Man Who Killed Employee Accused of Murder and Manslaughter

Reading, Pa., Jan. 9.—A. C. Macey was arrested today on charges of murder and manslaughter in connection with the death last Tuesday of Timothy Horgan...

The arrest was ordered by District Attorney Mays, after an inquest last evening which held Macey responsible for Horgan's death...

BOAT CARRIED STOLEN RUM

Thieves Who Robbed Distillery Worked From Creek

Lancaster, Pa., Jan. 9.—Federal secret service operatives are in this county today aiding police and local constables to track thieves who late Wednesday night stole $6000 worth of whisky from the distillery and bonded warehouse of John Hortiz Co. at Nittany...

Investigation shows that the thieves apparently worked from a boat on the creek that flows past the distillery and cut a large hole through the brick wall. It is believed that they then moved all the whisky along the stream on the craft.

HONOR HARRISBURG MAYOR

State Magistrate's Association Elects Hovertes President

Lancaster, Pa., Jan. 9.—Mayor George A. Hovertes, of Harrisburg, was elected late last night as president of the State Magistrate's Association at a session postponed because of the late arrival of Mayor Harry Trout, of Lancaster.

Other officers are Alexander Ricketts, Wilkes-Barre, vice president; all; Brown Miller, Clearfield, secretary; and A. K. Spurrer, Lancaster, treasurer.

Wants N. J. Militia Disbanded Trenton, N. J., Jan. 9.—(By A. P.)—Disbandment of the state militia, on the ground that the emergency for which it was organized in 1917 after the National Guard had been mastered into the federal service no longer existed and because the enlistment period had expired, was urged in a statement issued today by Adjutant General Gilkison.

McKenty Cleared of Prison Charges reform league of New York and the Oriental Esoteric League of Washington, D. C., one of the purposes of which was to solicit correspondence with convicts in prison.

"We regard the whole movement," says another part of the report, "as a bold attempt on the part of a small group of the most fanatical criminals in the institution, aided by an intelligent and clever woman on the outside of the prison, and one or more officials who had the right to get and visit whomsoever they chose on the inside and who were hunting up convicts to testify and in some cases telling them what to say."

Their evidence report was to show such alleged abuses, conditions and irregularities as would drive from office Warden McKenty and Prison Inspectors Carter, Hanft, Laferly and Horstman.

In disposing of Dunlap's charges the report alleges that reports of the minutes of the board of prison inspectors show that Dunlap arranged to make the transactions at the penitentiary to form the basis for his charges.

"The personnel of the combination assaulting the management of this prison (or aiding in the assault upon it)" another part of the report says, "consists of Mrs. Howe, Mr. Dunlap and a group of convicts, the exact number of which is not known, but who have as their spokesman about half a dozen of the most restless, dangerous and dissatisfied criminals, any prison contains."

charges that she was brought to Philadelphia from New York by Mr. Dunlap, and further alleges that she, on occasion, goes by other names.

The strongest indictment against the prison is contained in one paragraph of the report, as follows: "When the fact is borne in mind that 1025 prisoners are cared for in this institution, which has only 830 cells, it is evident there is overcrowding to such extent that there must be discomfort, and not sufficient room left for employment in their cells."

The report cites that convicts, physicians, prison officials, clergymen and all others having any connection with the institution were called upon to testify. Testimony of the convicts asking charges against the institution are alleged to have been "contradictory."

Charges of poor food, misappropriation of articles from the prison and charges of cruelty against the prisoners, the report claims, were disproved by the investigation.

Treatment Kind "We examined carefully into all the allegations of cruel treatment," the report says, "not one of them was substantiated. On the other hand, the bulk of the evidence was overwhelming to the effect that the treatment, instead of being cruel, was the most kind and humane."

On the charges of dope and food being smuggled into the prison, the report says: "Making due allowance for the exaggerated statements of some of the witnesses of the extent to which this is carried on and the fact that it can be done because as that this part of the management needs closer and more effective supervision."

On behalf of the prison management, the report says that they charged Dunlap was because of his dispute with other members of the board of prison inspectors over an automobile transaction the promoter of the movement to discredit the management of the prison.

