

Arras Decorated With Legion of Honor : Emergency Fleet Moving : Smugglers Trapped

AMONG the ruins, French soldiers and civilians are listening to the address of former President Poincaré, at the dedication of the city of Arras with the insignia of the Legion of Honor.

THIS skate sharpening plant at Concourse Lake, Fairmount, is having a busy season.

CITY workmen are busy tearing down the grandstands along the Parkway. They were used at the parades during city's war activities.

THE GIRL at the desk is furnishing railway transportation to the employees of Emergency Fleet Corporation, who are moving to Washington.

CHECKER's breeches, golf stockings and a heavy sweater prove to be an ideal outfit for Fairmount Park skating.

LOWER MERION women and girls are making their own hats at the Lower Merion Y. M. C. A., Ardmore. The new department was added yesterday.

U. S. OFFICIALS have discovered an ingenious device to smuggle whisky from Cuba to New York. Packed in cotton waste the bottles were shipped in large turpentine cans.

MISS ELSIE SPITZ, 631 Dudley Street, Philadelphia. Photographs for this back-page feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.

PHILADELPHIA, SATURDAY, JANUARY 31, 1920