JELLY RECIPES—CYNTHIA'S MANY ANSWERS—FLORENCE ROSE FASHIONS—FUN IN POVERTY

MRS. WILSON TELLS ABOUT CRANBERRIES

These Recipes Will Be Convenient for Use in About Two Weeks in Getting Ready for Christmas

Mixed With Pears or Apple Sauce These Berries Make a Delicious Preserve or

By MRS. M. A. WILSON

GROWING in the marshy soil throughout the North Temperate Zone, from Labrador on the north to below the Eastern Shore, the beautiful rose-colored marshflower soon ripens into the abundant and piquant crau-

The bell, cherry, bugle and olver are best, as they generally are more solid and for this reason, less apt to spoil.

Analysis of the Cranberry Two cups of eranberries weigh about seven ounces and they contain:

Three per cent protein,

Ticelve per cent fat.

Bighty-five per cent carbahydrates. The natural tart acids of this fruit make it a desirable addition to the winter diet and it should be used freely in sauces, puddings, pastry and as a jam or jelly with beef, pork, lamb and fowl.

Frügal housewives often feel that the cranberry requires too much sugar to neutralize the acid and that it forms an expensive item where it is freely used. Now, this is quite true, but it is a wonderful tonic and its healthful properties more than offset the sugar-cost in preparing the delicious piquant berry for the table.

The craphers

The erapherry also makes a delicious tart drink that can be served as a punch. when frozen into a sherbet or ice makes an attractive dessert.

Cranberry Jelly, Using Sirup Place in a saucepan: Two cups of white corn sirup. One pound of beeries.

Cover and cook for twenty minutes. then put through a coarse sieve. Re-turn to the saucepan and boil for five minutes. Pour into a glass and store in the usual manner for jellies.

Cape Cod Cranberry Pie Line a pie plate with plain pastry. Fill with chopped cranberries. Now stir five tablespoons of flour in Two-thirds cup of sirup. And add One tablespoon of shortening. Pour over the eranberries. Cover the pie with the top crust, making several gashes in the top crust to permit the steam to escape. Bake in a close the steam to escape. Bake in a slow oven for thirty-five minutes.

Cranberry Pudding Chop one pound of cranberries fine and place in a mixing bowl and add Three cups of fine bread crambs. One-half traspoon of salt. Three tablespoons of baking powder. One cup of flour.

Mrs. Wilson

Ask Mrs. Wilson

If you have any cookery prob lems, bring them to Mrs. Wilson. She will be glad to answer you through these columns. No per Address questions to Mrs. M. A Wilson, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER,

Two cups of sirup.

One-kalf cup of water.

One-kalf tenspoon of nutney.

Mix thoroughly, then cut into a mold, cover and boil for one and one-half hours. Serve with cranberry sauce.

Cranberry Roll Place in a mixing bowl

Three cups of flour. Our teaspoon of salt. Two tablespoons of baking powder.

Four tablespoons of sugar.

Sift to mix. Now rub in one half cup of shortening and mix to a dough with two-thirds cup of water. Roll out one-quarter inch thick and spread with one pound of finely chopped cratherries One and one-half cups of brown

The bell, cherry, bugle and olver are tour well-known varieties of this berry. The medium-sized fruit is usually the best, as they generally are more solid and for this reason, less apt to spoil. eranberry juice.

Cranberry Punch

dd

Two poweds of cranberries.

Cook until soft, then add

Two quarts of water.

Put through a fine sieve and place in punch bowl, add

Piece of ice.

Two bananas, cut in thin slices.

One orange, cut in slices.

Cranberry Conserve

hopped peanuts.
One package of seeded raisius.

Glaze Pears

My dear Mrs. Wilson:
Kindly publish in your columns of the paper two following recipes:
Jelly roll and choco'ate cake.
Obliged. MRS. D. II.

Answers Queries

Jelly Roll
Place in a mixing bowl
Three-quarters cup of sugar.
Yolks of two eggs.
One tablespoon of shortening.
Six tablespoons of water.

