LEADS HORSE TO SAFETY

Municipal Court Official Rescues Animal From Burning Stable

When the stable of William Anthony, 1709 South Mole street, caught fire last night a horse came near being burned to death. It was saved by Robert Erwin, an officer of the Municipal Court, who lives at 1507 Catharine street.

Mr. Erwin entered the burning stable and succeeded in leading the terrified horse to a place of safety. Damage done by the fire amounted to about $300.
