PERMIT NO. 841.

Authorised by the aut of October 6.

1937. on the at the Postoffice of Philadelphia. A. S. BURLBFON.

Plame, 8 dicembre (ritardato)-Gabriele D'Annunzio e' fermamente deciso a mantenere Fiume fine a che non vedra' realizzati gli ideali per i quali egli occupo' la citta'. D'Annunzio cosi' si e

"Noi non lasceremo Fiume fino che non avremo assicurato che gii scopi per i quali qui' venimmo non siano raggiunti. Se verremo in un accordo con Il Governo, ne' to ne' i miei legionari, che banno giurato di seguirmi anche alla morte, abbandoneremo la citta' se non ricevero' una concreta garanzia di buona fede da parte del Governo."

"La parola del Presidente del Consiglio. On Nitti, per me non conta nulla, siglio. On Nitti, per me non conta nulla, peiche' Nitti e' qui' oggi, ma potrebhe andar via domani, ed io non voglio esser giuocato dai suoi successori, che potrebbero dissaprovare la parola di Nitti. Bisogna che io abbia la parola di un emissario del Re, quale e' quella del capo dell'esercito. Bisogna che abbis la parola d'onore di alcuni generali nominati permanentenmente. Il Generale Badoglio e' lu'uomo che puo darmi questa assicurazione. Egli e' l'umo che essendo a capo dell'esercito e' un Reale rappresentante, sulla cui parola posso contare che i mici scopi saranno pienamente assecondati.

Io ho organizzato la mia flotta di areoplani per volare fino al Gisppone, ma non posso muovermi fino a che Fiume sia parte di noi. Ho anche studiato il mio volo America, da Tokio. Andro' attraverso il Pacifico.

D'Annunzio ha anche detto: "Io amo il ponolo d'America, i suoi ideali pospopolo d'America, i suoi ideali pos-ono vincere il cuore di un poeta."

Londra, 11 dicembre.—Clemenceau e' giunto in Londra accolto enthusia-sticamente dalla popolazione. Egli ba subito iniziato delle conferenze con Loyd George, le quali continueranno anche domani.

Andrea Bonar Law, capo del governo, nella Camera dei Comuni ba oggi detto che il soggetto delle conferenze tra i due primi ministri ed il Ministro Italiano Scislois verte sulla questione Adriatica. Anche la sotuazione in Russia ed in Turchia sara' esaminata. Nessuna notizia e' stata data sul corso delle conferenze.

Parigi, 11 dicembre.—La visita di Clemenceau a Londra, nel tempo stesso della presenza del Ministro Italiano Scialoia, ha dato occasione di parlare della possibilita' di un nuova triplice alleanza per assicurare l'esecuzione del trattate di pace con la Germania ed altri affari relativamente al programma della lega delle nazioni.
