

LEGION PLANS BODY ON SOCIAL AFFAIRS

Every Post Asked to Send Representatives to Meeting of General Committee

WOULD USE OWN TALENT

Each post of the American Legion will be requested to name an entertainment officer, according to a statement today by Patricia F. Crosby, chairman of the entertainment committee.

These representatives will be called together in the Chamber of Commerce assembly room Thursday evening, February 5, to consider the most acceptable method of providing entertainment.

Before this meeting the entertainment committee will prepare a plan for submission to the entertainment officers.

It is Miss Crosby's idea that the talent in the Legion should be utilized wherever possible. There were many men in the American Legion's expeditionary forces who provided entertainment and who are now members of the American Legion.

Lawrence E. Delany Post, No. 26, is staging what it calls a "bottle royal" in the Labor Lyceum Hall, Sixth and Brown streets, Friday evening, January 30, under direction of Robert H. Calhoun. The bill includes the following: Bobby McLeon, Scotland, vs. Johnny Butcher, A. E. F.; Joe Jackson, Southwark, vs. Sol O'Donnell, Fairmount; K. D. Samsom, A. E. F., vs. Johnny McAvoy, Seventeenth ward; Hughie Hutchinson, Philadelphia, vs. Eddie Morgan, England; Joe Dorsey, Fairmount, vs. Billy Hines, Little Italy; and Eddie Revore, A. E. F., vs. Tyrone Costello, North Penn.

Post 310, meeting in the Engineers' Club, numbers approximately 300 and is growing. Its officers are: Commander, William A. Gray; vice commander, John F. Blankley; finance officer, D. W. Bainbridge, and adjutant, Luigi Giannino.

"The American Legion: What It Is and What It Intends to Do," will be the subject of an address before the Engineers' Club, Tuesday, February 10, by George Wentworth Carr, chairman of the Philadelphia county committee. Inasmuch as the club is being utilized as a meeting place of a large number of veterans in Post No. 310, the subject will be one of more than usual interest to the membership of the club.

A mass meeting was held last night in the Sparks Memorial Hall, Sixty-eighth and Woodland avenues, to launch the $50,000 drive for a house fund for Post 21, of which William J. Smyth is commander. The drive headquarters will be at 6800 Woodland avenue. It is proposed to present to every one who contributes a card similar to that given out by the Liberty Loan committees to persons who purchased Liberty Bonds. This was the fourth to receive a charter in this city. Among those conspicuous in the present effort are: Commander Smyth, Adjutant John F. Clayton, and Finance Officer William A. Ruppel.

Post 297 will give a dance at the Belmont Dancing Academy, Fifty-second and Market streets, Wednesday evening, February 25. The Post is known as the Brown-McCracken Post, and is the only and official Legion body in the Forty-fourth ward. It meets every other Friday evening in Franklin Hall, Fifty-second and Girard avenues. At the last meeting John J. Owens, formerly of the 109th Infantry, was elected commander and William H. Quigley was chosen adjutant.

SHIFT STREET INSPECTORS

Winston Transfers Fifty Who, He Says, Reported Falsely

Another shake-up in the street cleaning force is being felt today. Director Winston, of the Department of Public Works, shifted fifty street inspectors from the districts where they have been at work to other areas.

This action was taken following a personal inspection tour on which the director found that certain streets had not been cleaned as ordered. The reports of the inspectors, he said, had shown that the streets had been cleaned.

"I have given each of the inspectors a chance to make good," he said, "and they have failed to do so. Of what use is a report saying that certain work has been done when I know by personal inspection it has not been performed. If the men I have transferred do not report in the new districts they will have to quit their jobs."

Steve Brodie

The man who departs from convention takes a chance for an opportunity.

Of course, it is easy to be unconventional and thus attract attention.

Steve Brodie did.

The entirely conventional advertisement is usually without distinction. It lacks what one advertising firm calls the "interrupting idea."

Suppose tomorrow Wrigley advertised like Tiffany and Tiffany appropriated Wrigley's little green spear men. Would the unconventional add or detract?

In advertising, as in the arts or letters, only the brave may risk a departure from the time-honored form.

It is quite possible that if the dominating personality of our great enterprises wrote their own advertisements, an unconventional personality could be thus revealed without being either banal or bizarre.

STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER

To-morrow, Wednesday, Clover Day

To-morrow will be the first of TWO CLOVER DAYS — the famous monthly economy event that is always of interest to tens of thousands, but more than usually interesting this month—the month of many money-saving events and winter clearances. The climax of the January Sales is reached—all departments are called upon to bring forth the most attractive array of EXTRA VALUES of the month. All of the following Clover Specials, and hundreds of others, will be found under the Four-leaf Clover Signs, showing the regular price and the reduced price.
