RUN AFOUL OF POLICE

Rabbits Too Few, So Domestic Animals Fall Targets,
It Is Charged

Four intrepid hunters out for rabbit invaded private property in the vicinity of Abington yesterday and caused consternation among the domestic birds and beasts.

Andrew J. Dillard, 542 Shedesker street; George Herbert, 201 Cotton street; and James Lewis, 1708 West Lippincott street. On their promise not to hunt in that neighborhood again the fine was remitted later.
