SOME "BITES TO EAT" - WOMAN'S EXCHANGE-CYNTHIA - WISHING YOU A MERRY CHRISTMAS

MRS. WILSON SUGGESTS | Please Tell Me CHRISTMAS EVESMACKS

And Wishes a Merry Holiday to All Those Who Read Her Interesting Articles

The Festivities of Trimming the Tree and Preparing gillstening with all its splenger. In many of the households the children are ready to hang no their stockings for Santa Caus. Mothers, this is a wonderful time for you, when the family is elinging together, chose to the hearth, forgiving and forgetting the worries and troubles of the last year.

Enter into the real spirit of the occusion, Make this a holiday long to be remembered. Let the boys and girls have their parties and enjoy this sea son. By this time all the marketing son. By this time all the marketing and the necessary preparations for the morrow are done, and you are just resting before allowing the young pass ple to start the Christmas Eve festivi-

The greating of friends and requaint Christmas song—all this on Christmas Eve. And then, allowed II e closult give a smed or bite to ent and a cap of cocoa, so that when the antingulation is struck there will be much wishing of a Merry Christmas. And then, perhaps, away to a midnight mass, then to bed until dawn. Let joy and mirth be unconfined, and you yourself be gayer than the youngest. be gayer than the youngest. A few suggestive menus for Christ-mas Eve spread:

Toasted Cheese Sandwiches Gingerbread Tea Cheese and Pepper Sandwiches or Bacon and Onion Sandwich

Scotch Rabbit Rye Bread and Butter Ten

Dry Oyster Pan Toast Cocon Cheese and Omelet Sandwiches

Toasted Cheese Sandwiches

Remove the crust from a lost of bread, and then cut into slices one inch thick. Toast, and then cut American cheese in slices one fourth-inch thick.

Place on the toast and spread lightly with grated onion. Place in the pan in a hot oven to toast the cheese.

Gingerbread

This cake can be made and baked in torty-five minutes. Place in a bowl One and one-kalf cups of molnancs, One-kalf cup of shortening. One cup of water, Four cups of sifted flour, Three level tablespoons of baking

One and one half teaspoons of cinamon,
One teaspoon of nutmeg.
One teaspoon of ginger,
One-half teaspoon of allspice.
One-quarter teaspoon of cloves.

Place in a bowl

One cup of cottage cheese see peppers, minced fine. onion, minced fine. One-half cup of manounaise. One teaspoon of salt, One teaspoon of paprika.

Beat to mix and then butter the bread and cut in thin slices. Place a layer of cheese mixture and then cover and cut in half.

Bacon and Onion Sandwiches

Mince fine one and one-half cups of nions. Parboil until tender and then enions. Parboil until tender and in dice. Toss lightly in hot pan and add the onions. Toss until onions are nicely browned and tender. Spread be-tween slices of buttered rye bread.

Scotch Rabbit

Place one-half pound of grated cheese In a saucepan or chafing dish and add

One onion, grated, Three-quarters cup of well-drained canned tomatoes, One tablespoon of Worocatershire one well-beaten egg.

One teaspoon of salt.
One teaspoon of paprika. Mix and heat until the cheese melts. Serve on the toast.

Dry Oyster Pan Allow one-half dozen oysters for each

The Question Corner Today's Inquiries

1. What is a pretty, easily-made centerpiece for the Christman table?

2. Describe a writing case that is complete in its appointments and easy to carry in traveling.

3. How can a cheap brown picture frame be made expensive-looking? 4. How is fur used to make an un-usual-looking neglige?
5. What is the "prince of Wales" fan?

6. Describe a pretty hat that is comfortable for metoring in cold weather.

Yesterday's Answers

1. An unusual and attractive door stop is a wooden puppy on a board, with a wedge in the back that fits under the door.

that fits under the door.

The newest evening gowns are noticeably higher in the neck, and are made with very short sleeves.

When a union suit becomes too tight a gore of flaunel may be inserted in the back to enlarge it.