One and one-quarter cups of flour. Three teaspoons of baking powder. Beat to mix, then cut and fold in the stilly-beaten whites of eggs. Grease a baking pan and line with paper and grease again and then flour the paper. Spread the mixture one-quarter inch thick evenly over the pan and bake for twelve minutes in a hot oven. Furn on a cloth and remove paper. Trim the edges and then spread with jelly and roll. Wrap in a paper or cloth until cold.

No. 19

No. 19
My dear Mrs. Wilson:

Having secured some of the army stores, I am at a loss to know how to keep the prunes and dried peaches from getting moldy and wormy. Shall I pack them very closely in a mason jar, and put the tops on as tight as I can get them, or am I to allow the air to circulate through them?

As many people must have secured quantities of the dried fruits, the apswer to my question will help them, too. Thanking you not only for your answer, but for the numerous helpful recipes, I am.

Fruits purchased from the army stores

The Question Corner Today's Inquiries

When a party is given in a Dutch hall living room, what extra ac-commodations can easily be made for senting the guests?
Describe a pretty pair of pajamas for the schoolgirl.

3. How can the shine caused by pressing be removed from cloth?
4. What care should be taken of irouing boards when not in use?
5. How can old stains of chocolate or cocoa be removed?
6. What is a popular shade in dressy shoes?

Yesterday's Answers The clothes wringer should be loosened for wringing linen, as tight wringing makes it crease more.

A pretty overskirt made of fringe is knotted at the ton to make a tight-fitting yoke.
It is not correct to address a physician's wife as "Mrs. Dr. Smith." She should be given her Smith." She should be given her bushand's first name. In making a skirt of striped material the precaution should be taken of getting the center stripes of both front and back.

When long window curtains wear out at one end they can be cut off and used as sask curtains at kitchen or bathroom windows. A striking hair ornament seen in the chops is a high comb studded in a butterfly design with samplines.

sonal replies, however, can be given

Place one and one-half pound can white corn sirup in a saucepan and

Two cups of white corn sirup. Two cups of sugar,
Two pounds of cranberries.
One and one-half cups of finely

nd add
One quart of cranberries.
One cup of sirup.
One cup of supar.
Juice of one-half lemon.
One-half package of scedless raisins.

Cover pan and add:
One pound of cranberries.

Some time ago I was asked to buy shares in a stock company which intends to manufacture an article which was invented recently. The prospects looked bright, so I went as far as yourse would negati. Now through it with next also in with next also in with next also. my purse would permit. Now through in with net also.

published that deals in stock news in puriticular?

Also, do you think that I could sell this stock at the present time, even though the article is not on the market?

And the fan-don't you think it is the present time, even though the article is not on the market?

though the article is not on the market?

A. V.

A stock broker will give you this information. If you watch the stock market news in the financial editions of any newspaper, you can find out when the stock goes up or down. I cannot give you advice of this kind; you will have to go to some one who can speak with authority on the subject. speak with authority on the subject

In Despair About Her Hair

Fruits purchased from the army stores must be kept in a cool dry place and used as soon as possible. Seal securely in the jars.

Dear Madam—I am a very refined girl, twenty-one years of age, a stenographer, and wish to know whether or not to bob my hair, which has been falling out for the lears. ing out for the last two years. I it keeps on coming out at its present rate I am sure I will be bald-headed, therefore I am so disgusted and discour-aged. Will people think I am teugh if I nged. Will people think I am teugh if I bob my hair, and will bobbing do it any good? I have taken various treatments and so far nothing has done it any good. I had a bad case of the "fu" last year and I think probably it is worse on that account.

Would also thank you to advise me whater are not you negert photos for whether or not you accept photos for your "beauty corner" from ping pongs and two on a picture.

A DAILY READER IN DISTRESS.