Another part of the report says: "A number of prominent persons of the city of Philadelphia, who had been visitors in professional and other capacities, came before us. Among them, Father O'Shea, Catholic clergyman; Doctor Oll, a Lutheran clergyman; the Rev. Mr. Bamford, a Presbyterian clergyman; the Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins, an Episcopalian, and Rabbi Medoff, a Hebrew. Also Albert H. Votaw, secretary of the Pennsylvania Prison Society; Samuel D. Worthington, former assistant grand jury, 1919; George Wharton Pepper, attorney-at-law; Vincent A. Carroll, attorney-at-law; Mrs. George Taylor Smith, representing the Board of Public Charities was King's Daughters; Dr. Charles D. Hart, Fred Pooley, prison agent, Pennsylvania Prison Society; Mr. Boyle, president Catholic Society for Visiting Prisoners; Dr. J. H. Egan, Philadelphia police surgeon, and others.

"They said they had been visitors in one capacity or another at the penitentiary and had various opportunities of observing conditions and management. All spoke of Warden McKenty's fitness for the position which he holds in the highest manner, and especially his humanity and kindness."

"Klondyke" Is Described "Just what the 'Klondyke' is was described in the report. This 'Klondyke' it is made clear, is nothing more or less than an ordinary heated cell, cleared of furniture and supplied with two blankets. The prisoner, when reported for a misdemeanor to the warden, or deputy warden, is heard, and if found guilty the offense charged, is sent to 'Klondyke' for a period seldom exceeding three days. This 'Klondyke' is, according to the report, "the only punishment inflicted in this prison on convicts for violation of rules or misconduct."

The case of Addison Callahan is explained in full. This case caused the charge of "smuggling and improper treatment of a prisoner" to be made.

According to the report, a young man afflicted with tuberculosis interested friends, who engaged an attorney and started a movement to have him paroled. "Active and strenuous efforts were made to interest the warden and the physician in charge to take an active interest in this matter. Whether they thought that procuring a pardon was not part of their duty, or the case was one in which a meritorious one does not appear."

"At any rate, it is said that Callahan found out that he was increasing in weight and fearing that this would have an unfavorable influence on the board of pardons, he ceased eating the ordinary food and began to eat soap for the purpose of reducing his weight. He died before his case got to the pardon board."

"WHITEWASH," SAYS DUNLAP OF REPORT Dismissed Inspector Firm in Charges Made Against Prison Officials

The report of the special committee of the Board of Public Charities was characterized as a whitewash today by William A. Dunlap, removal of Mr. Dunlap from the Board of Prison Inspectors has been ordered by Governor Sprout.

On hearing the report at his home, Nineteenth street and Fairmount avenue, this morning, Mr. Dunlap said: "I am not surprised in the least by the report. It is just as I expected. It's a very neat whitewash. The committee knew what kind of a report was desired and obtained results accordingly."

"My stand on the matter is just the same. I live too close to the penitentiary to be fooled by these cut-and-dried reports. "The statement that I originally approved of many things which I later complained about is not true. I frequently objected to action taken at the board meetings, but my objections were not recorded in the minutes. "As an illustration of this I can cite an instance at yesterday's meeting. E. J. Laferly placed a motion before the board during the time I have been here. On the other hand, he has told me he considered the institution among the best of its kind in the country. "I know this thing had to come, and am glad it did turn out as it has. So Doctor Hart is coming back as an inspector. He is a splendid man. He was on the board for fourteen years, and always took a great interest—the greatest interest—in the work. "Our men outside on parole are doing well and I owe them a word of praise at this time. "Time and again during the investigation they wanted to testify, and efforts were made to induce me to let them tell their stories. But I would not expose them. Some of these men, regarded as beyond redemption when they left here, have done so well out-side that I felt it would be criminal to expose their former standing. "I would have given up my office rather than have these men's past revealed, after they had redeemed themselves. "I never touched a man under my charge since I have been here. I stand

"But the report speaks for itself, and I don't think it necessary to say anything further."

On my record since the days when I was a detective. I always played 'square' in my dealings with the public and the newspapers, as any one who recalls my old association in the Detective Bureau with 'Jim' Donaghy can recall. "But the report speaks for itself, and I don't think it necessary to say anything further."
