COLLEGE STARS ON SHIP TEAMS

Reid, Former Villanova Player, in Chester Line-Up Against Hog Island Tomorrow

VEDDER AT QUARTERBACK

Several college stars will be in the line-up of the Chester Ship and Hog Island elevens at the big football clash tomorrow afternoon on the Strawbridge & Clothier field, Sixty-second and Walnut streets.

Eddie Reid, a former Villanova star, will be at quarterback on the Chester eleven and Vedder and Sutherland, both former collegians, will appear in the backfield for Hog Island.

Vedder, who will captain the Hog Island eleven, used to bump the line and run the ends for Georgetown. He is a brother of Sanford Vedder, the Ursinus athlete who jumps center on the Collegeville cage quintet.

Frank Sutherland, the Hog Island fullback, played two years on the Idaho University team, and Beebe, the quarterback, was a member of the Bridgeton High eleven not many years back.

Manager Dallas, of Chester, has been after a game with Hog Island for some time, and the opportunity presented itself this week when the Rex A. C., of Washington, D. C., cancelled its scheduled game with Manager Irvin's eleven.

Chester defeated the Sun Ship team at the Pennsylvania Military College field last Saturday, 15-6, and earlier in the season the Riverton Club was held to a scoreless tie.

HOG ISLAND DEPENDABLES

Armstrong Is Brown Football Head

Providence, R. I., Dec. 12. — Elmer G. Armstrong, of Rahway, N. J., a junior at Brown University, was elected captain of the football eleven for 1920 at a meeting of the Brown men yesterday. Armstrong was fullback and punter on the 1919 team. He prepared for college at Rahway High School and Blair Academy, New Jersey, and entered Brown in 1918. Armstrong left college to enter the service in 1917, returning this year. He is a member of Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity.

Johnny Herman Wins

Allentown, Dec. 12.—Johnny Herman, the local lightweight, won his third fight in six days last night, when he outfought Young Gans, of New York, in the ten-round windup here. K. O. Harris, of Nazareth, decisively defeated the veteran Kid Raymond in the semiwind-up.

Brown Prep Victorious

Brown Prep opened their season by downing the Temple Prep five, 34 to 25, on the latter's floor. Rice's shooting features.

Girls Play Basketball

Ridley Park High School girls' basketball team lost to the Chester Darby Hig sextette, 27 to 4, at Darby yesterday. Miss Russell and Miss Wallin each scored six field goals for Darby. Miss Clauson and Miss McCarthy each scored a goal for Ridley Park. The Darby High reserves defeated the Ridley Park second team in the preliminary game, 21 to 15.

Rub Osteopaths Wrong Way

Making a field goal in the last minute of play, resulted a 26 to 25 battle between Temple and Osteopaths in the City College League at the Central Y. M. C. A. last night in favor of the former. This was the Osteopaths' second defeat, and eliminates them from the pennant race. Temple has not yet been defeated, while Hahnemann has lost one.

Jenkintown Club League

White Elephants defeated Breakers, 29 to 18, and Greenwood won over Rexall, 15 to 9, in the Jenkintown Club League last night at Jenkintown.

SPORTS AMONG AMATEURS

The 315th Infantry five, champions of the Seventy-ninth Division, both in Camp Meade and in France, has reorganized and will put a strong team on the floor for the 1919-20 basketball season. Their line-up will contain such well-known stars as Bert Young, George Ambacher, and Bill Frey at guards; Sunny Deegler at center; Walt Keating and Bob Evans at forwards.

Manager Young would like to book games with all first-class home teams in Pennsylvania and New Jersey, wishing this attraction. For games write Bertram Young, care of Mahon A. Young, 1050 North Phillip street.

The Girardians, a picked team from Girard College alumni, would like to hear from all out-of-town teams desiring games on Saturday evenings. Willing to offer fair guarantees. John Quinlan, 1502 Poplar street.

Delta Five, a third-class team, is anxious to book games with home teams offering reasonable guarantees. S. Goldblatt, 1607 South Seventh street.

Our Lady of Mercy Club, formerly of the American League, would like to book games with all first-class home teams offering fair guarantees. J. J. Rooney, 1726 West Huntingdon street.

The Dudley Colts, of Camden, a third-class traveling five, wants to arrange games with any teams of that class. H. Dobbins, 229 Benson street, Camden, N. J.

The Wheeling Club, of West Philadelphia will hold its first annual banquet in honor of their 1919 football team at the Rittenhouse Hotel this evening at 8 o'clock.

St. Ludwig's C. C. (two teams) wants to arrange games for Tuesday and Saturday evenings at home. Thomas F. Coffey, 1347 North Dover street.

Hog Island five wants to arrange games away from home with any second-class teams. William Stranaghan, 1335 South Fifty-fourth street.

The Memorial Baptist B. C. wants to hear from all first-class teams, either at home or away. Harry Hornoff, 2023 North Franklin street.

The St. Carthage C. C. would like to arrange games with the fastest soccer elevens for Sunday dates to be played at St. Carthage's grounds. Would like to hear especially from Dobson, Wanderers, New York Ship or any other team of that class. J. J. Carr, 6015 Spruce street.

The St. Elizabeth's Reserves, a third-class traveling five, want to book games with teams offering reasonable guarantees. Charles Devlin, 2414 West Norris street.

The Iroquois five, of Chester, has December 20 open for any first-class teams in Philadelphia or vicinity. L. J. Keyes, phone Chester 990.

PENN WRESTLERS GRAPPLE TONIGHT

Any Student Eligible for Title Bouts to Be Held at Weightman Hall

As a finale to the novice wrestling competition held at Penn during the last two weeks, the University championship meet will be staged at Weightman Hall tonight. Many agile artists of the wrestling game were uncovered during the novice contests and this evening they will be given ample opportunity to pit their talent against the experienced men on Penn's varsity squad. Any member of the student body is eligible, and as there are so many good men available Coach Riggs anticipates some strenuous battles for the individual championships in the various weights.

An interesting match is in store in the 125-pound class when captain meets captain. Sam Gerson, this year's leader, will no doubt face Harry Rose, who formerly occupied the position of team pilot, in the wind-up bout of their class. Among other members of the varsity team who have creditable reputations on the mat are Lewis Servais, 115-pound national amateur and intercollegiate champion in 1917; Fred Ashby, who placed second in the intercollegiate 158-pound class; Charles Hovies and Philip Penelton.

With the announcement of the schedule for this season, made yesterday by Manager Kirchner, wrestling at Penn returns to a pre-war status.
