

WOMEN TAKE CENSUS "EXAMS"

Majority of the Applicants Who Appeared in Quiz Here Are Young Men

3000 WILL BE SELECTED

Examination of applicants for positions as census enumerators was made at seven public schools today.

Most of those who presented themselves for examination were young men, but sprinkled in the crowd were a few women and girls.

When the applicant finishes his work and turns in the forms he has filled, judgment of his efficiency is based upon accuracy in filling in the form and the information given in the printed directions.

That is all. There is no psychological test or any other new-fangled notion to bewilder those who aspire to serve Uncle Sam and get their names upon his payroll.

One trouble with the applicants is that they persist in imagining that they are still in Philadelphia, Pa., and that the census is being taken in that city.

The examinations are being held in the following schools: Dunbar school, Fifty-first and Race streets; Willard school, Emerald and Orleans streets; Wilson school, Twelfth and Wharton streets; Germantown school, 14th and Locust streets; Dixon school, Longshore and Ditman streets; Kender school, Fifteenth and Ontario streets; Widener school, Thirteenth and Thompson streets.

Applications for positions as enumerators can be made next week at the office of the supervisor of the census, 329 Broad street.

TO CUT MORE FAST TRAINS

"Congressional Limited" and Other Specials May Be Eliminated

Elimination of the "Congressional Limited" and other fast trains between New York and Washington and between Washington and the West and South is under consideration by the railroad administration.

Orders may be issued through the regional director, A. L. Baldwin, in this city, within a few days. Orders already have been issued for the withdrawal of other fast trains.

Numbers of men will be laid off here by the curtailment of train service.

Officials of the administration can make no estimate as to the number who will be temporarily out of work, until the extent to which the service will be curtailed is decided.

Extra trainmen, who serve as substitutes, will be the first to suffer.

Local and suburban train service curtailment will be announced shortly.

ARCHANGEL HEROES HALT SOVIE TALK

Heckle Colonel Robins and Deny That U. S. Troops Mutinied in Russia

VETERANS DEMAND PROOFS

By the Associated Press

Madison, Wis., Dec. 6.—A gathering of more than 500 persons, who had jammed into the Engineering Auditorium to hear Colonel Raymond Robins tell about soviet Russia, were pulled to their feet in excitement during the closing minutes of the meeting.

A group of soldiers who had served at Archangel hotly challenged Robins' statement that as an indirect result of the Allies' policy in failing to recognize the Bolshevik government American soldiers in Russia had mutinied.

"We demand that the authority for the statement of mutinied Captain John Commons, son of Prof. J. R. Commons, 'We served at Archangel and there was no mutiny.'"

"I have it in the affidavit of three American soldiers, including an officer," replied Colonel Robins, who reiterated that he had proof not only of mutiny in the American army, but mutiny of British soldiers in Dover, French soldiers at Brest and Italian soldiers at Genoa at the orders to proceed into Russia.

Soldiers and others in the audience, including several who demanded to know the names of those who signed the affidavit and the organizations that were supposed to have mutinied, Colonel Robins refused to divulge this information, since it would involve other persons and federal proceedings which had not been completed.

"We have five men here who served through the whole period of American occupation in Russia, were on the ground at the time, and will swear there was no mutiny among American troops on the Archangel front," insisted the soldiers' spokesman.

"Without proof of such charges, we object to the idea of an audience being allowed to leave the hall this way with the impression that any of our soldiers in Russia refused to obey orders."

One of the soldiers asserted that his army unit was fighting Bolsheviks at the time of the date given as that of the mutiny.

Tension tightened as the heckling warmed and Colonel Robins said he was convinced of the truth of the claims he had been challenged in any of his previous lectures. At the suggestion of one of his hearers, however, the speaker said he would not incite the mutiny charge in future presentations of the Russian situation until he had had further opportunity to consult his original informants.

He leaves a wife, who was Isabelle Barbour, sister of John B. Barbour, president of the Pittsburgh Stock Exchange, and one sister, Mrs. John H. Hannon, of Sharon, Pa.
