

NURSE IS ATTACKED BY MAN IN HOSPITAL

Negro, in Sailor's Uniform, Knocks Woman Unconscious With Rock During Struggle

5 HELD FOR IDENTIFICATION

A man in sailor's uniform struck down a nurse in the receiving room of the Polyclinic Hospital early this morning with a jagged rock, but was frightened away a moment after by a patient from an adjoining room. The man is a negro.

Five negro sailors are now being held without bail until the nurse, Miss Ruth Cooley, recovers consciousness, that she may look them over in an effort to identify the man who hit her. She is at the hospital.

Miss Cooley is twenty-four years old, and came to the hospital from up state. She was on night duty in the receiving room, which is in the rear of the hospital, on Naudain street.

About 2 o'clock this morning the man entered, and, according to a woman patient lying on a bed in an adjoining room, awaiting removal to the ward, he asked whether a certain patient had been received at the hospital. The nurse said she did not know.

"Look at your book and see," the man said.

As Miss Cooley bent over the book the woman patient heard her say, "Get away from here." There was a scuffle, a thud and as the patient entered the room screaming, the negro fled. Miss Cooley lay in a pool of blood on the floor. Beside her was a large piece of the rock the negro used.

The top of Miss Cooley's head and the right side of her face had been split open. She is in a serious condition.

Lieutenant Duffy, Twelfth and Pine streets station, sent out Patrolmen Kelly, Moorefield and Barry to round up all negro sailors in sight and they soon brought in five. According to the patient, the negro who hit Miss Cooley is about twenty-four years old and a mulatto.

The five sailors were given a hearing before Magistrate O'Brien in the Twelfth and Pine streets station and held without bail for a further hearing January 12.

SKIDDING AUTO KILLS MAN

Elderly Victim Struck While Crossing Street

A skidding automobile in the sixty and fog last evening was responsible for the death of Isaac Berryman, sixty-eight years old, 2445 Cedar street, who was struck as he was crossing Susquehanna avenue near Frankford avenue.

The car was driven by Ray Hazen, forty-two years old, 1635 Race street. Hazen heard the elderly man's scream, stopped his car and carried Berryman to St. Mary's Hospital, where he died a few hours later. He had a fractured skull and internal injuries. Hazen was arrested.

Fireman's Ankle Fractured

Thomas Lowery, 2834 North Park avenue, a fireman attached to the hook and ladder of Engine Company No. 50, was injured during a slight blaze this morning at the spice mill of A. Colburn & Co., 228 North Tenth street. Lowery's ankle was fractured when it was caught between the truck and a telegraph pole. He was taken to the Woman's Homeopathic Hospital.

MARTYRS TO THEIR DUTY

Two Patrolmen Sampled Seized Liquor—Now Before Trial Board

James Hughes and Richard King, members of the force of the Thirty-sixth district, detailed to guard two truckloads of liquor seized yesterday in a garage at Ontario street and York road, made sure of that fact.

It was a courageous thing to do. It's courageous enough, these days to drink anything that hasn't been analyzed. But these men unselfishly followed the promptings of duty, or something, and tried out the suspected liquor.

In other words, the police were investigating the case. The daring fellows naturally felt some effects of their devotion to duty, or something. They were charged with being intoxicated while on duty. This lack of appreciation of all they had done was shown by Lieutenant Bloomer, of the Branchtown police station, through whose interest in the matter they were taken before Superintendent of Police Robinson and ordered to appear before the police trial board today.

KEEPER BROUGHT ASHORE

Lighthouse Man, Found in Drifting Boat, Is Recovering

Joseph Holland, the lighthouse keeper, who was picked up in the Delaware bay, New Year night, after being adrift for three days in an open boat without food or water, has been brought ashore on the pilot boat Edmonds and is recovering in his home at the Delaware Breakwater.

He is still prostrated from the experience, but is gradually recovering the use of his frozen limbs. As yet he has not been able to take any sort of solid food.

He started ashore from the Miah Maull Lighthouse, of which he is

Resinol heals sick skins

"I can't have any fun! I am such a sight with this trouble that people avoid me wherever I go. And the itching torments me so that I don't get any peace, any how."

Don't be discouraged! Even in severe, well-established cases of skin troubles, Resinol Ointment, aided by Resinol Soap, usually relieves the itching at once and quickly clears the trouble away.

Doctors prescribe the Resinol treatment. All druggists sell Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap.

keeper, on the morning of December 30, for the twenty-five-mile run across the bay in a motorboat. Within eight miles of shore the motor of the boat became disabled and the boat jammed in the ice.

On the night of January 1 he was picked up unconscious by the Italian steamship Favornes.
