Governing Committee Names Chairmen to Aid Big Campaign of Organization

CO-OPERATION IS URGED

Perfecting of the organization of the American Legion in Philadelphia county tion of seven district hairmen, who will supervise the work and progress of the posts within their districts.

This plan has been adopted by the county committee, which has established 'districts by writing their boundaries into the bylaws of the committee. The chairmen of the committees will be important factors in the development of the Legion here, and will be of measurable assistance to the posts included within the geographical boundaries of their respective districts.

A number of the district chairmen have called meetings of their post representatives for the purpose of planning for co-operation of the posts with each other during the ensuing year. The district chairmen are as follows:

Frack W. Melvin, first district; R. R. Hogan, second district; H. N. Schwartz, third district; Leo Weinrott, fourth district; J. J. Lamond, fifth district; A. Nevin Detrich, sixth district, and William O. March, second district, and William O. Muench, seventh dis nand William O. Muench, seventh district.