A prettily tied package of a dozen light nets would be an ac-esotable and practical Christmas gift that could be bought at the last minute.

An engagement is usually kept a secret until the day of the affair that is given to announce it, instead of being mentioned in the Invitations. Large flowers are used in wreaths that encircle or cross diagonally the bouffant skirt of a black eve"WOULD YOU?"

s the title of the story which will follow "Rolling Stock." starting on Menday, December 29.

Fannie Hurst

her never-fulling ability, has nade this a touching story of an eighteenth wedding anniversory and commu's breaking heart, a woman'

for Tomorrow Will Make the Family Hungry

By MRS. M. A. WILSON

Converger, June, by Men. M. A. Wilson

In Many portions of this country the traditions of the old world are part of the Christmas holidays. The christmas holidays and forth its branches, berliboned with fined and specific part of the old world are part of the old world are part of the old world are part of the christmas holidays. The christmas holidays and serve.

Converge.

My dear, do not be feelish. Do not went yourself out for this man, for he can't be suited and then he is only own to skir less one of the gentles some coward to strike one of the gentles and then the during the content of the can't be and then the world and form this man, for he can't be and then the world one of the can't be and then the can't be can't be

A Merry Christians to you gil! God

Mrs. Wilson Answers Queries

Mr Done Mrs, Wilson I've read with much interest from any re-day purchase it, as it is something I wanted to know how to make myself. And also in what number of the paper can I find the recipes for preparing subbage in various ways-rooking it. etc.? I think there were two papers at different times telling how to pre-pare cabbage, etc. If you will kindly answer through the paper, I should esteem it a favor. You have such a plenitude of most excellent recipes, surely every one must be auxious, as I am, to try some. With thanks in advance. E. J. L.

Friday, October 17, mutton type: October 21, cabbage recipes. The recipe reasonable reasonable type olde-tyme sucr pudding is coming than later.

No. 6
My Dear Mrs. Wilson-Would you please print a few of your recipes for making gluten bread, cake and nuffirs? Could you also inform me if sweet potatoes are harmful to a person bothered with sugar diabetes. If not harmful, please give recipe for cooking the same.

cooking the same, (Miss) E. J. See reply to R. A. W. Secure phy-sician's advice about sweet potatoes,

My Dear Mrs. Wilson-Will you favor me with your recipe for gluten bread suitable for a diabetes patient? We are unable to purchase it here in Camden, N. J., and it is ordered for my wife.

R. A. W.

Gluten Bread

19ace in a mixing bow)
Two cups of water, 80 degrees Fahr,,
One tenspoon of salt, One-kall weast cake, crumbled

Two tablespaons of shortening.
Stir to mix thoroughly and then add four cups of gluten flour. Cover and let rise for two hours and then add sufficient flour to form a soft dough, usually One-half teaspoon of cloves.

Beat just enough to mix and then gour into well-greased and floured pan and bake for forty minutes in a moderate oven. It can be cut and eaten erate oven. It can be cut and eaten Bake in a moderate oven for thirty minutes.

Bake in a moderate oven for thirty minutes.

What to Do

By CYNTHIA

Cynthia wishes to remind her readers that letters should be short, written on one side of the paper only and signed with the full name. The

Dear Cynthin-Please print this in your column is answer to "Working Girl."

bin. Let him go nud took for some one size the you. He won't find one, I assure you. You go and look for some one vasily different from him; you will find a great many. NOT AN EASY MARK."

What Shall He Do?

Dear Cynthia-I would appreciate if you could advise me in the following: Since my return from France I have intended to marry. We spoke of no engagement, but it is understood. able at times regarding by writing, and I am to be transferred to duty in Mexico, and, as ancensonable as it may keep to that, and if she is still unterested on the presence of the calcinited and any any states of the calcinited for the corrections of the correction of the corrections of the corr shall I keep this girl or not, as we have a quarrel every once in a while? Please answer me, Jack. PHILA, BOY.

