Dumoe, Spagna and O'Hearn Ruled Ineligible by Faculty Committee

PLAYED WITH PHOENIXVILLE

Collegiate athletes who participated in the Phoenixville-Conshohocken football game at Norristown almost two weeks ago are paying for it at the price of their amateur standing.

Fred Mitchell Leads

Pennsylvania Harriers Fred Mitchell, the former North-east High lad, was chosen yesterday to pilot Old Penn's cross-country team for 1920. He succeeds Ralph McHale, who captained the harriers this last fall. Though a junior, Mc-Hale refused to be a candidate for re-election. Mitchell is a junior in the chemical engineering course in the Towne Scientific School. He has been a member of the varsity harrier

The casualty list in ineligibilities, not physical injuries, of the Norristown independent club game follows:
Pard Pearce, halfback, Pennsylvania, Joe Dumoe, Lafayette, end.
Harry Spagna, Lehigh, tackle, Jim O'Hearn, Lehigh, guard.
Pearce and Derr were up on other professional charges, but their play in the Norristown independent club game helped convict them.
Jim Neylon and Heine Miller, of Penn, and Bodie Weldon, of Lafayette, are three other college athletes who played with Phoenixville, but no action was taken on them because they already have played their last game for facility football, but it was really the game at Norristown that brought his case up for investigation. He stated that Norristown that brought his case up for investigation. He stated that breeived only expenses for playing with the Phoenixville eleven. Previous to his entering Lafayette Burt.
