

SERVICE MEN TO AID SCHOLARSHIP DRIVE

Legion Will Co-operate in Distribution of $40,000 Fund Offered by Y. M. C. A.

FORMS ARE BEING PREPARED

Service men throughout the city will take advantage of the offer of the Y. M. C. A. to distribute, in co-operation with the American Legion, $40,000 worth of scholarships. This fact is indicated by reports received at the Y. M. C. A., the Legion headquarters, and by Franklin Spencer Edmonds, chairman of the committee which will pass on the qualifications of the applicants.

The forms are now being prepared and will be forwarded to the secretaries of the Y. M. C. A. at the West Philadelphia and Central branches, and to the commanders of the American Legion in Philadelphia.

There remains some doubt as to whom the French memorial certificates will be distributed on February 22. Whether to the families of all the soldiers dead in Philadelphia or only the families of those men who were killed or died in France will receive the memorial is the question. State Adjutant William G. Murdock is endeavoring to obtain information on this point.

The War Department has failed to provide the lists of the families of soldiers dead in this city and the names and addresses of the next of kin.

Miss Patricia F. Crosby, chairman of the entertainment committee of the county committee of the Legion, announced yesterday that she will be at the county headquarters, 1011 Chestnut street, Room 320, at stated times for the purpose of transacting the work of the committee. She is arranging for talent which will be available for Legion functions, and desires any persons to address her at the above address with respect to any available entertainers.

The war-risk insurance campaign of the welfare and ex-service men's organizations is progressing throughout the city. Vincent A. Carro, chairman, is anxious that all comrades in the Legion bring the meetings to the attention of the comrades and all other former service men so that as many as possible may be benefited by the meetings.

Post No. 150 has removed its headquarters to the Engineers' Club, 1317 Spruce street. This post, which is headed by J. H. M. Andrews, has a membership composed largely of engineers, and proposes materially to increase this membership. It is planning a dance January 30 in Scottish Rite Hall, Broad and Race streets, arrangements being in charge of William G. Harvey.

The state of Pennsylvania aims to entrap any state in the matter of Legion membership in 1920. Massachusetts is making a drive for 100,000, and the state headquarters has urged a membership of 200,000 in the Keystone state. There are approximately 240,000 available legionaries in Pennsylvania.

An interesting program has been prepared for the meeting of Tioga Post, No. 319, of the American Legion, at the Newtown Boys' Club, Eighteenth street and Hunting Park avenue, tonight. Several interesting and forceful speakers will talk. Plans for the big post hall also will be discussed.

URGE PARK IMPROVEMENT

Resolution Calls for Wall to Protect Motorists on Drive

Among the resolutions introduced at a meeting of the Fairmount Park commissioners yesterday were those urging the building of a stone wall along the Wissahickon Drive for protection of motorists; removal of the guardhouse in the Germantown-Wissahickon district from its present location in Wissahickon Hall to the Providence General Hospital and the construction of a strip of macadam road in the center of the East River Drive. The proposition for the removal of the guardhouse was referred to the committee on superintendence and police and the other two were referred to the committee on plans and improvements.

Chief Engineer Corson in his report stated that while a number of trees in the park have had to be cut down because of decay, the number of trees planted had outnumbered those cut down, six to one.

PARENTS MAY DROP FIGHT

Doctor Keelor to See Wife Who Took Child to Germantown

Appeal to the courts for the recovery of his fourteen-year-old daughter may not be made by Dr. Allen Keelor, of Gratersford, Pa., it was said today, because his wife, from whom he is separated, has agreed to let him see the girl.

Mrs. Keelor is accused of having kidnapped the daughter, Margaret, last month from a school at Line Lexington, with the assistance of an older daughter, Florence, seventeen years old.

Margaret is now at the home of her mother at 247 Queen lane, Germantown, and has written to her father inviting him to call at the Queen lane house and "talk things over" today.

This he will do. His future action will depend upon the outcome of this visit.

FIRES DO SMALL DAMAGE

Flames Attack Vacant Store and Market in South Philadelphia

Two small fires around midnight last night caused much excitement among South Philadelphia residents. Damage was negligible in both cases.

Fire of undetermined origin was discovered at 11:30 p. m. yesterday in the first floor of a building at Line Lexington street, owned by M. Frank, but at present unoccupied. The engine company from Fourth street and Snyder avenue easily put the blaze under control.

At 1:30 a. m. a paper in the Accommodation Meat Market, northwest corner of Eighteenth and Ritten streets, caught fire. The flames were extinguished before the store was badly damaged.

SELF-DISCIPLINE IS PLAN OF FRESHMEN

Dormitory Board Will "Court-Martial" All Novices Who Violate Rules and Regulations

"KICKING OUT" A PENALTY

Penn freshmen, 3000 strong, are going to "court-martial" and punish their own members when they "jump over the traces." Determined that his classmates shall govern themselves, B. McGivern, president of the class of 1923, has succeeded in establishing a new system of control for first-year matriculates. He was elected last night president of the board of freshmen dormitory representatives.

For the first time in the history of the University of Pennsylvania, freshmen have been segregated in the dormitories. Each dormitory house has elected a representative, and under the new organization perfected, McGivern will be president.

