BUSINESS TRIBUNAL AS UNREST CURE

Plan Proposed in Program of Second Industrial Conference Just Announced

Manufacturers and business men generally throughout the city were deeply interested today in the definite program announced by the President's second industrial conference.

The program, briefly, is to set up a national industrial tribunal, with twelve regional boards of inquiry and adjustment. The purpose is to mediate between employers and employees and to prevent strikes and other labor difficulties.

The conference, in announcing its plan, invited "comment, criticism or commendation." Many leading business men today reserved comment, preferring to analyze the program before making any definite statements.

John G. Carruth, a prominent textile manufacturer and president of the Industrial Trust, Title and Savings Co., believes the conference program to be "a step in the right direction."

The regional boards under the proposed plan would consist of one representative each of the public, capital and labor. Mr. Carruth pointed out to the employers might be convinced under such an arrangement. But, he added, the fact that the board's decisions must be unanimous to be binding, strengthens the plan from the employer's viewpoint.

"I believe the nation's industrial problems will work themselves out in time," Mr. Carruth stated. "It may require several years, but sometimes things happen out of the blue sky and the solution of our industrial problems may be nearer than we believe."

GIRL ADDS MYSTERY TO MURDER IN AUTO

Police Find New and Interesting Angle in Michigan Tragedy

BORROWED SOLDIER'S SUIT

By the Associated Press. Mt. Clemens, Mich., Dec. 29.—Michigan county authorities were today investigating a new angle of the slaying of Stanley Brown, son of a Detroit manufacturer, whose body was found in his automobile on the road from Detroit last Wednesday morning.

The new information was a statement by Miss Gladys Summit, who came here late last night from Battle Creek and gave the officers a story involving a young woman who, until last Saturday, lived in Battle Creek and who, Miss Summit declared, had been much in Brown's company just prior to his death.

The girl, whose name Miss Summit gave to the officers, left Battle Creek for Mt. Clemens early last week, the statement says, after borrowing a uniform from a soldier stationed at Camp Custer. She returned to Battle Creek Wednesday afternoon, Miss Summit declared, with a large sum of money and attired in new and expensive clothing. Later when informed of Brown's death by Miss Summit, the statement says, the girl displayed unusual interest and inquired if her name was mentioned by the newspaper report.

Odd Looking "Soldier" Alan Straight, chief of police, who returned here last night with Miss Summit, recalled the statement of a farmer that the latter had passed Brown's automobile late Tuesday night and some distance down the road had passed a figure dressed in man's clothing, who, he said, did not walk or look like a man.

Miss Summit's statement that a uniform had been borrowed from a Camp Custer soldier, Chief Straight declared, was corroborated by the fact that the soldier called at the young woman's rooming house during the officer's investigation there to ask the return of the uniform. Straight said he believed the soldier was not in any way connected with the case.

Miss Summit's statement says the young woman asked her to join her on a visit to Mt. Clemens where she said she had an engagement with the slain man. "I'll get Brown's money and rings if I have to kill him," the statement quotes the girl as saying.

Miss Summit says she declined the invitation, whereupon the girl replied: "Then I'll get some one else to help me."

Statements that rivalry for her affection had led to threats against Brown, are denied by Mrs. Dolly Peck Bennett, of Sandusky, O.

Two men, one a taxicab driver and the other a soldier, sought by the authorities, had not been located early last night. It was a taxicab driver, according to statements previously made to the authorities, who had threatened Brown.

The soldier, it was learned, is being sought to substantiate a story that Brown had armed himself following the alleged threats against his life. According to this statement, Brown, fearing that in an impassioned moment he might use his revolver, turned it over to the soldier.

"BOARDWALK SEER" SUED

Mrs. Walter Kenilworth Martin Asks Divorce From Husband-Proprietor

Walter Kenilworth Martin, better known as "Walter Kenilworth," the proprietor of the Boardwalk, at Atlantic City, has an opportunity to test his powers. His wife has entered suit against him for divorce in the Delaware courts, and the seer, her friends say, may predict the outcome and thus save lawyers' fees and lots of time.

Mrs. Martin seeks the divorce on the ground of cruel and barbarous treatment dating almost from the time they were married several years ago. Martin could not be found at his occult headquarters on the Boardwalk today and it was reported that he had gone to Palm Beach.

Hearing of the case has been scheduled for February 4. Martin is said to have amassed considerable money by his so-called powers of reading the future.

