

Forcing Snow From Streets : Versatile Shipbuilder : School Girls Design Frocks

THE WAY "mediums" write on slate the supposed message from the "spirits," demonstrated by Joseph F. Rinn, of New York

STREET CLEANERS forcing snow and ice from street by aid of a high pressure of water from fire hydrants.

MR. RINN demonstrates another trick used by "mediums" to fool those who call on them. The chalk is held between the teeth and disposed of before the lights are turned on.

A STAR noon-hour performer at the New York Shipbuilding plant, Camden. He is Nelson Anderson, a driller, and plays to big "houses."

THE "beautiful girl" is Richard Whiting and "her" lover is Henry Godley. Both are Episcopal Academy students and will appear in a sketch given by the Domino Club of the Academy at the Bellevue-Straford on Friday evening.