I have been threatened several times:

Yes, there have been many happy marriages after rather long engagements. But it should be an engagement. This "company keeping," excluding all other friends, is always a mistake. If you love her, ask her to marry you and be engaged, if she concerns and the contracts of the contracts of the contracts. until you can marry.

Stands Up for New England Girls

Give Her Some Beadwork A Daily Fashion Talk by Florence Rose

The Indian headwork that was so popular years ago was forgotten be fore the war. But wounded soldiers started to make necklaces of this kind, and because they were soldiers as well as because their work was

So charming, women began to "go in" again for these pretty chains

THIS last day before Christmas I am who sell behind the counters where the new beaded neck ornaments are sold. For there has been a perfectly enormous demand for this sort of dress accessory as Christmas gifts in the smart shops. The first thought of mere man when he decides to give his wife a bit of jewelry or ornament for Christmas is to go to the jeweler's and buy the most in the contament shown at the right of the property chains

THIS last day before Christmas I am about as a direct result of war conditions. Like that other vogue for patch lace pieces it never would have happened had there been no war. In this case it was the soldiers convalescent and ornamental bits of beadwork, and the fact that they displayed very considerable artistic tasts and ingenuity in making them accounts for the fact that discriminating women took eagerly to wearing them.

The ornament shown at the right of the province of the conditions and the part of the province of the p

SANTA CLAUS COMES TONIGHT!

It's pretty late for little tots to be up, but Christmas Eve is a special occasion and even little sister is allowed to patter into the room and hang up her stocking all ready for Santa Claus. The Teddy Bear and Peter Rabbit took dejected and forlorn. Perhaps they know about the beautiful new doll and the wonderful train of ears that will take their place tomorrow on the floor under the Christmas tree. But Buddy and little sister won't know about that until tomorrow morning, when the son sbines in at their window and wakes them up and all the little sunbeams dance about their heads and say "Merry Christmas!"

I have been threatened several times as to what should sample if I was not to write. So it looks like a dark day shead for me.

Any addres you could give me would be appreciated.

It does seem remarkable that you will not be able to write, anless you are in the intelligence department, of course.

You are wrong not to have a settled engagement, at least if you hope to marry and are going away. Don't just that the boys in that part of the country are not the fainters you seem that understanding differs. You should simply talk matters over with her. Expiring the letter question, promise always to write when it's possible (and keep to that), and if she is still unreasonable make the break now, rather that later.

Asks Bokes Markets dark's Addies.

I have been threatened several times as the failed only ones who can produce bread, to only ones who can produce bread, I do not agree with her when she states that New England girls lad better marry farmers who want for where she hatter when the when the country farmers who want for wives girls who can bake bread, not varing what their appearance may be.

Let me say to you, Philadelphia good points, fair dancer—all of which oxplains, that I'm not one of those country are not the fainters you seem to imagine. If you ever met some of the more country are not the fainters you seem to imagine. If you ever met some of them you would agree with me. Furthermore, I can name ten of my New England girl acquaintances who are better looking thm any I have seen in Philadelphia, and they don't get their ways to write when it's possible (and keep to that), and if she is still unreasonable make the break now, rather than later.

Asks Bokes Markets dark's Addies.

Asks Bokes Markets dark's Addies.

it copyrighted. Then send it to a mu-sical publisher and have it arranged. Most of the publishers give a royalty, but various ones, of course, have various arrangements. I hope you will be successful in selling the march.

"CINDERELLA'S DAUGHTER" By HAZEL DEYO BATCHELOR

Copyright, 1919, by Public Ledger Co.

A Question of Money

SYNOPSIS

At hoarding school Virginia West becomes friends with Kathleen Foster, but their friendship is interrupted by Virginia's leaving school. Mrs. West, fearful that Virginia may run off and marry Jinmy Anderson, a penniless college boy, takes her away from Palmertown and up to a fusnionable summer resort. Here they meet Sherman Holmes, a man of great wealth, who falls in love with Virginia. Mrs. West is eager for the match, but when Holmes proposes quickly; "quite true."

