

ELECTRIC TRAIN HITS MAN

Trackwalker Run Down by Chestnut Hill Local
A trackwalker, Antonio Mele, is in a serious condition in the Germantown Hospital today as the result of being run down by a Chestnut Hill local between the Westmoreland and Queen Lane stations on the Pennsylvania electric line last night.

After the accident the motorman backed his train and took Mele to the Chelton avenue station, where a patrol wagon was waiting to take him to the hospital. Mele received a possible fracture of the skull and internal and other injuries. His home is at 427 East Rittenhouse street, Germantown.
