

"Blue Bird" Guests: Gymnasium Drill: Shattered Prussian Eagle: Jura Ski Race: Slav Dancer

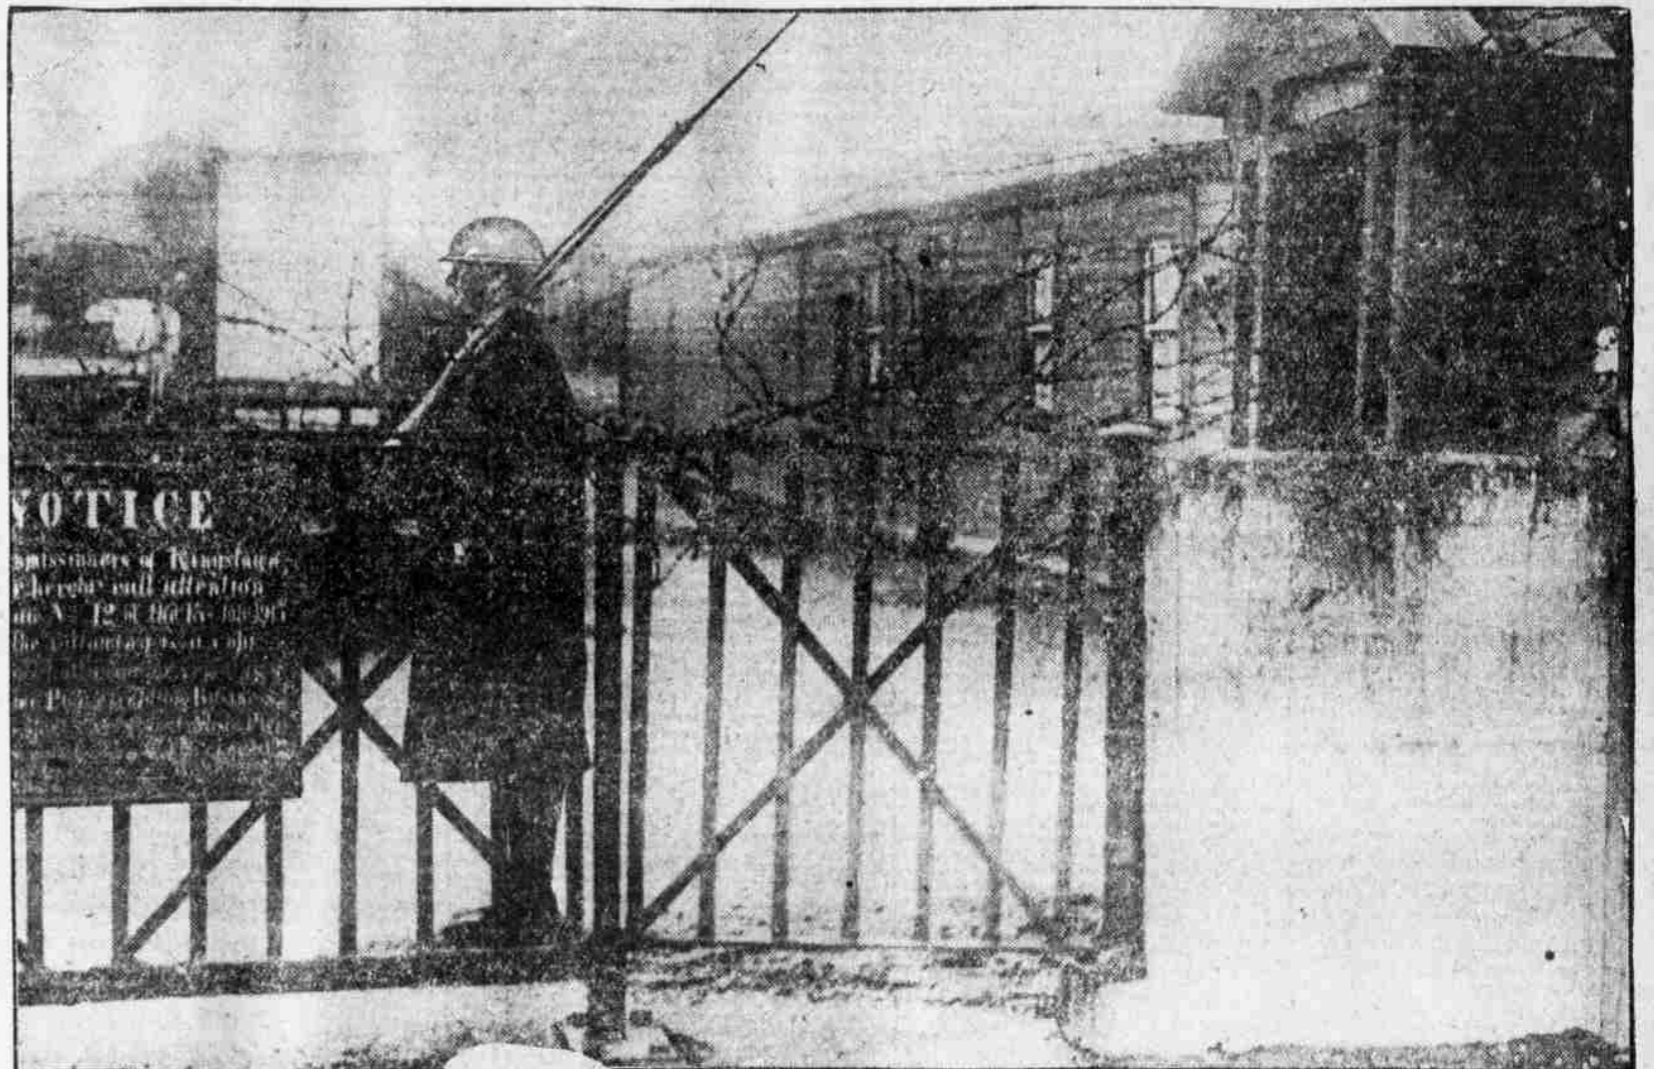

MRS. WILLIAM K. VANDERBILT, JR. (at left) and her guests of honor, Monsieur and Madame Maurice Maeterlinck, at the recent Belgium war and relief funds ball in New York, first of a series of entertainments in the Blue Bird Campaign for Happiness.

LOCAL PUPILS giving an exhibition of calisthenics in the gymnasium of the William Penn High School for Girls in a dance and drill review for the physical education section of the Pennsylvania State Educational Association in convention here.

AN IMPERIAL German eagle modeled of iron, which came crashing down with other useless ornaments when the Germans blew up the great fort of Kuestrin, Prussia, in compliance with the armistice terms.

ONE OF the small police stations in County Clare, Ireland, closed because of Sinn Fein attacks. The district is now patrolled by the military. Barbed-wire entanglements surround the jail.

JUVENILE SKIERS ready for the start of the big event at the winter carnival at St. Croix, France, in the Jura mountains on the Swiss border. To be one of the contestants, even, in this race is held to be a great honor among the youthful population.

A DANCING marvel from Russia. Sonia, a ten-year-old dancer, in one of her characteristic poses.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS FRANCES FEINBERG, 254 South Fifty-fifth street. Photographs for this back-page feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, Evening Public Ledger, Philadelphia.