YOU remember the stories about Louise, the little ward of a dear lady whom you know and I know? Well. said lady has taken Louise to Europe to be educated. Among other things she is particularly anxious that she cultivate a taste for music, and so she took her to one of the concerts of chamber music. Writing of it to a friend here, she says: "The French, it seems to me, select and interpret music which has a singing quality, they play with almost a cloying sweetness." When I asked Louise what she liked best at the concert, she replied, enthusiastically, "The clapping."

Test the Keeping Qualities of Victor Bread TOMORROW is New Year's Day, and our stores will be closed the entire day, for the festival.

Buy enough Victor today—as hundreds of thousands of our customers will doto last over breakfast on Friday morning, and prove to your own satisfaction our oft repeated contention that Victor baked today is just as good tomorrow, as the hour it came out of the oven. Some of our customers of dietetic habits claim it is better!

Whether viewed from the standpoint of quality or economy there is no loaf that compares with Victor. Victor is produced in our own three big bakeries, with a weekly capacity of more than two million loaves.

Surrounded, as our bakeries are, with every sanitary provision, backed up by scientific skill, Victor reaches your table as the maximum of quality.
