

Necessities

Folks insist on clear, good-tasting water. But these alone do not make water absolutely healthful. PUROCK—free of mineral deposit, or vegetable organism, is purity plus.

MOORE GETS DAILY WARNING

Sam McGouirick Writes Numerous Postcards on Thought-Readers

Mayor-elect Moore has received "warnings" every day since his election from Sam McGouirick, who appears to have an unlimited supply of postcards somewhere in Norfolk, Va. Sam sends Mr. Moore a postal every day, telling of thought-reading and torture.

Today's offering says:

"The crooks officials and so forth who thought-read and torture me continue at work—go into this quietly but thoroughly or you will have trouble during your term caused by these men." Mr. Moore doesn't know or bother about Sam.

Last Sunday, Sam wrote, the thought-readers were still at work. He said Captain of Detectives Souder and Director of Public Safety Wilson know about it. Another card referred to the Philadelphia Hospital as "Bockley—that nest of fifth and crime—still flourishes."

HONOR EX-SERVICE MEN

Tablet Containing Forty-eight Names Unveiled in Baptist Church
Forty-eight young men of Belmont Avenue Baptist Church, Belmont and Westmaster avenues, who served in the American army during the great war, were honored last night by the unveiling of a tablet in memory of their devotion and sacrifice.

in the great struggle. They were Horace E. Peter and William R. Neiman. The present pastor, the Rev. Carey S. Thomas, and all of the former pastors of the church were present at the ceremony. The former pastors are the Rev. Dr. David Spencer, the Rev. Dr. A. S. Williamson, the Rev. Dr. William H. Spinney, the Rev. L. M. Halner and the Rev. Dr. John Gordon.

forty-eight names on the tablet were read by James L. Allan.

O'Donnell, Jr. Miss Charlotte M. Harrison played the accompaniment. At the close taps were sounded by Thomas S. Flood.

Catalog of Seasonable Gifts

Thousands of practical, useful and beautiful articles are shown in this book, solving the gift problem not only for the coming Christmas Season, but for the entire year.

As the time is limited for Christmas shopping, we urge you to send for our catalog and make your selections before our stocks are depleted, as in many cases we are unable to duplicate.
