Significant developments here today indicated state-wide Republican harmony at the spring primaries, harmonious delegations to the Republican national convention in June and a clear field to re-election for United States Senator Penrose.

Councilman Charles B. Hall Vare organization leader of the Seventh ward. stated his personal belief this afternoon that the organization would not oppose Senator Penrose, who will be a candidate for nomination for another term.

Joseph R. Grundy, president of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Association, who started a war within the Re-publican party in the state, announced today, after a call on Mayor Moore, that the differences between his element in the party and the Penrose-Sproul organization have been patched up.

With Gallagher at the hotel was State Treasurer Har-mon P. Kephart. The state treasurer and the senate clerk planned to visit Senator Penrose at his home today.