No doubt the "flu" has caused your hair to fall out so badly. Have you tried liquid vaseline? This has the same effect as the pure grease vaseline in making hair grow, but it is less heavy, and does not make your hair so elly. Put it on about every other night, parting your hair and rubbing the oil well in. When it starts to grow in, wait until it grows about an inch, then cut it short again. This makes it stronger and makes the growth more rapid. Don't get discouraged about it, because your general condition has a great deal to do with the condition of your hair. If you let yourself get run down, your health will be affected, and your hair is the first thing that shows this. Don't bob your hair unless you have to; it would not look "tough," but it is not becoming to everybody, you know, Have you consulted a hairdresser yet?

Pictures for the beauty corner must be large enough and clear enough to make a good reproduction. Only one at a time. I doubt whether a ping peng will be accepted. A DAILY READER IN DISTRESS.

Business Hours 8:45 to 5:45

MODESTY THIS YEAR IN EVENING GOWNS

The popular jade green makes this gown of satin so charming. Plaited chiffon, held by the jade ribbon, forms the flufy little overskirts on

Att post

A Daily Fashion Talk by Florence Rose Stir to dissolve the sugar, then bring to a boil and cook slowly until the mixture will jell. Turn into jelly glasses and cool. Store in the usual manner, This delicious conserve is splendid with sweep the streets, and even the very cold reads. TUMES have been rather dull lately are considered smart. And sleeves are neither enormous nor tight. The choking collar and the tight collar is no more; we are even forgetting that it ever existed. So perham it narrow skirt isn't so much in evidence.

people I've heard that the shares have jumped from 50 cents to $1 each, but not a word have I heard from the company. Don't you think that stockdoing any. Don't you think that stocksolders should be notified of every litile change that takes place? If not, how am I to know? Is there any paper published that deals in stock news in particular?

To you are right as to the taliness of me, but entirely wrong as to the rest
of it, especially the "soda clerk, with lues at the opening week of the New York opers. Plaited chiffon of the same
You are right as to the taliness of
me, but entirely wrong as to the rest
of it, especially the "soda clerk, with
a gold tooth and a misplaced eyebrow."
York opers. Plaited chiffon of the same
You are right as to the taliness of
me, but entirely wrong as to the rest
You are right as to the taliness of the specially the "soda clerk, with
a gold tooth and a misplaced eyebrow."
You are right as to the taliness of
the same by far the most highly favored of all the same particular?

To a specially the "soda clerk, with
a gold tooth and a misplaced eyebrow."
You are right as to the taliness of
the same by far the most highly favored of all
the same particular?

You are right as to the taliness of
the same by far the most highly favored of all
the same particular?

You are right as to the taliness of
the same by far the most highly favored of all
the same by far the most highly favored of all
the same by far the most highly favored of all
the same by far the most highly favored of all
the same by far the most highly favored of all
the same by far the most highly favored of all
the same by far the most highly favored of all
the same by far the most highly favored of all
the same by far the most highly favored of all
the same by far the most highly favored of all
the same by far the most highly favored of all
the same by far the most highly favored of all
the same by far the most highly favored of all
the same by far the most highly favored of all
the same by far the most highly favored of all
the same by far the most highly favored of all
the same by far the most highly favored of all the same by far the most highly favored of a

They Write of Many Things to Cynthia things, yet there remain many that have guessing. Unfortunately I belong to that class

Dear Cynthia-I am twenty-two.

Several letters addressed to "Mar-ion" have been received, but as they ask for an introduction it is not possible for Cynthia to comply with the re-

What They Think of Men Dear Cynthia-May we have space in your valuable column to express our opinion of the present so-called male Take, for instance, the dance-hall lounge lizards, with their up-to-date suits, hair parted in the center and suits, hair parted in the center and polished like a mirror, standing in groups about the hall looking the "Janes" over (if we must use this slang expression) finally, after a general observation, choosing what they term a "cute" girl to dance with, and after dancing the greater portion of the evening with her say, "Good-night, I'll see you over here again some time," or "May I call to see you Sunday night?" (Sunday night is dull, you know, and winter is here and it is too cold out doors.) And if, perchance, they spend any money on you they desire to be repaid with that much-discussed (disgusting) good-night kiss. If they are refused, well—you'll miss the few pennies they spend on you, and what refined girl would lose her dignity for a few pennies?

few penuies?
Please do not judge us erroneously by thinking we were born in the Colonia. days, but instead are girls who have attended public dances and know what ve are talking about. Well, girls, are you with us? THREEHOONO.

