

PLENTY OF BOXING ON HOLIDAY CARDS

Four Clubs Will Stage Twenty-four Bouts at Tomorrow's Matinees

VISITORS ON PROGRAM

By JAMES S. CAROLAN

THE BOXING clubs will be working on full time tomorrow. The quartet of Quaker City ring boys have prepared a holiday festive menu for the lovers of fistie food. Extra bills have been arranged and it looks like a regular Christmas boxing fest.

Many out-of-town boys as well as local talent will be exhibited. At the two big clubs the visitors have the preference, as eighteen of the twenty-four nights are booked to appear at the Olympia and National are from out of the city.

Both the National and Olympia have visiting attractions in the windows and front windows. The Cambria and Auditoriums are very local in the main bouts.

Joe Welling and Joe Beniamini will top the Olympia show. Welling's last exhibition here was against Johnny Dundee at the Philadelphia Park. Welling also met Ted Toulson at the Philadelphia Park. Beniamini surprised his last showing by stopping the popular Jimmy Murphy. Both Welling and Beniamini rate with our leading lightweights.

The Root is a featherweight who seems to fear none of the ring warriors. He will be imported to make a fight with the champion, Andy Schneider when he faces the rugged Phil Hedrick in the Olympia semifinal. Then there will be Joe Tiplitz, Eddie Fitzsimmons, Young Sacco and a few other well-known attractions on the list.

Boxing always has proved an excellent holiday sport. It is seldom that all clubs do not try to capacity. Part of the reason for this is reported that it was necessary to turn back the throng before the first bout was over. Tomorrow looks like no exception.

COAST MEN WANT MAXWELL OFFICIAL

Huntington, of Oregon, Favors Evening Public Ledger Sports Editor for Harvard Game

ELEVENS ARE IN SHAPE

By the Associated Press

Pasadena, Calif., Dec. 24.—Whether Harvard's eleven shall wear numbers in the New Year's Day game with Oregon is one of the questions which the tournament of roses football committee will seek to decide as soon as the Crimson squad arrives Friday.

Oregon's team, like other Pacific Coast football teams, carried numbers in all former seasons, but opposition to their so doing in the New Year's game, unless Harvard also adopts the system, is said to have developed.

Selection of officials, as well as discussion when the easterners make their appearance, according to persons close to "Sly" Huntington, Oregon coach, Harvard's expressed wish for As G. Van Sturlan, formerly of West, and D. W. Merriman, Pennsylvania, referee, is said to be opposed by Huntington, who favors Robert W. Maxwell, of Philadelphia, for one, if an eastern man is chosen, and either W. S. Kleinholz, Pasadena; George M. Varnell, Spokane, Wash.; or Sam Dalton, Corvallis, Ore., for another.

Meanwhile, however, Huntington is bending every energy toward getting his charges in the best possible condition.

The schedule of two workouts daily, started Monday, is expected to continue the remainder of the week, with a possible lay-off Saturday afternoon to permit the Oregonians to watch the California interscholastic football championship contest here.

An indication of the interest which the forthcoming game has aroused is furnished by long lines of men and women waiting for the opening seat sale. Those of them declared today they had held their places themselves or by substitutes for more than forty hours in order to have first chance at tickets.

All tickets so far sold have gone to members of the Tournament of Roses Association, each of whom is permitted to buy eight tickets. Public sale begins today.

The Harvard team passed through Ogden Utah, last night. Coach Robert T. Fisher declared all his men were in fine condition.

"The Harvard team is going to Pasadena on a business trip and not for pleasure," said Coach Fisher, "and it is going to try to win and uphold the honor of the university."
