"Captain D'Annunzio has violated "Captain D'Annunzio has violated every principle of free government." says Signor Zanelles, who was formerly mayor of the eity. He has lodged his legions on our people, has troubled the city for months and has commandered property under threats of violepee. The people are sick of his regime. There is little food and much disease and suffer-ing, while our financial situation is ap-palling. Ninety per cent of the citizens are calling for D'Annunzio and his uen to leave. "Efforting for his life, D'Annunzio

'Fearing for his life, D'Annunzio "Fearing for his life, D Annunzio does not sleep in the same place two nights in succession and is at all times guarded by Arditi. I do not believe he will be able to remain in Flume lotger than a month. One brigade of soldiers would be sufficient to expel him and his troops. He has lost Flume and has embarrassel Italy, which will be called upon for damages amounting into the millions."

We must retain our Italian character and civilization, which are threatened. The Jugo-Slavs have other ports such as Spalato, which are more important to them than Finme, and they could give way in the negotiations now going on. Finme is not a commercial prop-osition: it is a question of the reten-tion of our Italian civilization."

Rome, Jan. 23.—Premier Nitti was received by King Victor Emmanuel today following the former's return from Paris and later the premier presided at a meeting of the council of ministers. Italy may overcome the handleng placed upon her by the wreek of her rolonial aspirations in the Peace Conference by co-operating with Latin countries, says Marquis Solari, in an article published in the Messagero. "We must frankly recognize that the Italian colonial program has entirely failed as a result of the Peace Confer-euce," he declares. "This is an injus-tice which Italy may correct with a broad program of economic expansion observed in close upion with the Locie

SING 'DIE WACHT AM RHEIN'

German Sailors Show They Are Not Depressed by Defeat

London, Jan. 23.-(By A. P.)-Members of the crew of the Germar warship Koenigsberg, when drawn up for inspection by a beard of inter-allied commissioners at Wilhelmshaven, allied commissioners at Wilhelmshaven, spontaneousy sang "Deutschand, Deutschland Uber Alles," and "Die Wacht Am Rhein," according to Reu-ter's correspondent with the interallied officials. It is said that this demon-stration was mercly to show that the Germans were not depressed, as naval discipline was apparently good on the ship and in the harbor. The commissioners, who have been making theis trip on heard the battle-ship Malaya, were informed when starting for Kiel that the ship's draught was too great for the canal, the dredging of which has been delayed because of the coal shortage.