Texas Girl Writes Dear Cynthia-I should like to send a note through your column to the girl who signs herself "A Real Yankee Girl." I am a girl from Texas and can bake bread. I have lived in Philacan bake bread. I have lived in Philadelphia only one year and have met any number of girls who are Philadelphia girls, and at least six of them that know how to bake bread, and you don't have to go outside of Philadelphia to get any nicer girls than they are. But they are not ashaned to say they use a little water and a shaned to say they use a they are not ashamed to say they use a little powder on their faces, instead of all in the bread, and, "Yankee Girl." New Englanders that share your opinions of Philadelphia girls should go back to their homes in New England and bake bread for some farmer who doesn't care if his wife has a shiny nose, as long as she can bake bread. But, unless you know some real Philadelphia and Texas girls also, you should not venture to say "the old-fashioned know-how-to-bake-bread kind" are only found in New England. A GIRL FROM TEXAS.

Propose to Her and Find Out

"Hennen" Answers "Judy" Dear Cynthia-A further word to

Dear Judy-I wonder what the rest 'Cynthia's' contributors think of 'newspaper correspondence' of Personally, I enjoy it a great deal, and I hope, as you do, that may derive some interest from it. is terribly rough not to be able to minion of the law may charge for too closely scrutinizing every attractive girl on Chestnut street. Just the other evening one of my friends was discussing you, and remarked that you might be some one I niready know, just having a lark with mc. You know my full name; and it would be very

Diamond Rings for Christmas

Sapphire and Diamond Rings

Emerald and Diamond Rings

Aquamarine and Diamond Rings

Ruby and Diamond Rings

Pearl and Diamond Rings

Opal and Diamond Rings

DIAMOND MERCHANTS-JEWELERS-SILVERSMITHS

We are fortunate in being able to offer diamonds this holiday season at prices based on our importation cost of last March. Our selection of diamond jewelry is the largest in our business history; the mountings are of most desirable

What Do You Suggest for This All-Embracing Love?

Dear Cynthia-I have written to you before and you gave me a nice answer. Now I come to you to ask you to help me. Some time ago met a young man at a party who love very much. Not just plain love, but real love. This young man asked me to let him take me home, but I had to refuse, as I had with a young man. A few weeks later I went to another party and met this same young man. He asked me to let him take me home and I let him, but we did not make a date. We started a club. He joined it, and on all the meeting nights he took me home. Our club often gives parties, from two to three a week. He is very kind to me and does whatever I ask. Tells me anything I ask. He talks so much to me, too, that the girls and boys are starting to notice it. They tell me he says he loves me and would like to make me his wife. He often kids with me about getting married. He has never asked me to kiss him good-night. I go to sleep thinking of him, and wake up doing the same thing. I love him very much and can no longer keep it to myself. I forget myself and go and hug him sometimes. He often "Do you mean it?" BRYE. "No." Before I met him I weighed 150 pounds; now I weigh only 115. It is true that I am worrying. I can no longer do without him. He seems to love me, but doesn't like to tell me. So, how can tell if he loves me or how can I forget. I tried to stay away but could not stand it. Please don't figured this out for myself, but I'd like to hear what others think).

I'm inclined to agree with Kipling when he said:

"Ship me somewhere east of Suez, where the best is like the worst.

Where there ain't no Ten Commandments an' a man can raise a thirst.'

Trouble is, I never did drink, so I guess I'd better stay here—and keen on guessing.

