Mayor Takes Up Appropriation Measure With Penrose, Knox and Congressmen

MAY DELAY BATTLESHIPS

"I have taken the matter un with ington, and I've also brought the mat-ter to the attention of Senators Pen-rose and Knox.' said Mayor Moore this afternoon, speaking of the eleventhafternoon, speaking of the eleventh-hour light to save the emergency de-ficiency bill, with its appropriation for the Philadelphia Navy Yard

The bill, it was expected, would come up for consideration in the House to-day. The navy yard appropriation was defeated in committee by one vote. Concressman Vare was in Philadelphia at the trial of William F. Finley when vote was taken.

the vote was taken.
"There's a great deal of interest in the navy yard work," said Mayor Moore. "I told the employes down there that I'd be glad to help them. "When Secretary Daniels was here the other night I discussed the matter with him, and the secretary said if the appropriation did not go through it would mean loss of employment to 2000

This was subsequently confirmed when a delegation called on me from the navy yard. I expect some further action in Congress today which I hope will be favorable.

Postpone Navy Yard Visit "I had contemptated going to League Island today, but owing to an appointment with Director Winston and Chief Dayis on the water situation I had to postpone it. . "I will probably go tomorrow, when will have an informal conference with Admiral Hughes. In addition to a dis Admiral Hughes. In addition to a dis-cussion of the future of the navy yard, the visit will be in the nature of a re-turn call, as Admiral Hughes was at the inauguration."

Immigration Officials Deny Destitu tion Among Families of Radicals New York, Feb. 2.—(By A. P.)— Authorities at Ellis Island today denied knowledge of "deplorable" conditions among families of extremists deported committee announces it will make efforts n Washington to have these dependents

I know of nobody deported on the "I know of nobody deported on the Buford who was actually married, according to the laws of the various states of this country," said Percy A. Baker, superintendent at the island, "There may have been some who claimed that they were married, but I do not believe they could have produced any proof. Anyhow, I know of nothing in the immigration laws that provides

Of the more than 500 persons sent to the island after raids last month only two have claimed at hearings before immigration inspectors that they were married, Mr. Baker said. Most of them have refused to answer any questions at all and about half of them have been
