

URGE FOUR WOMEN ON SCHOOL BOARD

Appointment by Common Pleas Judges Is Asked by Civic Club

CANDIDATES PUT FORWARD

Four women have been urged for membership in the Board of Education by the Civic Club in a letter sent to the judges of the Court of Common Pleas.

The candidates put forward by the club are Miss Marion Kelly, 2015 De Lanoy street; Mrs. William E. Lingg, 4304 Osage avenue; Mrs. I. O'Hara, 4109 Locust street; and Mrs. A. P. Richardson, 3810 Walnut street.

For some time the Civic Club has been urging that women be entitled to serve on the Board of Education. There never has been a woman member of the board in Philadelphia.

The letter addressed to the judges was written December 20 and made public today by Miss Elizabeth B. Kirbridge, chairman of the committee on school visitors of the club. It follows:

"The Civic Club begs the privilege of again reiterating to the board of judges its hope that when the next vacancy occurs women will be appointed to the Board of Education. This request is based upon the conviction that all boards dealing with the education and welfare of children should be composed of both men and women. In the school, no less than in the home, the woman's as well as the man's point of view should be represented."

In the letter the qualifications of the four women candidates are set forth. Miss Kelly was dean of Bryn Mawr College from 1907 to 1910. She is a bachelor of arts of the class of 1901 at Bryn Mawr, was a graduate student during various periods at Bryn Mawr, Sevenham College, University of Cambridge and in Italy on leave of absence.

Mrs. Richardson graduated from Pennsylvania Seminary in 1880 and Lawrenceville Seminary in 1881.

MUMMER'S WIFE DIES

Hugh Murray Returns From Parade to Find Her Ill

When Hugh Murray, who led the Hugh Murray Association in the New Year's Day parade, returned to his home yesterday afternoon, after the march in Broad street, he found that his wife had become suddenly ill during his absence. Her condition was so serious that she was taken to the Methodist Hospital, where she died a few hours later.

Mrs. Murray said that she had a headache when her husband dressed yesterday for the parade. For this reason she did not go to see the mummers march. Her husband thought it was only a slight indisposition.

On his return to the house Mrs. Murray was almost unconscious. Physicians at the Methodist Hospital said that death was due to cerebral hemorrhage.

MRS. LONG MISSIONARY

Widow of Mission Founder Will Emulate Husband's Work

Mrs. Edna Long, widow of George Long, evangelist and superintendent of the Inasmuch Mission, intends to take up work similar to that done by her husband. Bishop Rhinelandt expects to find a place for Mrs. Long with the Protestant Episcopal City Mission.

Mrs. Long will preach to groups of women before entering a wider field.

Another Dollar for 'Frankie's' Shoes

Mrs. "E. B. M." one of Santa Claus's agents in Merchantsville, N. J., has sent $1 to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER to help buy a pair of shoes for "Frankie." This seven-year-old boy, a victim of tuberculosis, asked for a pair of shoes for Christmas so he could attend the weekly clinic for children at Phipps Institute.
