This Gimbel Furniture Sale is Based on New Lines of Helpfulness

Backed by Tremendous Stocks Now on Show

Backed by Large Surplus Lots in Warehouse

Backed by Many Carloads in Transit

It offers—not mere lots and certainly no “jobs,” but—immense variety in all the good lines of Gimbel development.

To judge Philadelphia's furniture standing without knowing the Gimbel stocks would be like a Londoner judging the luxury and safety of railroad travel before he had enjoyed a trip on one of the big Pennsylvania railroad “limited” trains of steel Pullmans.

For twenty years Gimbels have stood foremost as furnishers of hotels—requiring furniture of various degrees of elegance but always furniture of good taste and great durability. For, if hotels did not hold to quality furnishings, replacements would soon ruin them.

A man of wealth out West built his home city a hotel that “put it on the map” and that stands as a monument to a living man. Gimbels furnished it. The wonderful hotels at Atlantic City are wholly or in part triumphs of Gimbel furnishings. And in New York.

And the same carefulness and good value-giving has taken the mere carpenter's job in thousands of cases in Philadelphia and worked out livable, lovable homes—big and little.

This sale holds double charm:

1. Satisfying furniture for every need.
2. Very great economy in prices.

Payments for furniture can be extended over a long period
