Edwin S. Stuart-Foot of Water Enters Hold TAKEN TO SHIPYARD

A fireboat came near sinking at her dock at the Race street pier today. The vessel, the Edwin S. Stuart, has been out of commission for two months, and has been lying at the foot of the wharf waiting for the winter to end, so activities could be resumed.

Pack ice, sent banging along by the wind and tide, scraped the hull of the boat, and partly opened a sea valve, allowing the water to pour in slowly.

For a while it was not noticed. Eventually the boat slowly settled in the water. Captain Charles Deiser saw the trouble in time. He found a foot of water in the hold and more coming in.

A tug was requisitioned and the sinking fireboat was towed across the river to the Mathias shipyard, Camden,

The Chestnut Street Shops are ablaze with Christmas colors these days and every window seems filled with gift suggestions. A walk along Chestnut street, especially in the morning before the stores are crowded, gives you a host of new ideas for your shopping list. Most of us are weary of the "do-your-Christmas-shopping-early" plea, yet there are many who still put off their Christmas buying until the last possible moment, and so it will do no harm to remind you that Christmas is less than a week away.

Ready for a Wonderful Day in the Toy Store!

TO-MORROW will be the last Saturday before Christmas! The Toy Store has broken all former one-day records more than once this season, but it is quite possible that to-morrow will be the greatest day of all. Our supplies of TOYS, DOLLS and GAMES are holding out wonderfully well—the variety seems as great as a month ago. There are HUNDREDS AND THOUSANDS OF DIFFERENT THINGS here to delight children's hearts. If you bring the children to-morrow, please try to come early in the day. But, early or late, be sure to come. We are well equipped to give good service.

Strawbridge & Clothier Advise an Early Start To-morrow

Be in Time for the Christmas Music and Tableaux at 9.30

This is the most wonderful Christmas season we have ever had. Only four shopping days remain before Christmas, which means that everybody will be exceedingly busy, and that it will be wise to SHOP EARLY in the day. The Strawbridge & Clothier Chorus sings at 9.30 in the morning, and hundreds of our customers enjoy the music and accompanying tableaux as a delightful beginning for the shopping day. Our shopping crowds are good-natured and considerate-everybody is pleasant, and more customers are CARRYING THEIR OWN PARCELS than ever before.