CHINESE PUZZLE UNSOLVED BY MAGISTRATE; TWO HELD

Lung Fat and Hip Hong, With Blackened Eyes, Present Identity Riddle—"Buck" Is Passed to Judge

Chinatown turned out in force today to attend the hearing of Lung Fat and Hip Hong, arrested in the Eleventh and Winter streets station house for slaying.

Lung Fat and Hip Hong were there, strong, but which was Fat and which was Hong still has Magistrate Greelis and the patrolmen guessing.

"For they look as much alike as any two persons can. To be sure, one is sporting a blackened right eye now and a blackened left eye, but that didn't help the 'judge' in establishing their identities."

"I guess I'll have to hold you for a further hearing," he said at last, half in despair.

"No further hearing, Mr. Judge," old Joe, a Chinatown character, spoke up. "They're all the same as Mollie's man."

"Oh, all right, then," the magistrate replied. "I pass them on to higher authority; they're past me. Six hundred dollars bail each for court."

CHARGE DOCTOR SLEW GIRL

Child Companion of Physician Held. Queer Love Tangle Revealed

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 29.—(By A. P.)—Dr. Christopher G. Schott, forty-two, Louisville physician, was in jail here early today awaiting completion or arguments on his motion for bail on the charge of murder, and Laurene Gardner, a girl of thirteen, on whose testimony he relies to bear out his declaration that he is innocent, was in the Detention Home on a charge of delinquency.

These developments have come to the front since December 24, when Elizabeth Ford Griffith, Doctor Schott's sixteen-year-old assistant, was found dead on the floor of the physician's office with a bullet through her heart, and his automatic pistol by her side.

The physician admitted that he had been engaged to marry Miss Griffith, but that the engagement had been broken. Doctor Schott, on the witness stand, said he approved of her proposed marriage to Captain George K. Gordon, stationed at Camp Zachary Taylor. He asserted his belief that she would live with the soldier but a comparatively short time, after which, he said, she would be willing to return to him and eventually make him a good wife.

The examination by the coroner established that Miss Griffith had been killed between 1 and 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Questioned by the police, Doctor Schott declared he had been delivering Christmas presents between those hours. The little Gardner girl stoutly maintained to the authorities that she was in his company.

Doctor Schott asserts the belief that Miss Griffith committed suicide.

MRS. L. C. BROOKS TO SEEK DIVORCE

Mrs. Stotesbury's Daughter Is Home—Will Begin Suit in France

SHE ARRIVED ON ADRIATIC

Mrs. Louise Cromwell Brooks, who arrived from France on the steamship Adriatic yesterday, is at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. T. Stotesbury, preparing for a trip to Palm Beach.

Her arrival caused rumors that she had decided to drop her plans to sue Captain Walter B. Brooks for divorce, but these reports were denied. Her suit, it was said, will be filed in Paris in a short time.

Mrs. Brooks had intended to be with her mother and her two children on Christmas Day, but the Adriatic did not arrive on this side in time, and Mrs. Brooks came to Philadelphia last night, going to the Stotesbury home.

Mrs. Stotesbury is quoted as saying that Mrs. Brooks would carry out her intention of obtaining a divorce in France from Captain Brooks. The first step toward this end was taken when Mrs. Brooks sailed for France early last summer on the Mauretania, accompanied by her brother, Lieutenant James H. R. Cromwell. The French laws require a five months' residence in that country before suit can be brought.

Mrs. Brooks reached Paris in June, and when she returned to this country had completed the necessary five months in France. The way is now clear, it is said, for her suit, which will be on the grounds of desertion.

Captain Brooks, who served with distinction in the army during the war, returned from Europe last August and is making his home in Baltimore.

When Captain Brooks went abroad to serve in the army Mrs. Brooks went to live with her mother.

WESTERN UNION GIVES RISE

Telegraph Employees Granted Increase of 10 to 15 Per Cent

Between 800 and 1000 employees of the Western Union Telegraph Co. in Philadelphia will share in the salary increase announced by the company effective January 1. Employees earning less than $250 a month are affected.

At least 700 employees in this city will receive a 15 per cent increase and the remainder will receive 10 per cent. These figures were given by T. B. Kingsbury, city superintendent, today.

Employees who have been in the service more than a year will receive the 15 per cent increase and those in the service less than six months and less than one year will receive 10. The total amount of the increase for all the employees of the company is $5,000,000. Owing to the variance in the salaries of the employees here, Mr. Kingsbury said he could not give, off hand, what proportion of this sum would come to Philadelphia.
