The Chance of a Life Time

An unusual combination of circumstances today presents the most remarkable opportunity in fifty years for making money conservatively.

Babson's

Special Investment Bulletin "The Chance of a Life Time" shows how $10,000 rightly invested now is worth $15,000 invested under ordinary circumstances. This is a matter of vital importance to every investor.

With the information furnished by Babson's Financial Service you can increase the return on your invested capital by about 50%.

STOCKS OFFERED IN LARGE BLOCKS

Curb Market One of Forced Liquidation to Protect Exchange Issues

HEAVY LOSSES IN OIL GROUP

New York, Feb. 4.—Stocks were offered in large blocks on the Broad Street Curb from the beginning of business today, and the market generally was one of forced liquidation of large holdings, partly because of the necessity of selling these stocks in order to protect issues traded in on the exchange.

Numerous issues declined from 2 to 10 points, with the heaviest losses sustained in the petroleum group. White Oil, under large sales, dropped 4 points, to 29, and Simms sold down 3 points, to 44¾. International Petroleum yielded 3½ to 59½.

General Asphalt, on large sales, dropped to 104. Houston Oil was weak, falling 7 points to 105. Carib Syndicate was also heavy, selling down to 36, the lowest price touched by the new issue of stock.

Industrial shares showed pronounced weakness, New York Shipbuilding ranging from 44 to 41; Aetna Explosives from 8¼ to 8; American Marconi 5 to 4¾, and Submarine Boat from 14¼ to 13.

There were many stocks which were offered at sacrifices in which no transactions were made because of the lack of bids.

No Change in Refined Sugars

New York, Feb. 4.—The local refined sugar market remains unchanged, with the American and National companies quoting 15c, less 2 per cent. for cash, for fine granulated and Arbuckle Bros. 16c, less 2 per cent. for cash. The market for raws continues firm at 12c, c. & f., equal to 13.04, with sellers at that level. The continued labor disturbance in Cuba continues to be a source of concern to refiners here.

Philadelphia Markets