"That we're poor?" Mrs. West nodded. "But why are we up here spending understand."

"I thought you would be sensible, and our living expenses have been heavy. I expected you to make a good marriage, and the we met Sherman Holmes I saw a way out of everything."

"You thought I'd marry him for his money."

"Don't be melodramatic, Virginia. This is real life, you know; you're not on the stage. Suppose you did marry him for his money: "But I'm already in love with a rich man that you young girls are always mooning about doesn't last. Sherman Holmes is attractive; any sensible girl would improve the stage. The stage is attractive; any sensible girl would improve the stage. The stage is attractive; any sensible girl would improve the stage. The stage is attractive; any sensible girl would improve the stage. The stage is attractive; any sensible girl would improve the stage is attractive; any sensible girl would improve the stage is attractive; any sensible girl would improve the stage is attractive; any sensible girl would improve the stage is attractive; any sensible girl would improve the stage is attractive; any sensible girl would improve the stage of the happing of the very best of wishes for the happing of the very best of wishes for the happing of the very best of wishes for the happing and to save you with your shopping, and to save you with your shopping and to save you with your shopping, and to save you with your shopping and to save you with your shopping and to save you with your shopping and to save you wit ing about doesn't last. Sherman Holmes is attractive; any sensible girl would jump at the chance of marrying him, and he has millions. You could have everything. Is it quite settled, dear?" Mrs. West's tone softened. "You could reconsider it, couldn't you?" Virginia shivered. "Mother, how can you? I don't love him. I told him so, and, of course, there's nothing to be done about it."

There was a silence. Finally Mrs.

There was a silence. Finally Mrs. West spoke and the very quietness of her voice terrified Virginia.

"Very well, but I don't know what we're going to do."

or ornament for Christmas is to go to the jeweler's and buy the most intrinsically valuable stone that the amount he has decided to spend will permit. He doesn't think so much about the setting, though he wants that to be of good workmanship.

But when mere man consults the woman in question he often discovers that what she wants is some little and black. The little neckage at the tent of the fact that discovers that what she wants is some little and black. The neckage at the tent of the fact that discovers that what she wants is some little and black and the fact that discovers that the jeweler's and buy the most intrinsically valuable stone that the same of medallions that are worn quite effectively on dark fracks. Expecially good are those of jade or black.

The little neckage at the tent that the fact that discovers that what she wants is some little and the second that the fact that and the fact that when the fact that and the fact that when the right of this we should both go to work."

And then her mood changed again and she pleaded with Virginia to change her mind about Sherman Holmes, Virginia was obdurate, and the scene ended in tears for Mrs. West was scornful. "I suppose wearing them.

The beads used are flame pink, cream as the right of this wearing them.

The beads used are flame pink, cream as the right of think we should both go to work."

And then her mood changed again and she pleaded with Virginia to change her mind about Sherman Holmes, Virginia did not create the right of this wearing them.

The beads used are flame pink, cream as the right of think we should both go to work."

And then her mood changed again and she pleaded with Virginia to change her mind about Sherman Holmes, Virginia did not create the right of the pleaded with Virginia to change her mind about Sherman Holmes, Virginia do change her mind about Sherman Holmes, Virginia do change her mind about Sherman Holmes, virginia to change her mind about Sherman Holmes. Virginia do change her mind about Sherman Holmes, virginia to c the jeweler's and buy the most intrinsically valuable stone that the amount he has decided to spend will permit. He doesn't think so much about the setting, though he wants that to be of good workmanship.

But when mere man consults the woman in question he often discovers that what she wants is some little ornament like one of the new glass bead necklaces. They cost very much less than the piece of real jewelry but they contain a great deal of style and distinction.

