IN FEAR OF ASSASSINATIONS

By the Associated Press Berlin, Jan. 29 .- Indication of the government's growing concern over the extradition of Germans accused of war L'ITALIA NON TEME offenses was given in the note sent to the Allies yesterday asking revision of clauses of the Versailles treaty.

The attempted assassination of Mathias Erzberger, minister of finance. Se Sara' Necessario gli Italiani last Monday is viewed in official circles as a precursor of what is likely to happen on a larger scale if the government rielding to the Allies, appeals to force in arresting men on the list submitted by the Entente powers. Editorial and by the Entente powers. Editorial and partisan recriminations, provoked by the attack on the finance minister, have already reached the white-hot stage. While it has been commonly known that Wilhelmstrasse would use all its persuasive power in an effort to induce the Allies to desist in their avowed purpose of demanding the surrender of Germans, the shots aimed at Erzberger have made the cabinet norm apprecionally than it has been at any other time. sive than it has been at any other time-relative to the enforcement of the extradition clauses.

A leading official of the foreign office expressed doubt today that a man could be found in Germany, from an army or navy commander down to an army or bavy commander down to an bumble village deputy, "who would lend himself to the work of executing a warrant for the arrest or detention of fellow countrymen to be dragged before a (oreign tribunal."

Suggestion is made in the note that the men wanted be tried by the Suprem. Court at Leipsie, and in this part of the communication the cabinet has indicated its belief that the nation's high.

dicated its belief that the nation's highest tribunal can guarantee an exhaustive and impartial trial.

It is pointed out that the Allies are negiven representation on the bench of the Supreme Court, which should fur ther tend to guarantee a fair trial. It suggests a neutral tribunal in the erent the proposal for use of Germany's hight court is rejected.

The economic situation in Germany is

The economic situation in Germany is precarious at present and this is an unsuitable period to invite trouble, the note indicates, continuing to point out that trouble, if it comes, will not be confined to any single party.

"The whole nation is likely to go on a general strike," an official declared today.

An examination of the wound of Eco.

An examination of the wound of Ecz. berger, who was shot by Oltwig von Hirschfeld, shows the wound little changed, with no inflammation. There is some swelling, however, and the wound's causing him pain. The pa-flent's temperature is normal, but his pulse still continues at 120.

In consequence of his setbuck yester day Erzberger is suffering from exhaustion and requires great care. With there is no immediate danger, Herr Erzberger may deal only with the most imorigint state affairs

The note to the Allies, which will not be published in Germany, warns the Entente powers that Germany cannot assume she is able to compel either national or local agencies of the law to lay hands on the men wanted and transfer them to German frontiers.

The Associated Press is informed that even responsible officials of the foreign office have announced pointblank they will refuse to execute any work counceted with extradition formalities and they threaten to strike or indulge in "passive resistance."

Greatest Life Insurance Year In All History

Virtually every life insurance company experienced notable increases in business during 1919. The world upheaval, the influenza epidemic, the tremendous expansion in living costs-all these have greatly increased the need of financial security such as only life insurance can give. The volume of new insurance placed last year broke all previous records! Statistics show the average increase to have been approximately 60 per cent., compared with 1918.

The FIDELITY MUTUAL LIFE went this record 2! points better - with an increase of 81 per cent. in new business!

The reason: Nearly one-half of the 1919 FIDELITY new business was on the "Income for Life" plana distinctive FIDELITY featurecombining:

An Income for Retirement An Income if totally and permanently disabled Protection for Dependents at Death

This unique Retirement Plan was one mated by the FIDELITY, and its very in teresting provisions make it one of the mospopular forms of Protection ever officied.

FIDELITY is also the originator of the Disability Provision, now an important factor in modern Life Insurance. It originated also the feature providing Double Benefits in event of death or disability from accidental cause.

We are proud of the part FIDELITY has placed in broadening the service Life Insurance renders, and we appreciate public con tidence as reflected by our 1919 business.
