Gurnee Munn, of this city, drifted about in a heavy sea for twenty-six hours, managed to "taxi" into Vero, Fla., about 6 o'clock last night.

All aboard were safe, although they suffered somewhat from lack of food and water and the severe shaking up they received from the waves, which at times ran more than twelve feet high.

Mr. Wanamaker is a grandson of John Wanamaker, and Mr. Munn a son-in-law of Rodman Wanamaker.

Others on board were John Rutherford, Philip Boyer, Caleb Bragg and David McCullough. McCullough. Bragg and Rutherford are former naval officers, rated as pilots.

ernor Sproul to reject the candidacy of Charles J. Pommer for magistrate were made in a statement today by Senator Vare.

In filling two vacancies among the magistrates, the Governor amointed Robert Carson in recognition of Mayor Moore and Daniel Oswald in recognition of the Vares. Politicians had assumed that Pommer would be appointed on the recommendation of the Vares and it was explained that the Mayor had objected to the Pommer candidacy.

Senator Vare's statement in this connection was:
