DOCTOR CONWELL'S

LETTERS ON

To the Editor of the Reening Public Ledger Sir: --As an investigator of Spirit-ualism for the last five years. I feel that I am entitled to a small opinion. At least, it can be said, that I am not of that class, who do not understand it, but yet have decided prejudice against it. I am not a Spiritualist as yet, but only on "the outside looking in." This happened to me to strengthen my will then be "sustained and soothed, by au unfaltering trust," which is a very desirable state of mind for the sorrow-ing masses, who have lost as I have. ELSIE MAY.

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger. Sir—In your recent issue you refer to the spiritual communication ex-perienced by the Rev. Dr. Russell Con-well and very broadly invite the criti-cism of your readers. Therefore, I beg to say, while complimenting the EVE-NING PUBLIC LENGER on its attitude, that from the writer's own humble ex-periences of some years of earnest in-vestigation, Doctor Conwell can be absolutely correct. It is a great pleasure to learn that Applies Logic to the Problem o the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger. To the follow of the freeing Public Ledger: Sir—If immortality is true it is not unreasonable to believe that "spirits of health or goblins dam'd may visit us and bring" airs from heaven or blasts from hell," etc., etc., but let a little "reason be presented to a candid world." If human beings possess souls, spir-its or any dual existence these souls must have existed before the existence
