American Legion Posts Urged to Become 100 Per Cent

COMMANDER IS ELECTED

the Bureau of War Risk Innds to continue its close with former service men the American Legion is the American evidenced in a statement made today by W. Veryl Walton, local representative of the bureau.

"During the month of January," said Mr. Walton, "an active campaigu has been waged in this city by the wel-fare organizations and the American Legion relative to the rights and privilegs of the ex-service men and women under the war risk act, especially their reinstatement and conversion privileges.

"The fact that the active campaign is drawing to a close is no criterion that the efforts of the various welfare organizations and the American Legion should igations and the American Legion should regise it forcibly bringing to the attention of the ex-service men and women this matter of stupendous importance. It should be the personal pride of every war risk officer to see that every member of his post is 100 per cent insured." Leon Sargeant has been elected under of George T. Cornish ommander of George T. Cornish Post No. 202, the negro post of the Twenty-fourth and Twenty-seventh wards. This post has nearly 200 members, and has arranged to hold meetbers, and has arranged to hold meetbers twice a month. Dr. De Haven Hinckson is the vice commander, and Hinckson is the vice commander, and Norman the employment officer.

The post has established its headquarters at Preston street and Powelton avenue. Every third Monday the post holds a "recreation night," the husiness meeting being conducted the first Monday of the month.

State headquarters of the Legion, at Ninth and Chestnut streets, issued a ther hearing next Saturday, charged with "highway robbery."

The boys, their parents and Miss Alice Gearing, eighteen years old, of 4639 Locust street, whose pocketbook the boys snatched last evening, agreed that the act was merely a boyish prank. Miss Gearing protested when the boys were arrested, and before Magistrate Harris, at the Thirty-second street and Woodland avenue station this morning, asked that the charge be withdrawn. The magistrate fixed bail at $1000.

According to the story told at the hearing today, Miss Gearing was passing Fiftieth and Wellington streets, when the boys spoke to her, thinking they knew her. When she did not respond one of them grabbed her handbag, She screamed and they ran, returning immediately to give the handbag back.

Salesrooms in 49 leading cities of the United States, Great Britain and France

INFORMATION OF MERCHANDISE FOR TUESDAY, FEBRUARY THIRD, 1920

HAVE never had a more attractive collection of Furniture—a splendid, varied assortment of NEW Bedroom, Dining-room, Breakfast-room and Living-room Suits-reproductions of the classic designs of the periods of Chippendale, Hepplewhite, Adam, Queen Anne, Louis XIV, Louis XV, Louis XVI, William and Mary, the Italian Renaissance, and the ever popular Colonial. Also innumerable single pieces or Novelty Furniture, and an unequaled assortment of Sun Parlor or Summer Furniture—all at considerably LESS THAN OUR OWN FAIR REGULAR PRICES.

The Sale is a notable success, of course. We knew in advance that it could not be otherwise, simply because we were sure we had the best selected stock of Furniture in this city, and because we knew the public were well informed regarding the higher cost of lumber and labor and everything that goes into Furniture, and would appreciate the February reductions. We own all the Furniture in the Sale-late shipments of which are coming in from day to day—at much lower prices than we would have to pay for it now, and after this Sale is over our customers will have to pay considerably more than our February Sale prices.

Men's and Young Men's Winter Suits

Stein-Bloch, Hart, Schaffner & Marx and "Alco"

and Overcoats

To-morrow, $38:00

Of both Suite and Overcoats in this very remarkable collection there are about seven hundred—Overcoats somewhat in the majority. They come from our three most famous sources of supply-the Stein-Bloch Co., Hart, Schaffner & Marx and the "Alco" factory. They are for the most part lots that have been recently delivered, in fulfillment of contracts made months ago. They would cost now far more than we paid. The saving to our customers is relatively greater than our own, because we mark them at a very close profit even on the lower cost. THE VALUE IS REALLY EXTRAORDINARY. The Overcoats include handsome Ulsters, Ulsterettes and plain models, all silktrimmed. The Suits are cingle-breasted and doublebreasted-models, of plain blue-flannel, dark Oxford tweedweave, and a good assortment of worsted mixtures-new stripes and checks in dark shades. Regular winter weights and plenty of medium weights for men and young men who wish to extend their utility well into the spring season. At $38,00, a gilt-edge investment,
