WANAMAKER'S

DOWN STAIRS STORE

WANAMAKER'S

WEATHER Fair

In Wanamaker's Down Stairs Store, February News Starts With 500 Women's New Spring Dresses at $15

Every dress is fresh and new and in the fashion of Spring! AND there are 30 different styles for your choosing. Six of these dresses are sketched. They are made of:—serge in navy blue—wool velour in blue and brown—silvertone suiting in brown, navy and oxford—black taffeta in two pretty models—wool jersey in reindeer, Pekin, taupe, brown, tan and navy. You'll see all the new ideas in overskirts, the shortened sleeve, ruffled skirts and a number of original uses of braid. There are all sizes in the group and styles suitable for women of many types.

Also a Most Extensive Showing of Spring Dresses of the Better Grades including delightful things of charmeuse, Georgette crepe, tricotine, crepe meteor, crepe de chine and so on. Dresses for street wear, for afternoon, and a most engaging array of evening dresses making up the group. Prices start at $20 and go to $65, with wonderfully wide choosing at $23.50, $25 and $29.50.

Three Interesting Groups of Sample Blouses

Arrive for February

Lingerie Blouses, $2.75

Mostly of white voile, prettily tucked and trimmed with laces, though there are some colored voiles in printed patterns or woven stripes.

Georgette Blouses, $4.90

Delightful spring prints in blue and rose and many blouses of plain flesh pink, white and twilight blue. You'll see round necks and high necks and many pretty uses of cream lace and pleated frills for trimming.

Plaid Taffeta Blouses, $4.90

These, too, have taken on the colors of spring, for almost all are light and fresh. They are in a simple tailored style with a collar that can be worn high or low.

Delightful New Organdie Blouses, $4.50 and $5

These blouses are not samples, but are to be had in all sizes. They are in rose, blue and bisque, with white collars of pique edged with an Irish crochet picot, or they are in all white. Both high collars and the youthful Peter Pan.

The Furniture in the Little House of Home Ideas Is Included in the February Furniture Sale

Here is a series of average-size rooms completely furnished, with economy and good taste as their keynote. During the month of February economies will be even better, as all of the furniture will bear special prices.

Little Rompers

All Ready to Be Embroidered—$1.65

Sturdy little rompers of white linen are stamped in pretty patterns. There are embroidered models to copy from, if you wish. One very pretty one has belt slides in the form of little embroidered owls with pearl buttons for eyes. These rompers will fit children of 1 to 3 years.

Some Excellent New Velour Coats Are Special at $26.50

The material is soft and warm and the coats are lined throughout with peau de cygne. The sketch gives you an idea of the style. In Pekin, reindeer and brown, these coats are to be had in sizes 14 to 20.

Other New Spring Coats

including a goodly number of delightful polo coats, and smart new sports coats of silvertin Bolivia and velour, are here at $37.50, $45 and upward to $67.50.

A Group of Winter Coats Reduced to $15

These are of velours and cheviot coatings, half lined or lined throughout. They are in navy, gray and brown, and some have fur collars. A few Oxford grade coats in extra large sizes are also in this group.

Coats Reduced to $37.50

Of velour and silvertone, mostly with large fur collars. Many of these coats are lined throughout with figured silks.

Women's Undermuslins, $1.50

These rather simple styles that most women like are of soft pink or white nainsook.

Envelope Chemises. These are trimmed with bits of colored stitching or embroidery or a little lace; some have ribbon shoulder straps.

Nightgowns. Slipover styles in pink or white, with colored stitching for adornment.

Charming Breakfast Coats and Negligees At Special Prices

Prospective brides or any woman who loves pretty things of this sort will find this a good opportunity to get them for less than usual.

Breakfast coats (they would serve equally well for negligees) of shimmering satin or taffeta are in silvery orchid, maize, peach, light or turquoise blue; some trimmed with wee ruffles. $17.50.

Corduroy negligees lined with soft, silky material, are in lovely Copenhagen blue, rose or purple. $9.75.