It is an interesting thing to note that this vogue for what we used to call Indian beadwork, some years ago when it enjoyed a short-timed farze, came rginia came over and sat down beside At hearding school Virginia West comes friends with Kathleen Foston, but their friendship is interoning of any one writing about shopping or thing more definite about their finances, "Mother, have we plenty of money West looked at her daughter, away every wrinkle and tired line. I Why?"

"Because we must pay our bill to-might tell you of a shop where can be bought a magic recipe for happi-ness. But I doubt whether you would "We can't afford to live in that apartment any longer." be bought a ness. But I be interested. Virginia's heart sank, but she persist

Wirginia refuses bim.

Virginia refuse bim.

Virginia refuses bim.

Virginia refuse bim.

For the comforting knowledge that all those gifts are really bought—and wrapped up—will do much to erase lines and wrinkles. And no recipe, be it ever on magic, could cause greater happiness than sharing the joy of tiny people who utter shouts and squeals of delight at Santa's generosity.

ously.
"What has become of all our money?"
Virginia asked, not accusingly, but as a simple question that she ought to So I shall not tell you of any adventures today. I shall merely hope that some time you will have a minute or two to read this column which re-"It's gone," Mrs. West said tone-lessly.

"But how?"
"Oh, I speculated a little bit, and (Friday-Virginia takes the reins.)

How to relieve skin troubles

If you are troubled with eczema — if your skin is rough, red-if it itches and burns-simply apply to the affected part a little Resinol Ointment. It will even give quicker results if first bathed with Resinol Soap and warm water.

Resinol Ointment contains medicinal agents that act quickly and directly upon the skin, heal its hurts and help it to keep healthy purchased.

Procure a package from your druggist today, and let it rid you of those annoying, unsightly and embarrassing affections of

RESINOL SHAVING STICK soothes tender shins

Resino

HOW SANTA CLAUS WILL GET INTO MARY ELLEN'S HOUSE

She Is Afraid He Cannot Come Down the Narrow Chimney, but the Spirit of Christmas Will Let Him In

Dear Madam-Will you kindly advise "BUT Mother," Mary Ellen objected, will come to Mary Ellen's house to-Have you consulted a physician about chimney on the roof of the house, "how this? It may come from indigestion or from poor circulation. In either case, santa Claus ever get down there? Santa Claus is fat. And if he drops his of Christmas that can do such wonder-same a physician would be able to give you a remedy for it. Avoid rich food or too much sweet food, and take plenty of regular exercise to stimulate your circulation and make it regular and even.

Duties of Notary Public

Santa Claus is fat. And if he drops his pack first he'll land on it and break my new doll!'

That would be such a terrible tragedy that Mother had to tell Mary Ellen a little story about Christmas. She told her about the Spirit of Carlistmas which comes into everybody's house every year about a month or so before Christ-

The Woman's

To the Editor of Woman's Page

a chance of having it stolen.

From a Little Girl

To the Editor of Woman's Page Dear Madam—How tall should a girl

Adventures

With a Purse

CHRISTMAS Eve-mysterious night-before-Christmas! Whoever heard

I might tell you where can be found wonderful cream which will smooth

MISS E. M.

Cure for Red Nose

f there is any cure for a red nose?

Exchange

READER.

Duties of Notary Public

To the Editor of Woman's Page

Dear Madam — Kindly advise me where or from whom I can get any litterature and books on the duties necessary for a notary public. I have been informed that same can be bought from the Notaries Public Service Bureau.

You can get this book from the Notaries Public Service Bureau.

You can get this book from the Notaries Public Service Bureau.

You can get this book from the Notaries Public Service Bureau.

The present edition has from the ready until about February. Perhaps you could get the book from a necessary until about February. Perhaps you could get the book from a necessary and page you could get the book from a necessary and page you could get the book from a necessary and page you could get the book from a necessary for the Editor of Woman's Page

Dear Madam—I am a constant reader

Bureau.

AND on Christmas She told her about the Spirit-of-Christmas, Let's keep it all the year round."