Any uncontrollable freshman who cannot keep his respect for law and order and who musses up things or disturbs the peace and the dignity of his classmates or his superior university brothers is due for a trial by his inkepot brothers. McGivern and the jury of freshmen who will try the cases are determined that justice shall be meted out.

Being "kicked out" of the dormitories will be one sentence; suspension for a stated period of time or other punishment is to be handed down from the bench of the presiding fresh jurist.

True Pennsylvania men will wear the little inkepot caps and their azure blue ties," says McGivern. "The traditions of this great school are splendid ones and real men will preserve them. Our class will strive to be the best ever at Pennsylvania and our spirit and organization can be better developed and kept intact by a strict abidance to these simple and just regulations. We want to avoid an apparent domination by upperclassmen, to make our men carry out these freshmen regulations and traditional customs by doing them of our own accord with a free will and pride."

P. R. R. OFFICIALS RESIGN

The resignations of J. Tuney Wilcox, assistant secretary of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., and Horace C. Booz, corporate engineer, were announced yesterday following a meeting of the board of directors. Both officials served in France during the war.

Mr. Wilcox was commissioned captain in the embarkation service and later went to France as secretary of the Interallied Transportation Council. Mr. Booz went to France as engineer of construction, with the rank of colonel. He served on the staff of General W. W. Atterbury. Both men were furloughed by the railroad during their war service.

STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER

NEWS for FRIDAY and SATURDAY

Comprehensive Stocks of Men's SUITS and OVERCOATS

PLEASE keep this important fact in mind; throughout the season this is the one Store that has been able to say—and to back up the statement—we have the goods. It is true to-day, as it was in November. Of course, our stock of Clothing is not so large now—as we have sold thousands of both Suits and Overcoats. But we have thousands remaining—a great, well-assorted, all-inclusive collection, a much larger stock than ever before in January; bought months ago, bought deliberately, bought when many dealers hesitated.

Hundreds at Reduced Prices

In these special groups are included our standard makes of Clothing from the STEIN-BLOCH CO., HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX and the makers of "ALCO" CLOTHES, as well as the thoroughly reliable grades from other manufacturers from whom we buy constantly.

All the following lots are marked at less than our own regular prices:

Stein-Bloch, Hart, Schaffner & Marx and Other Fine Makes of Suits and Overcoats $46.50

THE SUITS are of dark Oxford and light-patterned tweeds, and smooth-woven cassimeres, and are in smart styles for men and young men. THE OVERCOATS include Ulsters, Ulsterettes and conservative styles.

A Collection of Stein-Bloch and Other Dependable Makes of Men's Winter Suits and Overcoats $36.50

Fine fabrics, smart styles and every Suit—Stein-Bloch or otherwise—possessing these characteristics of design and finish that unmistakably indicate workmanship of the highest order.

A Particularly Fine Collection of "Alco" and Other Good Makes of Suits and Overcoats $34.50

About 600 Suits and 400 Overcoats, in the season's smartest styles and fabrics, for young men and men of conservative taste in the matter of dress.

More Than 1000 Suits and Overcoats—Now $23.00, $26.50 and $31.50

About 800 Overcoats and 700 Suits in all, including a variety of smart, thoroughly-correct styles and patterns for men and young men. We cannot buy these garments to-day at the "Sale" prices.

Evening Dress and Tuxedo Suits—$36.50

This is indeed a remarkably low price for evening clothes of such high character—and surely one that cannot be duplicated for a long time to come.

Fur-lined Overcoats, $67.50, $95, $122 to $275

Shells of fine fabrics, carefully tailored—with collars and lining of rich, heavy furs.

Fur-collar Overcoats—$37.50 to $95.00

Youthful styles—that will prove equally acceptable to men of conservative tastes. Smart fabrics enhanced by luxurious fur collars.

Leather Overcoats—$17.50, $33.50, $46.50

Smart belted Coats, of genuine leather—chiefly reversible styles with lining of excellent fabric.

—→ Strawbridge & Clothier—Second Floor, East

The result has been as we planned. Bold though careful investment of thousands of dollars has kept our assortments complete, given assurance to every customer that we have just what he wants when he wants it—and at a price less than current market value.

The man who desires the finest kind of American or English Overcoat, or the best and smartest kind of Suit, will find it here, and almost invariably at a lower price than the same grade would cost anywhere else. For example, see these Montagnac Overcoats at $87.50; our fine Hockanum Overcoats at $58.50; beautifully tailored Oxford Overcoats, full silk-lined, at $60.00; the Hockanum Silk - mixture Suits at $70.00; Blue Unfinished Worsted Suits at $55.00; Winter Serge Suits, extra weight, at $45.00.

The above suggestions are for men who insist upon the finest, who should know that they may depend upon this Store at ALL TIMES—in other words, that we have the goods.

SAVINGS To-morrow
About 5000 Shirts of madras, percale, crepe and other fine fabrics—discontinued and incomplete lines from stock—reduced to $2.00 to-morrow.
Strawbridge & Clothier—East Store, Eighth Street