1000 Pair of Women's Shoes, $6.50 a Pair

You who know shoe prices of today will appreciate the value of these good-looking black kidskin, high-cut lace shoes with welted soles and medium heels.

400 Pair of Children's Shoes, $2.90

(About Wholesale Cost Today)

Good shoes for school or "best" wear are of dull black or patent leather in button style; sizes 6 to 2.

Men's Fine All-Wool Overcoats

An all-wool overcoat is the only kind to buy, when all is said and done, because in such a coat every ounce of weight is an ounce of warmth and comfort—and that's the purpose of an overcoat. They are all finely tailored coats in the good gray and brown coatings.

Ulsterettes at $29.50 and $36.50

Usters at $42.50

Men's Good Shoes $7 a Pair

They are the trim, English last shoes in dark tan or black, and worth looking into at their price.

Good-looking English last shoes of dark tan or black leather; sizes 1 to 6, $5.50 to $6.90 a pair.

For Small Boys

there are straight-lace or blucher shoes, dark tan or black, at $4.50 to $5.50 a pair.

Special Half Hose for Men ("Seconds," But Good Ones)

Black cotton with half white foot, 25c a pair; pair for $1.25.

Black merino half hose, 35c a pair; three pair for $1.

Gray Merino Shirts and Drawers $1.50 a Garment

First quality garments in a good weight to wear now. Shirts have long sleeves and drawers are ankle length.

Here Come the First Spring Suits for Women

Now who can doubt that Winter is on the wane? Charming new suits, beautifully tailored, are ready for the woman who likes to wear the new things first. Silvertone, tricotine and fine, twilled serge—all in navy blue—are the materials used in these early models.

A new point is the quite elaborate use of braiding or heavy silk embroidery, some of the jackets being almost covered with it. Collars are in roll shape or strictly tailored; jackets are made with or without belts and some even boast a youthful bow in the back.

Prices start at $39.50, $45, $55 and go to $72.50.

SEVEN LEADERS ARE TAKEN IN RAID

Newly Elected Members of Dublin Council and Irish M. P. Held

ARRESTS CAUSE UPROAR

Dublin, Jan. 31.—Many Sinn Fein leaders were arrested in a big round-up early today.

Seven of the newly elected members of the municipal council were among those arrested. The military alone carried out the raid.

The wife of one of the men arrested was informed that the warrant for the arrest would be read when the prisoner was taken to the barracks.

Joseph McGrath, Sinn Fein member of the House of Commons for the James division of Dublin, also was arrested.

The prisoners were taken in lorries to the barracks.

More than twenty of the arrested were placed in Mount Joy prison. The arrests caused great excitement in the city.

Extra editions of the evening newspapers were read with avidity by the police which was eager for details of the arrests. All those making inquiries with regard to the prisoners were referred to military headquarters where information was declined.

About forty Sinn Feiners were detained today by the police and military in various districts of Munster.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—Advices from Ireland show that the constabulary of the military detained twenty-five men under charges of violation of the lease of the realm act in counties Wick, Clare and Tipperary this morning.

HUNGARY GETS MORE TIME

Even Until February 12 to Formulate Reply to Peace Terms

Paris, Jan. 31.—(By A. P.)—Hungary has been allowed additional time to consider the peace treaty submitted by the allied powers. The Hungarian delegation was informed today at the time given it to formulate objections regarding the peace terms had been extended to February 12.

COPENHAGEN, Jan. 31.—(By A. P.) A Budapest dispatch quotes the newspaper Szombat as stating it understands that Brigadier General Harry Bandholtz, U. S. A., American military representative in Budapest, is offered to Premier Huszar the support of America for the Hungarian peace delegation.

The newspaper adds that General Bandholtz will accompany the Hungarian delegation when it returns to France and give to the Peace Conference a report of the impressions he had received on the situation during his stay in Hungary.

To Fix Official Date of War's End

LONDON, Jan. 22.—(By A. P.)—A committee of counselors has been named to decide the official date of the ending of the world war. It is declared that thousands of pounds are involved in legal proceedings which have been held up pending an authoritative opinion on the point.
