work properly, and at such times, if you haven't an auxiliary heater of some sort, your usually genial disposition shows a tendency to work backward. The Welsbach Thrift Gas Heater is a device which is most useful in such a contingency. It lights instantly and is odorless and noiseless. There is no waste, for it consumes the gas entirely, burning the carbon instead of releasing it in the form of soot. It is portable and resembles in design a grate with colonial andirons. It is a fine thing to have in your bedroom on cold mornings before the furnace is quite up to its usual speed. Ask to see it at the store of J. Franklin Miller, 1612 Chestnut street.

PERHAPS you feel that you want to spend your Christmas money on something that is not an absolute necessity—something that is just a bit of a luxury, and for a long time you have been wanting a diamond solitaire. At the stores of I. Press & Sons, Chestnut and Eighth streets, 1017 Market street and 909 Market street, you will find diamond solitaires in a variety of settings and now that the Christmas rush is over is a most excellent time to buy your ring. You may have it set in platinum or in gold, and there are any number of mountings from which to choose. The filigree settings are most interesting. The pierced platinum mountings, with the diamond set deep in filigree work, are particularly effective and are much in favor at the present time. THE CHESTNUT STREET ASSOCIATION
