.
 Third, Adequate punishment of the Japanese ringleaders responsible for the attacks on the Chinese.
 Fourth, That the Japanese consul at Fu-chow make an apology to the Chinese authorities of that city.
 The Japanese reply has not yet been received.

China serving demands on Japan is such a startling reversal of roles in the Far East that it may be suspected there is something more than the Fu-chow incident involved. Feeling has run so high in China in recent months over the Shantung question that it may have galvanized the Pekin government into challenging the whole Japanese or an incident calculated—since Fuchow is in southern China—to unite north and south, after years of discord and civil war, on a patriotic issue.
 The encouragement, which, according to dispatches from Pekin, the American Senate's reservation on Shantung gave to the Chinese Government may be another factor in the situation.

Gimbel Brothers Store Hours—9 to 6 For Tomorrow—Friday Thursday, Dec. 4, 1919 Gimbel Brothers

6000 Men's Suits and Overcoats

Choice at $37.50—Savings $7.50 to $22.50

There is no general break in men's clothing prices—we are paying fully as much as ever for spring stock; in spots we are paying more.

This Sale is Transient Good Luck

Into it goes Clothing to meet even the most exacting demands.

Overcoats—
 Double-breasted, Smart Plaid Backs, Single-breasted, Town Ulsters, Box Coats, Great Coats, Form-fitting Coats, Dress Overcoats and hundreds of favored Ulsters.

Suits—
 Double-breasted, Single-breasted. Of all the season's favored models. Durable, dressy, all-wool fabrics.

Oregon-City All-Wool Mackinaws, $15

Worsted Trousers, $6.50—the comfortable sort

Not a tailor in America will make up clothing at lowered price—none can. But once let the garments be produced and the travail of the tailor's soul is forgot, and good clothes—yes, the best of clothes—are pawns in the game of business building. Every garment offered is regular Gimbel standard—not a stitch slighted. The fabrics are wool; the seams are sewn with silk.

This is by long odds the Clothing Bargain of the Year

Season after season the Gimbel Store wins a larger slice of Philadelphia's clothing business—now foremost. As it grows, it strengthens in service giving. Therefore, it pays you as well as us to keep it growing. If it ever stops serving you well, kill it—your trade is its life's blood. All during the hard years of the war—and now—the standard is held: all-wool; real tailoring; silk-sewed seams. Sale opens Friday morning.