Wax Beads

This is the day of the necklace of bright beads and quaint ornaments of all kinds that often give more effect to the costume by supplying just the right bit of color, than if the necklace were an expensive one of gold or silver. They can be made of modeling wax (which can be bought in almost any departments and nakes toys move about an dolls shut their eyes and open them again. It creates an atmosphere of quiet joy throughout the whole earth.

AND on Christmas Eve (and Mary Ellen got her old doll at that point in place.

Has Composed a March

To the Editor of Women's Page

Dear Madam—I am a constant reader of the Evening Public Ledger, and I wonder if you would help me a little, too. I am a musician and have written a march. I would like you to tell me where I could have it arranged and a safe place to have it copyrighted. Is it best to let a publishing house publish it for me, and just what do you get? Some one told me I would get a royality. I have been told by local musicians (good ones) that the march is very good, and I would not like to take a chance of having it stolen.

And on Christmas Eve (and Mary Ellen got her old dell at that point in the story so that she could hear it, too), the Spirit of-Christmas is busier than ever. It brings beautiful gifts for children out of funny-looking packages and grops them up against the Christmas tree. It changes the tree from a dark, disconsolate-looking object into a marvel of gleaming gold and silver, shining red, blue and green, shimmering "stringy stuff."

Then, when everybody's in bed and "all through the house not a creature is stirring, not ever a more in the story so that she could hear it, too), the Spirit of-Christmas is busier than ever. It brings beautiful gifts for children out of funny-looking packages and grops them up against the Christmas tree. It changes the tree from a dark, disconsolate-looking object into a marvel of gleaming gold and silver, shining red, blue and green, shimmering "stringy stuff."

"all through the house not a creature is stirring, not even a mouse," the Spirit-of-Christmas calls up Santa Claus. And Send a copy of your march to the copyright bureau. Washington, D. C. automobile, or his airplane, according You could not have a safer place to have "Hying."

It's the Spirit-of-Christmas that finds out how big the chimney is. If it isn't big cnough to let Santa Claus come down.the Spirit-of-Christmas goes softly and opens the front door very quietly so that Santa Claus can walk right in that wanta Claus can walk right in fine china and silver. Coarsely woven old cotton cut into towels and hemmed with a long stitch is almost equally MARY A. WILSON School of Cooking

241 South 23d St. Late | U. S. Naval Commissary School | Domestic Science Sum, School | University of Virginia Registration now open; classes start Janthat way. And that's how Santa Claus

Orchard

wax hardens the ornaments will remain

Glass Toweling

Cotton crepe and seersucker, bought by the yard, cut into towel lengths and hemmed, make the "very best" glass toweling. These also clude the ironing-board. The slight roughness of tex-ture gives an extra fine polish to glass, fine chies and clipse.

for Xmas

and all other occasions

THE juicy-fruity beverage that tastes of apple, peach and cherry and sparkles and bubbles in the glass like champagne. Delicious! Nutritious! Just try it! For all ages and all occasions. Not sickly sweet-

Grocers, dealers, confectioners, druggists, fruiterers, etc. have it or can get it.

aggravate a thirst.

contains no sugar or syrup to 100 shares of the Common Stock

THE STROBEL AND WILKEN COMPANY

New York

(Manufacturers of toys and dolls)

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, Francis P. Garvan, Alien Property Custodian, will offer for sale at public sale to the highest bidder at the main office of The Strobel & Wilken Company, 63 West 23rd Street, New York City, at 3 o'clock P. M., on the 6th day of January, 1920, 100 shares of the capital stock, out of 500 shares issued and outstanding, par value, $500 each, of The Strobel & Wilken Company, a corporation created and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the state of Ohio.

Full description of and information concerning the property to be sold, the terms and conditions of inspection and sale, and the order thereof, may be obtained by application to JOSEPH F. GUFFEY, Director, Burcau of Sales, 110 West 42d Street, New York City

FRANCIS P. GARVAN,

Alien Property Custodian.