

Pedestrians, Snowplows and Street Cleaners Battle Storm and Snow : Largest Saxophone

Ledger Photo Service.

THE northeaster of yesterday made pedestrians exert unusual effort to keep on their feet.

Ledger Photo Service

A P. R. T. SNOWPLOW doing its "bit" followed by street cars and other vehicles coming up Fifth street, at Market

Ledger Photo Service.

BELL TELEPHONE CO. employees assisted women pedestrians in the all-day whirlpool of wind at Seventeenth and Arch Streets.

Ledger Photo Service.

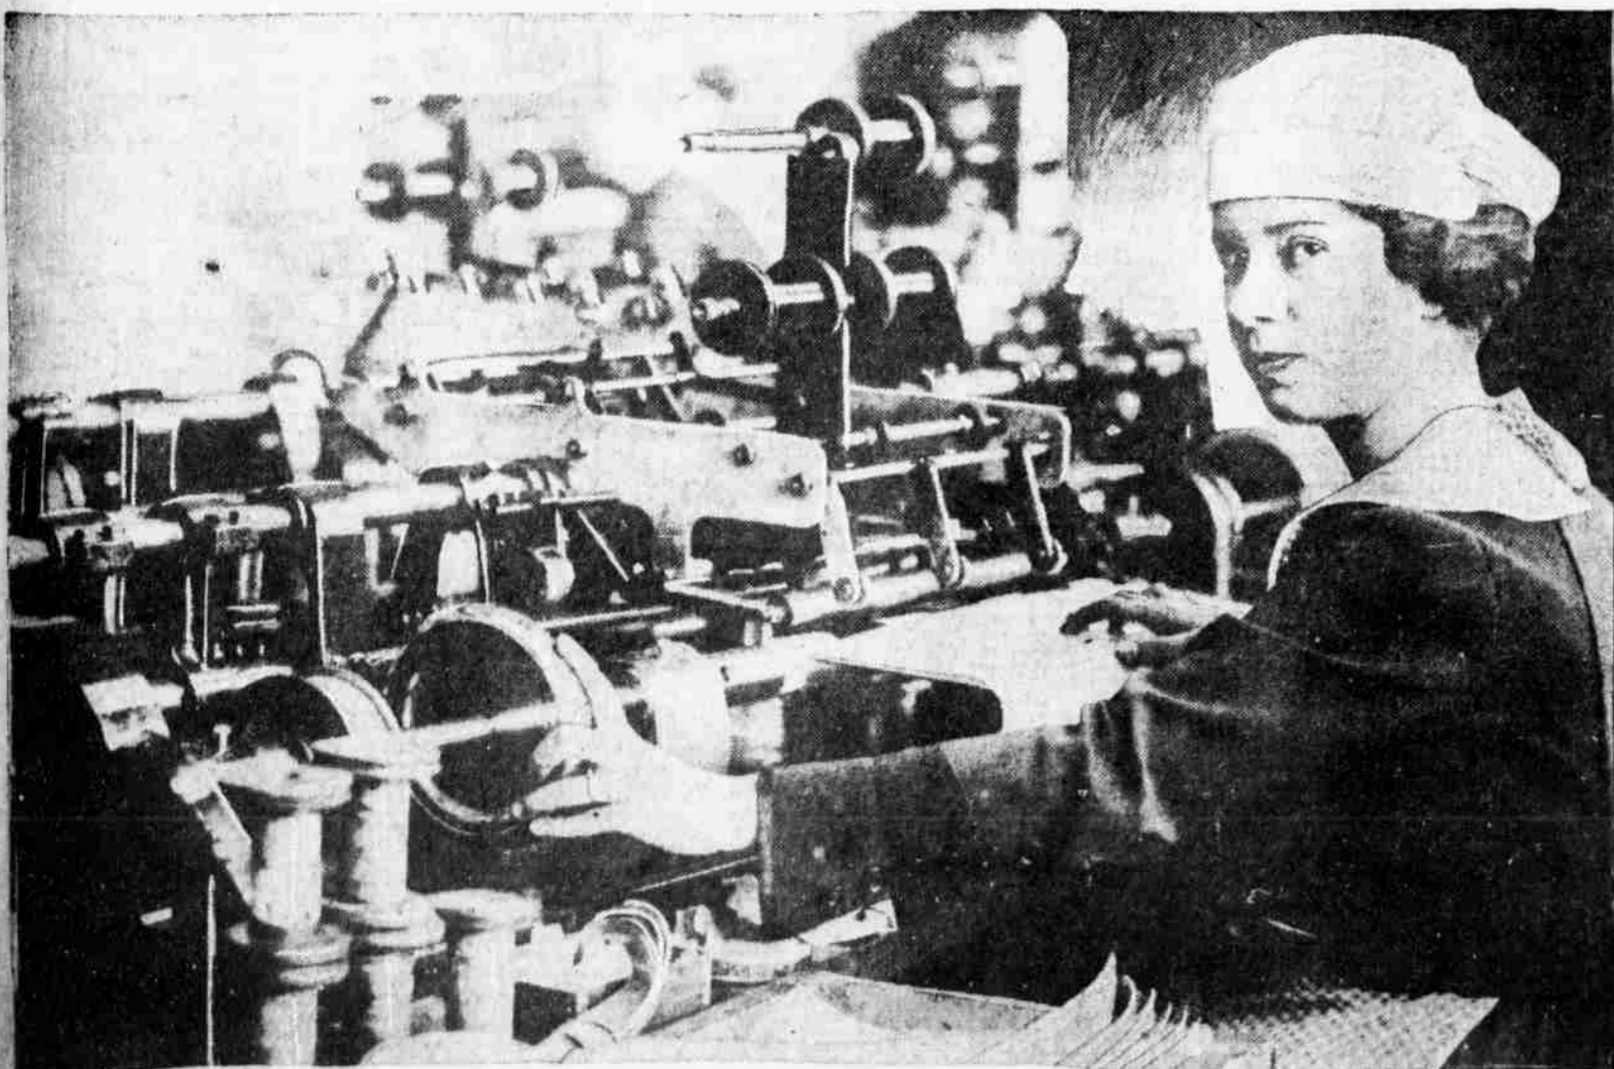

LARGE GANGS were at work early today clearing snow from Market street

Keystone View

WHEN they have snow at Saranac Lake, N. Y., here's the way they enjoy it

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

MISS ANNA BILGER, 2134 North Fifth street, winding spark coils used for automobile ignition at the Atwater Kent Manufacturing Works, 4937 Stenton avenue. It requires 15,000 turns for the completion of each coil. The paper shown at left of operator is used between layers of wire as insulation.

Underwood & Underwood.

SMALLEST saxophone player in the world with the largest saxophone. He is Michael Riley and appeared yesterday at the National Music Show, New York.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS MAE CASPER, 1838 South Ninth street, Philadelphia. Photographs for this back-page feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.