"A Democratic President was the spokesman of the United States in holding out to a war-worn world the hope of universal peace, and he brought back from Paris the covenant of a league of nations that provides means for settling international disputes without a resort to force. He did the hest he could, and succeeded hetter than we had any right to expect, when we remember that he fought single-handed against the selfish interests of the world.

"The Republican party in control of the Senate, instead of ratifying at once or promptly proposing changes that it deemed necessary, has fiddled while civilization has been threatened with conflagration. It could have adopted its reservations as well five months age as inter, but it permitted endless debate while suffering humanity waited.

"The Democratic senators stood with the President for ratification without reservation, and I stood with them, believing that it was better to secure within the league, after it was established any pressary changes, than to

BRYAN: COMPROMISE FAVORED Washington, Jan. 9. — William J.
Bryan spoke at the Jackson Day banquet last night as follows:

"Seldom has such an opportunity for great service come to any party as now presents itself to our party. But opportunity brings responsibility. Much is required of those to whom much is given. A soldier is a soldier until his day of opportunity comes—after that he is either a hero or a coward. So with the party, opportunities improved become stepping stones to success; opportunities neglected, are millstones about the party's neck.

"The opportunities now offered are
