On Philadelphia's Piers

The greatest concentration of wheat flour ever gathered in the United States is being built up in the great Government Pier at Greenwich Point, the foot of Oregon Avenue. With the arrival today of the steamships Diablo and Nishmaha, 1,150,000,000 pounds of flour will have been loaded into this pier.

The East Wind, the last of the string of 11 ships loaded with flour from San Francisco and Portland, is on its way here. When the entire shipment is unloaded, there will be 842,852 barrels of flour on the pier. Later the flour will be shipped by the Government through the United States Grain Corporation to European countries.

HIT BY BIG STORM

Two Lines Tied Up, Trains Delayed Hours, Ocean City Isolated

> Railroads sustained the brunt of the nusual storm.

Officials of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. asserted that the deep drift-ing snows had been experienced throughout that system. The Phila-delphia and Reading Railway also had an army of laborers combatting the elements, and complete blockades or long delays were reported from several lines.

Ocean City, the New Jersey resort, is completely cut off from the outside world, due to the fury of the storm.

A high running tide, combining with a fierce gale, rushed in over the causeways of both railroads in the marshlands, leading from the main line to Ocean City. Ocean City.

The water inundated the tracks, and as the ice and other flotsam piled up on the tracks of both systems the sticky snow cemented the huge portions of ice and officials of both companies say there is no saying when traffic will be opened and communication re-established with the isolated resort city. Trains from the West are from one to two hours late, and acting upon the warning of the weather bureau. the Pennsylvania company anticipates further trouble throughout the day. The West Chester branch of th