LIEUT, B. keep me waiting for an answer as I will take your advice. You are so dear, I really think I could love you.

Are you a lady or a man? What is the K. O. H. C. I would love to know. Please write soon.

easy for some one of my friends to do that very thing. Come to think about it, you do write a great deal like one

I'm sure you'll get a number of answers, Lieutenant B. Glad to bear from you again. of my friends talks.

The "Old Bachelor" seems to be want to ask you a question which, in my estimation, is not very puzzling. I would like to know whether it is right too, that the human mind can be so would like to know whether it is r narrow as to form an opinion of all

The Woman's

Exchange

The Woman's

Exchange

Stock Market News

To the Editor of Wessaals Page:

Dear Malada—Beling a stealy reader

Stock Market News

To the Editor of Wessaals Page:

Dear Malada—Beling a stealy reader

of your paper, I take the privilege of naking your paper, I t

Dear Madam—Being a steady reader of your paper. I take the privilege of asking you a few questions:

Some time ago I was asked to buy shares in a stock company which in the stock was a stock was a stock company which in the stock was a stock was a stock company which in the stock was a stock w toujours, votre ami. HENNEN J. B.

Advises "Disabled Soldier"

Dear Cynthia—Read your letters each night and find them both amusing and entertaining, especially when one writes, "am considered good-looking by the opposite sex." Ask them how they get opposite sex." Ask them how they get that way.

Permit me to say a few lines to "Disabled Soldier." Are you sure both of them are seriously in love with you? Call one up and make a date with her, and see if she will cancel all other engagements to go with you (even though you only give her short notice). If she loves you, she will, and find it a pleasure in doing so. Which one makes the most fuss over you when she has not seen you for some time? "Actions speak louder than words" sometimes. You can generally judge which one loves you the most. Watch and see.

ONE WHO LOVES A SOLDIER. ONE WHO LOVES A SOLDIER

"Lieut. B." Writes Again Dear Cynthia and K. U. H. C.

THE HAPPIEST BRIDE SAYS "IT'S SUCH FUN TO BE POOR"

She Has to Skimp for Each New Piece of Furniture, but the Pleasure She Gets Is Worth the Trouble It Takes powder question—and that of the vamp as well—has been definitely settled to the satisfaction (?) of all concerned, so I think I'll burst into print once more, just to relieve my mind a little.

I regret to say that "Miss Ideal" has not been found to date, still the time spent in looking for her has not been wholly wasted. I've learned a few things, yet there remain meany that have ring finger, "It's got to be a man with don't marry a man who less money right away! It's so much fun to be poor for a while."

Unfortunately I belong to that class of men who are always uncomfortable in the presence of girls. I feel quite at home in a lodge room or an army camp, but there is something about a gathering of women that gives me the sort of feeling the monse must have had when the lion cornered him.

I've found that the best way to get along with a girl is to let her do the talking. Of course she would do most of it anyway, but you can help her out in many ways. There is nighting original about my discovery. Very likely it was caused by the fact that I was never very talkative. But by following out this rule complications have set in. I find that the The other girl would be disgusted with the Happiest Bride's idea of "fun." She and her husband live in a tiny house for them. She superintended little house, and they have just exactly and chose colors, and it was interesting little house, and they have just exactly enough furniture to keep the house from looking bare. 'My kitchen is really lovely," the Happiest Bride claims with pride, 'But we had to change the living-room round three times before we could tell that we had any furniture in it at all.' It took three months, and many trips to furniture sales to buy the dining-room table. Four weeks' Saturday night theatre parties were sacrificed for the upholstered chair by the living-room table, and the rug in was caused by the fact that I was never very talkative. But by following out this rule complications have set in. I find that the less you say about yourself, the more people notice you. Dame Rumor now has me credited with a past, a dark, mysterious one. Also I am classed as being of the deep and not-easily-understood kind of people. Wonderful, isn't it? Well, I'm satisfied as long as I am not called bashful. That would be nearer the truth, yet I'd probably deny it most emphatically if accused of such a thing. So much for that, the living-room table, and the rug in that room cost many a resoled shoe.

