LEGION TO PREPARE TO HELP RED CROSS

All Posts Invited to Smoker in Interests of Christmas Seal Campaign

ADDRESS BY DR. GIBBON

Representatives of all posts of the American Legion in Philadelphia couply were invited yesterday to attend a conreservant to attend a conference and smoker at the Adelphia Hotel, next Wethesday evening, to plan a campaign to assist the Philadelphia tuberculosis committee in its sale of Red Cross Christians.

The invitation was extended by former Governor Edwig S. Stuart, as chairman of the Philadelphia tuberculosis committee. Dr. John Gibbon, of Jefferson Medical Co'lege, who readered valuable service overseas during the war, will be the principal speaker.
Governor Stuart, in his letter of intlation, says in part:

"The Philadelphia tuperculosis com-plittee, through its educational cam-usign for better health, has been and s doing a great work among the Amer-lean soldiers, particularly among those who have been returned from recent services overseas. evices overseas. In order to success-lly carry out this work, the coun-ttee is this year, as in the past, aducting its annual sale of Red Cross

hristmas scals, the money from which Legion Will Doy Rest Legion Will Do Rest

"I know of no better unit of cooperation to assist us in this very vital enterprise than the American Legion, Will you, as its secretary, please bring to the attention of the Philadelphia posts the matter of helping us in this great work?

"In order to crystallize this matter, we have arranged for members of the Legion a meeting and smoker to be held on the roof garden of the Adelphia Hotel at So clock Wednesday night,
