

WHAT IS YOUR MERRY CHRISTMAS?

No One to Go Hungry or Cold in Philadelphia Tomorrow. Organizations Vouch

DINE THOUSANDS OF POOR

"Merry Christmas!" That's an old one. Nothing new about it. Just the same old glad cry, bringing a warm glow to the face and warmth every year.

ROBBERIES CAUGHT AFTER PISTOL DUEL

Policeman in Running Fight With Thief, Who Pleads for Clemency in Court

FELLED VICTIM WITH GUN

James O. Boylan, of the Hood Hamilton, Fifteenth and Locust streets, was held up, robbed and felled with the butt of a pistol early this morning at Upper and Norris streets.

DISTRIBUTING BASKETS AT OLD ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

The Rev. Dr. H. Cresson McHenry handing out baskets containing chickens, groceries and a box of candy to needy families at the annual Christmas distribution by the Protestant Episcopal City Mission, at its headquarters in St. Paul's, on Third street below Walnut

STETSON EMPLOYEES GET STOCK AS GIFTS

$290,000 in Bonuses Paid to Some Workers at Big Christmas Celebration

EVERY ONE IS REMEMBERED

"Merry, merry Christmas!" The vast auditorium of the John B. Stetson Co. echoed and re-echoed with these words today, joyfully shouted by hundreds of employees of that concern who had gathered there for Christmas exercises.

HELD AS PURSE-SNATCHER

Man Accused of Grabbing Handbag From Woman Shopper

HARRY A. GATCHEL DIES IN HOSPITAL

President of Photo-Engraving Firm Was Widely Known in Business

NEW COUNCIL PLANS GIVEN COMMITTEE

Members Argue Over advisability of Holding Open or Closed Meeting

INDEPENDENTS FOR SECRECY

Plans for the organization of the new Council were presented this afternoon before members of the special committee on rules meeting in City Hall.

Cellmate Swears 'Suicide' Was Beaten

Continued from Page One Mrs. Marie Stehlik, the dead man's mother, testified that the chin was black and blue, that there were finger marks on the cheeks, and scratches on the back of the hands.

POLICE REMEMBER POOR

Hundreds Get Cheer at Thirty-second and Market Streets Station

Hall Still Defiant in Fight for Gavel

Continued from Page One attitude of another Vore stalwart, David Martin.

FIFTY PRISONERS RELEASED

Camden Judge Frees 'Short-Term' Men for Christmas

Elkton Marriage Licenses

Elkton, Md., Dec. 24.—Marriage licenses were issued here today to William J. Martin and Myrtle Douglas.

LAUNCH VICTORY SHIP

Chateau-Thierry Leaves Ways at Hog Island

$500 IN CLOTH STOLEN

Typewriter, Hardware, Tools and Auto Taken in Other Thefts

PUBLIC SERVICE LIST

Lehigh Valley Electric Rate Cases Up for Friday

TODAY'S MARRIAGE LICENSES

Harvard Hubbard, 423 E. Rittenhouse at 4th and Locust, and Ethel Brown, 2322 W. Hunting Park at 27th and Locust.

HAVANA RESULTS

FIRST RACE, purse $600, for three-year-olds, claimed, 108. Metins.

LOST AND FOUND

HANDS—Lost, between Kroger's and 10th street, on Market st., a brown leather wallet, containing $1.00.

DEATHS

BENE—Suddenly, Dec. 22 at 2409 W. Bond st., LAURA E. wife of Howard E. Bone and daughter of Maria and the late Harry Philander.

Orphans Not Forgotten

There will be Christmas parties and presents of clothes and toys in all the orphans' homes of the city.

Theatre Parties

The inmates of the Edwin Forrest Home for Actors, at Holmesburg, will be the guests of the Shubert management at the Christmas matinee at the Metropolitan Opera House.

MUNYON COMPANY SUES

"Professor's" Son Asked to Surrender Remedy for Formulae

Gifts for Police Officer

Lieutenant Joseph Hilligan, attached to the Park and Lehigh avenues police station, was presented with a diamond ring, a smoking jacket and a mercurian pipe from the patrolmen and sergeant of the station.

Christmas Cheer at Nursery

The Salvation Army day nursery, at 236 South Third street, is not to be behind in the efforts being made by institutions of this city to make this the happiest Christmas Philadelphia has ever had.

Three Inspectors at Inquest

Among those who attended the inquest were William Dunlap, prison inspector, who was charged to lead the present investigation, and two other inspectors, Ignatius J. Horstmann and E. J. Lafferty.

Christmas Cheer at Nursery

The Salvation Army day nursery, at 236 South Third street, is not to be behind in the efforts being made by institutions of this city to make this the happiest Christmas Philadelphia has ever had.

J. E. CALDWELL & CO. JEWELERS—SILVERSMITHS—STATIONERS CHESTNUT AND JUNIPER STREETS. Gifts for Women: Bracelets, Bar Pins, Bookmarks, Brooches, Candy Jars, Coin Holders, Neck Chains, Cigarette Cases, Crosses, Rosaries, Crucifixes, Clocks, Dorine Powder Boxes, Eyeglass Cases, Fountain Pens, Hat Pins, Hand Bags, Overnight Bags, Lockets, La Vallieres, Lingerie Pins, Lip Salve Cases, Logrongs, Lorgnon Guards, Mesh Bags, Penholders, Photograph Frames, Pencils, Potpourri Boxes, Sautoirs, Signet Rings, Sewing Sets, Thimbles, Tape Measures, Umbrellas, Vanity Cases, Veil Pins, Wrist Watches.

Philadelphia Trust Company announces the opening of its uptown office at the Northeast Corner of Broad and Chestnut Streets.

Philadelphians Trust Company. Main Office: 415 Chestnut St. Uptown Office: Broad & Chestnut Sts.

Weil-McLain Scientific Combustion Boilers. Burn Less Coal Because They Burn All the Coal. As a result of 28 years of experiment and research, Scientific Combustion is at last attained in these boilers.

SANTA ON BROAD STREET. Motorists Give Traffic Police Christmas Envelopes. A big toning car sped down Broad street this morning.

MRS. HOSTETTER'S FUNERAL. Fellow Members of Musical Clubs Attend Final Services. Funeral services were held this afternoon at 1820 Chestnut street for Mrs. Van Hostetter.

YULETIDE CHEER FOR BLIND. Two hundred families in which the breadwinners are blind received gifts of coal, provisions or clothing today and yesterday from the Blind Relief Fund of Philadelphia.