No, it may darned hole. Does that sound like fun? with the Ha

Now for a few things I haven't discovered. Why do perfectly nice, otherwise normal girls, delight in taking one's new soft hat and pulling it down over those "doughnut" puffs that hide their ears, just to see how it looks on Perhaps it wasn't fun while it was oing on. Those four shows that went going on. by were all good ones, and Saturday is the only play night; every other woman in town seemed to be buying new shoes their ears, just to see how it looks on them?

Why do girls who spend hours in front of a mirror call a fellow "stuck up" if he happens to take a glance out of the corner of his eye to see if he needs a haircut?

Why do some of the prettiest girls imaginable marry big, homely men, some of whom are really ugly? (I've figured this out for myself, but I'd like to hear what others think). and new waists and stunning hats. But, when that glorious day arrived, and the rug or the chair or the table came home, paid for, it all seemed worth while. And when all the neighbors were called in to admire, and everybody ex-claimed, don't you think that Happiest Bride and her husband were satisfied?

WELL, when I get married, de-lared the girl with the empty bad a whole new house, instead of just one little new piece of it? And can't ring finger. "It's got to be a man with lots and lots of money."

The Happiest Bride, who has been married all of two years, broke in. "Oh, don't married all of two years, broke in." "Oh, don't married all of two years, broke in." "Oh, don't married all of two years, broke in." "Oh, that first Saturday night after that!"

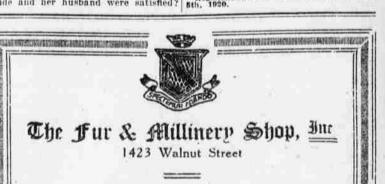

T OOK at another bride who married money. While she and her husband lived at a hotel, she had an interior decorator furnish and decorate a whole to see the beautiful, symmetrical room

No, it may be easier and more pleas ant to marry a rich man, but I agree with the Happiest Bride that "It's se with the Happiest Bride that "It's so much fun to be poor for a while."

MARY A. WILSON School of Cooking

241 South 23d St. Tate | U. S. Naval Commissary School | Domestic Science Sum. School | University of Virginia

Phone Spruce 753
Registration now open; classes start Jan 5th, 1929.

HATS at $10

Formerly $25 and Up

Also liberal reductions throughout our entire stock. An exceptional opportunity that will surely pass quickly

STORES CO.

amenica "I Have Stopped Baking Since Victor Came to Town"

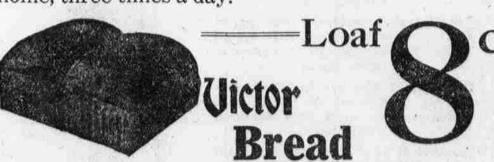

This was the statement made by a customer in one of our suburban stores just recently opened.

This coming from a farmer's wife, who all through her married life had baked two or three times a week, is a most telling argument for Victor satisfaction, both from the standpoint of quality and value.

Her experience is that of tens of thousands of other intelligent, economical house-keepers, who long since have learned the amount of money, labor and time there is saved by using Victor.

Victor contains all the life-giving properties, all the nutrition that nature put into the finest wheat.

Victor is therefore, in a very particular sense, a balanced ration, and should be on the table of every home, three times a day.

Victor Raisin Bread, Loaf Baked with luscious raisins

The seal that makes

Everywhere in Philadelphia and Throughout Pennsylvania New Jersey, Maryland and Delaware

ASCO. ASCO.

ASCO.

styles and the range in price is wide.

Diamond Solitaire Rings

Diamond Cluster Rings

Diamond Princess Rings

Diamond Banquet Rings

Diamond Wedding Rings

Silverware. Call or write for a copy.

Diamond Gypsy Rings

In our new catalog you will find many Diamond Rings illustrated, as well as thousands of other gift suggestions in Watches, Jewelry and