MRS. WILSON PREPARES MENUS FOR HOUSEWIFE

Requirements of Market Basket to Follow Out These Careful Plans for Sunday Meals

Salmon a la King Is a Diverison From the Usual Method of Cooking That Is Worth Trying

By MRS. M. A. WILSON (Copyright, 1919, by Mrs. M. A. Wilson. All rights reserved.)

- PLANNING and preparing three meals for the family on Sunday need not prevent the housewife from attending church, if she so wishes. With a little forethought and planning, much of the actual preparation can be arranged on Saturday.

THE MENU

- Breakfast: Sliced Bananas, Cereal and Cream, Codfish, Tomato Sauce, Toast, Coffee.

Dinner

- Barley Broth with Vegetables, Lamb Cutlets, Mentone, Mashed Potatoes, Mashed Turnips, Celery Salad, Raisin Pie, Coffee.

Supper

- Radishes, Celery, Salmon a la King, Potato Cakes, Chocolate Cake, Tea.

How to Prepare the Menu

On Saturday prepare the fish cakes as follows: Place in a bowl two cups of mashed potatoes, two onions grated, two tablespoons of finely minced parsley.

Tomato Sauce

Place one-half can of tomato soup in a saucepan and add one-half cup of water. Two level tablespoons of cornstarch.

"ROLLING STOCK"

The new story by Fannie Hurst tells of a dressmaker who became a modiste, a manager who became a husband, a dress model who remained a model.

The first installment of this new serial, which will run all next week, appears tomorrow, Saturday, December 20.

One-half can of tomato soup

Three-quarters cup of water. Bring to a boil, add the cutlets and let simmer for ten minutes. Lift the cutlets on top and pour the gravy over the meat.

Raisin Pie

Place one package of seedless raisins in a saucepan and add one cup of sugar. Three-quarters cup of water.

Chocolate Cake

Place in a mixing bowl one cup of sugar, one-half cup of shortening, one-half cup of cocoa, one teaspoon of cinnamon.

Mrs. Wilson Answers Queries

No. 13: My dear Mrs. Wilson—Would you kindly reprint the recipe for my old English oyster pie? I cut it out of the paper to copy it in my recipe book, but have mislaid it.

No. 17

My dear Mrs. Wilson—I attended one of your lectures, at which you made a coffee butter cream cake.

No. 18

Just add the unbeaten white of egg to the well-beaten butter. Beat hard and then add the sugar slowly.

Phantom Party for New Year's

To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—Will you kindly give me a few suggestions for a phantom party, to be given on New Year's eve?

Word your invitations like this:

"Phantoms all! The ghost of 1919 will meet you on New Year's eve at 8:30, at the home of [fill in your name and address]."

Please Tell Me What to Do

By CYNTHIA

Cynthia writes to remind her readers that letters should be short, written on one side of the paper only and signed with the full name.

They Will Come: Mrs. M. De T.—Thank you for your little note about the four babies.

Another Letter to A. L. H.: Dear Cynthia—Please publish this letter to advise the young man A. L. H.

L. L. H.—Whoever you are, you are lucky! Few are fortunate as you to marry a girl who makes a business of her virtues.

Your fiancée is young yet, perhaps she never loved before and never will be loved by a man.

If you know that such is the case, your troubles can be overcome by your adding a little more confidence to yourself.

Coming here I thought that I was bringing the flame of flame, but now I realize that I have brought the flame into a flame.

ONE THAT KNOWS

To "College Man"

A letter came for Cynthia signed by "College Man," but it was written on glossy paper with a very hard pencil.

She's Going to a Show

Dear Cynthia—This will be the first time I am going out with a fellow. It is right to ask him to wait for me outside the dressing room.

ANXIOUS

It is not necessary to go into the dressing room before a show. One usually takes one's wraps to one's seat.

A Word to "Lieut. B."

Dear Cynthia—I am answering Lieutenant B.'s interesting letter. I am sorry you have not met "Miss Ideal" as yet.

THE BARREL SHAPE IS NEWEST IN WRAPS

Flame-colored silk tulle makes this stunning cloak. Black velvet is used for the flounces at shoulders and knees, and the deep collar is of gray fox.

A Daily Fashion Talk by Florence Rose

OF ENORMOUS importance nowadays is the evening wrap. I think I remarked once before that years ago women used to look upon their evening wrap as something that they donned purely in a transitional way.

Practical Gifts

Two dish towels and a dish mop, for the lady of the kitchen. A card of hooks and eyes, spools of black and white thread, and a paper of pins, for the seamstress.
